is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. A juvenile court shall, instead of sitting in the place known as Tower Bridge Police Court, Tooley Street, S.E.1, sit in the place known as the Church Hall, Ashburnham Place, Greenwich, S.E.10, and the portion of the metropolitan police court area hitherto assigned by Article 1 of the Juvenile Courts (London) Order, 1955(a), as a division to the said first-mentioned place shall be assigned as a division to the said last-mentioned place, and accordingly, in the Schedule to the said Order, in the first column thereof, for the words "South-East London Juvenile Court, Tower Bridge Police Court, Tooley Street, S.E.1", there shall be substituted the words "South-East London Juvenile Court, Church Hall, Ashburnham Place, Greenwich, S.E.10."

2. This Order may be cited as the Juvenile Courts (London) Order, 1956, and shall come into operation on the second day of July, 1956.

KUWAIT

1956 No. 828

The Kuwait (Amendment) Order, 1956

Made - - - -	1*st June*, 1956
Laid before Parliament	6*th June*, 1956
Coming into Operation	1*st July*, 1956

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of June, 1956

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means Her Majesty the Queen has jurisdiction within the territories of the Ruler of Kuwait;

And Whereas provision was made for the exercise of such jurisdiction by the Kuwait Order, 1953(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the Principal Order"), and the Kuwait (Amendment) Order, 1954(c);

And Whereas it is now expedient to make certain amendments to the Principal Order;

(a) S.I. 1955/873 (1955 I, p. 1048). (b) S.I. 1953/1211 (1953 I, p. 931).
(c) S.I. 1954/1702 (1954 I, p. 1029).

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913(a), or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Principal Order shall be amended in accordance with the following provisions:—

(1) In the definition of "British aircraft" in Article 4 there shall be added the words "or in Pakistan" after the word "India".

(2) In the definition of "British Ship" in Article 4 there shall be added the words "or in Pakistan" after the word "India".

(3) In sub-paragraph (3) of the definition of "British subject" in Article 4 there shall be added the words "or of Pakistan" after the word "India".

(4) In paragraph 1 of Article 24 there shall be added the words "or Pakistan" after the word "India".

(5) The following Article shall be added after Article 39:—

39A.—(1) The Secretary of State may, either upon the recommendation of Her Majesty's Political Resident, or upon such medical evidence or other grounds as he may think fit, mitigate or remit any punishment awarded by the Chief Court or by the Court for Kuwait.

(2) Nothing in this Order shall affect Her Majesty's prerogative of mercy.

2. This Order may be cited as the Kuwait (Amendment) Order, 1956, and the Principal Order, the Kuwait (Amendment) Order, 1954, and this Order may be cited together as the Kuwait Orders, 1953 to 1956.

3. This Order shall come into force on the first day of July, 1956.

And the Right Honourable Selwyn Lloyd, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions accordingly.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Kuwait Order, 1953 (referred to as "the Principal Order"). The amendments—

(1) give effect to the changes necessary on Pakistan ceasing to be part of Her Majesty's dominions on becoming a Republic within the Commonwealth;

(2) give power to the Secretary of State to mitigate or remit any punishment awarded by the Courts. This power was formerly exercised by the Secretary of State under the Indian Code of Criminal Procedure which has now been repealed in its application to Kuwait on the making of Criminal Procedure Rules by the Judge of the Chief Court under Article 77 of the Principal Order.

(a) 53 & 54 Vict. c. 37 and 3 & 4 Geo. 5. c. 16.
