EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the Legal Aid (Assessment of Resources) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965 in consequence of the Supplementary Benefits &c. Act (Northern Ireland) 1966.

The regulations apply the rules for disregarding income (other than earnings) in the Act of 1966 to the assessment of the resources of an applicant for legal aid under the Legal Aid and Advice Act (Northern Ireland) 1965. The deductions made in respect of an applicant's dependants are based on the scales for benefit under the 1966 Act. The provisions for disregarding the capital value of the dwelling-house in which the applicant resides are extended to any dwelling in which he resides.

Hitherto provisions of the National Assistance Act (Northern Ireland) 1948 had been applied.
