CHAPTER lxxviii.

An Act to extend the powers of the Latimer Road and Acton Railway Company. A.D. 1885. [16th July 1885.]

WHEREAS by the Latimer Road and Acton Railway Act 1882 the Latimer Road and Acton Railway Company (herein referred to as "the Company") are authorised to make the railway in the said Act mentioned and by that Act the time for the compulsory purchase of lands and for constructing the said railway expires on the eighteenth of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and the eighteenth of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven respectively and it is expedient that such periods should be enlarged: 45 & 46 Vict. c. ccxlvii.

And whereas the money referred to in the forty-ninth section of the said Act still remains deposited with the Court of Chancery as a security for the completion of the said railway within the time limited by the said Act:

And whereas the powers of the said Act cannot be extended without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same (as follows):

1. This Act may be cited for any purpose as the Latimer Road and Acton Railway Act 1885. Short title.

2. Part II. (extension of time) of the Railways Clauses Act 1863 is incorporated with and forms part of this Act. Incorporation of Part II. of Railways Clauses Act 1863.

3. The powers of the recited Act with respect to the compulsory purchase or taking of lands are hereby extended and shall continue in force until the eighteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven. Extending time for the purchase of lands.

A.D. 1885.

Extending time for completing railways.

4. The time limited by the recited Act for the completion of the railways by that Act authorised is hereby extended until the eighteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Time limited for completion of railways.

5. If the railways shall not be completed within the period limited by this Act then on the expiration of such period the powers by the recited Act and this Act granted to the Company for making and completing the railway or otherwise in relation thereto shall cease to be exercised except as to so much thereof as shall then be completed.

Provisions as to taking houses of persons of the labouring class.

6. The Company shall not under the extended powers by this Act granted purchase or acquire in any parish within the metropolis as defined by the Metropolis Management Act 1855 twenty or more houses or in any other city borough or urban sanitary district or any parish or part of a parish not being within an urban sanitary district ten or more houses occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring class as tenants or lodgers unless and until—

(A) They shall have obtained in the case of the metropolis the approval of the Secretary of State for the Home Department or in any other case the approval of the Local Government Board to a scheme for providing new dwellings for the persons residing in such houses or for such number or proportion of such persons as the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) shall after inquiry deem necessary having regard to the number of persons residing in the houses liable to be taken and working within one mile therefrom and to the amount of vacant suitable accommodation in the immediate neighbourhood of the houses liable to be taken or to the place of employment of such persons and to all the other circumstances of the case; and

(B) They shall have given security to the satisfaction of the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) for the carrying out of the scheme.

(2) The approval of the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) to any scheme under this section may be given either absolutely or conditionally and after the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) have approved of any such scheme they may from time to time approve either absolutely or conditionally of any modifications in the scheme.

(3) Every scheme under this section shall contain provisions prescribing the time within which it shall be carried out and shall require the new dwellings proposed to be provided under the scheme to be completed fit for occupation before the persons residing in the houses in respect of which the scheme is made are displaced:

Provided that the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) may dispense with the last-mentioned requirement subject to such conditions (if any) as they may see fit.

(4) Any provisions of any scheme under this section or any conditions subject to which the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) may have approved of any such scheme under this section or of any modifications of any such scheme under this section or subject to which they may have dispensed with the above-mentioned requirement shall be enforceable by a writ of Mandamus to be obtained by the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) out of the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice.

(5) If the Company acquire or appropriate any house or houses for the purposes of this Act in contravention of the foregoing provisions or displace or cause to be displaced the persons residing in any house or houses in contravention of the requirements of the scheme they shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred pounds in respect of every such house which penalty shall be recoverable by the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) by action in the High Court of Justice and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom:

Provided that the Court may if they think fit reduce such penalty.

(6) For the purpose of carrying out any scheme under this section the Company may appropriate any lands for the time being belonging to them or which they have power to acquire and may purchase such further lands as they may require and for the purpose of any such purchase sections 176 and 297 of the Public Health Act 1875 shall be incorporated with this Act and shall apply to the purchase of lands beyond the metropolis by the Company for the purposes of any scheme under this section in the same manner in all respects as if the Company were a local authority within the meaning of the Public Health Act 1875 and the scheme were one of the purposes of that Act.

A.D. 1885.

(7) The Company may on any lands belonging to them or purchased or acquired under this section or any provisional order issued in pursuance of this section erect such dwellings for persons of the labouring class as may be necessary for the purpose of any scheme under this section and may sell demise or let or otherwise dispose of such dwellings and any lands purchased or acquired as aforesaid and may apply for the purposes of this section to which capital is properly applicable or any such purposes any moneys which they may be authorised to raise or apply for the general purposes of their undertaking:

Provided that all lands on which any buildings have been erected or provided by the Company in pursuance of any scheme under this section shall for a period of twenty-five years from the passing of this Act be appropriated for the purpose of dwellings and every conveyance demise or lease of such lands and buildings shall be indorsed with notice of this enactment: Provided also that the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) may at any time dispense with all or any of the requirements of this subsection subject to such conditions (if any) as they may see fit.

(8) All buildings erected or provided by the Company within the metropolis for the purpose of any scheme under this section shall be subject to the provisions of the Metropolis Building Act 1855 and the Metropolis Management Act 1855 and any Acts amending those Acts respectively.

(9) So much of section 157 of the Public Health Act 1875 as provides that the provisions of that section and of sections 155 and 156 of the same Act shall not apply to buildings belonging to any railway company and used for the purposes of such railway under any Act of Parliament shall not apply to buildings erected or provided by the Company for the purpose of any scheme under this section.

(10) The said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) may direct any inquiries to be held by their inspectors which they may deem necessary in relation to any scheme under this section and for giving effect to any of the provisions of this section and the inspectors of the said Secretary of State or the Local Government Board (as the case may be) shall for the purposes of any such inquiry have all such powers as they have for the purposes of inquiries directed by that Board under the Public Health Act 1875.

(11) The Company shall pay to the Local Government Board a sum to be fixed by that Board in respect of the preparation and issue of any provisional order in pursuance of this section and any expenses incurred by that Board in relation to any inquiries under this section including the expenses of any witnesses summoned by the inspector and a sum to be fixed by that Board not exceeding three guineas a day for the services of such inspector and the provisions of this section shall mutatis mutandis apply to the repayment of expenses incurred by or on behalf of the said Secretary of State.
