EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Scheme, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This (Amending) Scheme introduces, with effect from 1st April, 1947, changes in the previously existing Scheme, made by the Army Council under the Injuries in War (Compensation) Act, 1914 (Session 2), relating to the conditions for determining the amounts of the weekly allowances to be paid to the small number of ex-members of women's auxiliary services who suffered disablement arising from their service overseas during the 1914-18 war and who have continued after 1st April, 1947, eligible to receive a weekly allowance under the Scheme referred to.

The new conditions provide for the amount of the weekly allowance to be determined exclusively on the degree of disablement persisting, without regard to past or current earnings; and they also provide for an increase in the maximum weekly allowance payable, from 35s. to 45s.
