The boar will be kept during the next 28 days at.....
.....in the county of.....
I enclose †.....for two guineas being the amount of the prescribed appeal fee (which is returnable in the event of the refusal, revocation or notice of suspension not being confirmed).

Signature of applicant.....
Address .....:.....
.....
Date .....19....

† State whether cheque, postal order, or money order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations made under Section 6 of the Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1944 (which empowered the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries to apply the provisions of the Improvement of Live Stock (Licensing of Bulls) Act, 1931, to pigs) revoke the Improvement of Live Stock (Licensing of Boars) (England and Wales) Regulations, 1945. They contain provisions similar to those of the regulations of 1945 apart from drafting amendments and changes in procedure relating to the licensing of boars imported or brought into England and Wales.

(2) SCOTLAND

The Licensing of Boars (Application to Scotland) Order, 1949

1949 No. 1911 (S. 131)

Made - - - -	12th October, 1949
Coming into Operation	24th October, 1949

Whereas by subsection (1) of section six of the Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1944(a), it is provided that the Improvement of Live Stock (Licensing of Bulls) Act, 1931(b), shall in Scotland, as from such day as may be appointed by the Secretary of State, apply to pigs as it applies to cattle ;

And Whereas the Secretary of State, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by the said Act of 1931 as amended and applied by the said Act of 1944, on the eighth day of March, 1946, made regulations entitled the Improvement of Live Stock (Licensing of Boars) (Scotland) Regulations, 1946(c), wherein it was provided that the said regulations should come into operation on the first day of May, 1946 ;

(a) 7 & 8 Geo. 6. c. 28. (b) 21 & 22 Geo. 5. c. 43.
(c) S.R. & O. 1946 (No. 334) I, p. 28.

And Whereas notwithstanding the provision made as aforesaid in the said Regulations, doubt may arise as to the effect thereof in the absence of any further provision made in specific exercise of the said power to appoint a day as from which the said Act of 1931 should in Scotland apply to pigs as it applies to cattle:

Now, therefore, for the removal of doubt and in exercise of the powers conferred on me by subsection (1) of section six of the said Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1944, and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby order (but without prejudice to any provision heretofore made and having effect in this behalf) that as from the 24th day of October nineteen hundred and forty-nine, the said Improvement of Live Stock (Licensing of Bulls) Act, 1931, shall apply in Scotland to pigs as it applies to cattle.

This order may be cited as the Licensing of Boars (Application to Scotland) Order, 1949, and shall come into operation on the said 24th day of October nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Dated the 12th day of October nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

Arthur Woodburn,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Power was given to the Secretary of State by section 6 of the Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1944, to apply in Scotland the provisions of the Improvement of Live Stock (Licensing of Bulls) Act, 1931, to pigs as it applies to cattle, as from such day as might be appointed by the Secretary of State. Regulations were made by the Secretary of State under the powers conferred upon him, called the Improvement of Live Stock (Licensing of Boars) (Scotland) Regulations, 1946, which were declared to come into operation on 1st May, 1946. No separate provision was made appointing a day for the application of the Act of 1931 to pigs, and in order to remove any doubt which may exist on that account as to the effect of the Regulations of 1946, the present Order is made appointing 24th October 1949 as the day from which the Act of 1931 is to apply in Scotland to pigs as it applies to cattle—but without prejudice to any effect of the Regulations of 1946, which are being replaced by new regulations containing similar provisions with certain amendments.