EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the principal Order by providing that when a manufacturer has not applied the utility mark to knitted goods made from utility cloth he shall not supply those goods except by export or to a person who surrenders a declaration in writing that he will not supply those goods except by or for export. The provisions of the principal Order allowing exemption from price control and " non-utility quota " restrictions in the case of goods supplied for export have been modified to the same effect.

The Order also brings into force Supplement No. 3 to Schedule J. of Utility Knitted Goods.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Order amends the Knitted Goods (Manufacture and Supply) Order, 1948, and the following are the principal changes:—

(1) When a manufacturer has not applied the utility mark to knitted goods made from utility cloth he may now supply those goods to a person whose name is entered in respect of knitted goods on the List of Registered Exporters without obtaining a declaration from that person that he will not supply those goods except by or for export. The provisions of the principal Order allowing exemption from price control and "non-utility quota" restrictions in the case of all knitted goods supplied for export have been modified to the same effect.

(2) The value of non-utility knitted goods permitted to be supplied by persons whose names are entered on Part I of the Register of Manufacturers of Knitted Goods is increased in respect of the year ending 30th October, 1949.

(3) The maximum price at which all substandard utility knitted goods may be sold is now one half of the appropriate maximum price specified in the relevant Hosiery Schedule.

(4) The Order brings into force Supplement No. 5 to Schedule J of Utility Knitted Goods.
