

ANNO DECIMO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

made for the Government thereof: And whereas the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses are desirous that sufficient Markets should be provided and established within the said Borough: And whereas it would tend to prevent Disputes and to establish Confidence between Buyers and Sellers in the said Markets if proper and sufficient Means were provided therein for weighing and measuring all Things sold by Weight or Measure therein, and if the Management of the said Markets were placed in the Hands of Trustees representing in equal Proportions the Interests of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough, the Merchants trading in the said Borough, and the Agriculturists and Landholders of the County of Limerick: And whereas it is therefore expedient that such Trustees should be empowered to provide and manage such Markets, to take and demand such Rents and Tolls as are herein-after in that Behalf mentioned, and to apply the same in manner herein-after mentioned: And whereas the Objects aforesaid might be more fully and completely carried into execution if certain Provisions of an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled

4 Ann. (I) An Act for regulating Weights used in this Kingdom, and that Salt and Meal shall be sold by Weight, and of another Act of the Sixth Year of the same Reign, to continue the said first-mentioned Act, were repealed, so far as they relate to the said Borough of Limerick, and further and more effectual Provisions were granted instead thereof: And whereas the said several beneficial Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; that is to say,

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. and 10 & 11 Vict. c. 14. incorporated with this Act.

I. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act, save so far as is otherwise provided by this Act, or the same are inconsistent herewith.

XI. On the First Day of the Spring Assizes to be holden for the County of Limerick in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and on the First Day of the Spring Assizes to be holden for the said County in every Year thereafter, the Eight Trustees representing the Grand Jury of the said County shall go out of Office, and Eight Trustees shall at such respective Assizes be presented to supply their Places.

Trustees retiring to be re-eligible.

XII. Every Trustee going out of Office, or otherwise ceasing to be a Trustee, may be re-elected.

Trustee of Chamber of Commerce or Grand Jury vacating Place by being elected a Member of the Council.

XIII. If the President of or any Trustee representing the Chamber of Commerce, or Foreman of or any Trustee representing the Grand Jury aforesaid, shall be afterwards elected a Member of the Council, or if the Mayor or any Trustee representing the Council shall afterwards cease to be Mayor or Member of the Council respectively, he shall thereby forthwith cease to be a Trustee under the Provisions of this Act.

Mode of supplying occasional Vacancies.

XIV. If any of the Trustees die, resign, or be disqualified, or cease to be a Trustee from any other Cause, the remaining Trustees of the same Class, if they think fit, may, within One Month from the happening of such Vacancy, elect another Trustee in his Place, and every Trustee so elected shall continue in Office only so long as the Person in whose Place he is elected would have been entitled to continue in Office.

XV. If

If no Election on Day appointed, it may be made on subsequent Day.

XV. If from any Cause no Election or Presentment take place on the Day appointed for the same, the Election or Presentment shall, in the Case of the Council or of the Chamber of Commerce, stand adjourned until the same Day of the following Week, and in the Case of the Grand Jury aforesaid until some other convenient Day during the same Assizes; and in such Case the Trustees who would on that Day have retired from Office shall continue in Office until such adjourned Election or Presentment takes place.

Certain Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. incorporated with this Act.

XVI. The following Clauses of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," that is to say,

The Clauses with respect to the Qualification of Commissioners;

And with respect to the Meetings and other Proceedings of the Commissioners;

And with respect to the Contracts to be entered into and the Deeds to be executed by the Commissioners;

And with respect to the Liabilities of the Commissioners, and to legal Proceedings by or against the Commissioners;

And with respect to the Appointment and Accountability of the Officers of the Commissioners;

And with respect to the Accounts to be kept by the Commissioners;

And with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners;

And with respect to the making of Byelaws, and with respect to giving Notices and Orders;

And with respect to the Proof of Debts in Bankruptcy or Insolvency;

And with respect to the Tender of Amends,

Shall be incorporated herewith, and shall, so far as they are applicable, and are not varied hereby or inconsistent herewith, apply to the Functions and Duties and Acts and Proceedings of the Trustees.

First Meeting of the Trustees.

XVII. The Trustees shall hold their First General Meeting at some convenient Place within the said Borough within One Month next after the passing of this Act.

Quorum of Trustees.

XVIII. No Business shall be transacted at any Meeting of the Trustees unless Eleven Trustees are present.

How Notices of Meetings to be sent.

XIX. All Notices of any Meeting of the Trustees shall be delivered at or sent by Post or otherwise to the usual Place of Abode or Business of each of the Trustees, One clear Week at least previous to such Meeting.

Minutes of Proceedings to be open to Inspection.

XX. The Minute Book in which the Proceedings of the Trustees shall be entered shall be open to the Inspection of any Trustee or Member of the Council, with Liberty, by himself or his Agent, to take Extracts or Copies of all or any Part thereof.

Appointment of Secretary and Officers.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to appoint from Year to Year a Secretary, Treasurer, and such Clerks and Officers as may be necessary for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that the same Person shall not be Treasurer and Secretary.

Secretary to Trustees shall call Meetings.

XXII. The Secretary to the Trustees shall, when and so often as he shall be directed in Writing by Seven Trustees so to do, convene Special Meetings of the Trustees, but no such Meeting shall be held unless One clear Week's Notice thereof at the least be given.

Evidence of Byelaws.

XXIII. A Copy of any Byelaw which shall be made by the Trustees, sealed with the Seal of the said Trustees, and with a Declaration thereon, signed by the said Mayor or Chairman of the Trustees, that the same is in force, shall be received as Evidence of any such Byelaw, and of the sending and publishing thereof as aforesaid, in all Courts of Law and Equity whatsoever.

Power to borrow Money on Mortgage.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to borrow at any Rate of Interest not exceeding Five Pounds for the Hundred Pounds by the Year, on Mortgage of the Lands, Works, Rents, and Tolls hereby authorized to be purchased, hired, appropriated, or taken, or of any Property which may be vested in the said Trustees by virtue of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, for the Purposes of this Act, and from Time to Time to pay off and reborrow the same or any Part thereof, but so as that there shall not be due at any One Time under the present Power more than the said Principal Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds.

Form of Mortgage.

XXV. Every Mortgage authorized to be made under the Provisions of this Act shall be by Deed under the Common Seal of the said Trustees, duly stamped, and in which the Consideration shall be truly stated, and may be respectively according to the Forms in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or according to the Form in Schedule (B.) to "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," annexed, or to the like Effect respectively.

Mortgagees may enforce Payment of Arrears by Appointment of a Receiver.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for such Mortgagees to enforce the Payment of the Arrears of Principal and Interest due on any such Mortgages by the Appointment of a Receiver; and in order to authorize the Appointment of such Receiver in the event of the Principal Monies not being duly paid, the Amount owing to the Mortgagee by whom Application for such Receiver shall be made shall not be less in the whole than Five hundred Pounds.

Power and Forms of Transfer.

XXVII. Any Person entitled to any such Mortgage may transfer his Right and Interest therein to any other Person; and every such Transfer shall be by Deed duly stamped, wherein the Consideration shall be truly stated, and may be according to the Forms respectively in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, or according to the Form in the Schedule (C.) to "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," annexed, or to the like Effect respectively.

Application of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. to Mortgages.

XXVIII. The several Provisions of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners, shall be applicable to all Mortgages to be executed by the Trustees, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were re-enacted herein, and the Words "Rents" or "Tolls" were inserted therein wherever the same may be necessary to effectuate the Object of this Provision.

Addresses of Creditors.

XXIX. In addition to the Register of Mortgages, and the Transfers thereof, to be kept by the Secretary of the Trustees, they shall provide a Book, to be called "The Creditors Address Book," in which the Secretary shall from Time to Time enter, in alphabetical Order, the Corporate Names and Places of Business of the several Creditors of the Trustees being Corporations, and the Surnames of the several other Creditors, with their respective Christian Names, Places of Residence, Additions, and Descriptions, so far as the same may be known to the Trustees; and every Notice required by this or any Act incorporated herewith to be left at the Residence of any Creditor may be forwarded through the Post Office to such Creditor to the last Place of Business or of Residence mentioned in such Book.

Power to construct Market Places.

XXX. Whereas Plans and Sections of the Market Places, and of the Approaches thereto, and of the other Works in connexion therewith, to be authorized by this Act, and also a Book of Reference containing the Names of the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and of the Occupiers of the Lands in, through, by, near, or along which the same are proposed to be executed, have been deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of the City of Limerick: Be it enacted, That, subject to the Provisions in this Act and the Acts incorporated herewith contained, it shall be lawful for the Trustees, upon the Lands delineated in the said Plans and Sections and described in the said Book of Reference, to enter, and the same to take and appropriate for the Purposes of this Act, and upon the Lands so entered upon, taken, and appropriated to make, construct, provide, provide, and establish a new Market Place or Market Places, with all necessary Buildings and Works, Conveniences, and Appurtenances thereto, for the Sale respectively of Corn and all other Agricultural Produce, Cattle and other live Stock, dead Pigs, Butter, Fish, Fowl, Eggs, Potatoes, Fruit and Vegetables, Hay, Straw, and Green Food for Cattle, and of all such other marketable Commodities as are in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed respectively mentioned or referred to, and to make, execute, and maintain the same, and the Approaches thereto, and other Works in connexion therewith, upon the Lands delineated and described in the said Plans and Sections: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Trustees to take any Land for the Purpose of making more than One of the new Markets delineated on the said Plans in the first instance; provided also, that Land shall only be taken for the Second of the said new Markets when and so soon as the First thereof shall have been opened and established.

No Land to be taken outside the Borough Boundary.

XXXI. No Land shall be taken for the Purposes of this Act by Purchase or Lease outside the present Boundary of the said Borough.

Markets under this Act to be held within the Borough.

XXXII. The Markets to be provided and established under this Act shall be held within the Municipal Boundaries of the said Borough; and, subject to the Provisions of this Act, no Market, other than the Markets to be provided and established under this Act, shall be held within the said Boundary and within a Circuit of One Mile therefrom.

Lands for extraordinary Purposes.

XXXIII. The Lands to be taken or appropriated for extraordinary Purposes shall not exceed Five Acres.

Power to take Land on Lease.

XXXIV. If the Trustees shall deem it expedient so to do, it shall be lawful for them to take on Lease or otherwise rent any Land which they may think convenient or proper for any of the Works or Purposes of this Act, for such Term, at such Rent, and subject to such Conditions and Covenants as the Trustees shall think proper, and to erect on such Land any of the Works authorized by this Act, and to pay the Costs thereof, together with the Rent of such Land, out of the Monies to be raised under this Act.

Trustees authorized to sell, lease, or surrender surplus Lands.

XXXV. In any Case in which the Trustees shall have purchased or hired, under the Authority of this Act, any Lands or Premises which shall not be in the Opinion of the Trustees necessary for the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Trustees to sell, dispose of, lease, or surrender the same or any Part thereof to such Person, at such Times, and in such Manner as they shall think fit.

XXXVI. The

Period for Completion of Works.

XXXVI. The several Works hereby authorized shall be completed within Five Years after the passing of this Act, and on the Expiration of such Period the Powers by this Act and the Acts incorporated herewith given to the Trustees for constructing the same shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much of any Market Place or Market Places as shall then be completed.

Powers for compulsory Purchase of Lands limited.

XXXVII. The Powers of the Trustees for the compulsory taking of Lands shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Three Years from the passing of this Act.

Power to enlarge Market Places from Time to Time.

XXXVIII. If at any Time or Times hereafter any Market Place or Market Places to be established under the Provisions of this Act shall be found to be not sufficiently commodious or capacious, it shall be lawful for the Trustees to enlarge and improve the same from Time to Time; and all and singular the Powers and Provisions of this Act and the said incorporated Acts, except the Powers for the Purchase of Land otherwise than by Agreement, shall be applicable for the Purposes of enlarging and improving the same, and of regulating and maintaining the same when enlarged and improved.

Power to take existing Markets, making Compensation.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Trustees, if they shall think fit, to prohibit the holding of any Market or reputed Market not now vested in the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and to purchase the Interest of any Person or Persons, other than the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, having or claiming to have at the Time of the passing of this Act any legal Right to hold a Market within the Limits of this Act, and to remove or discontinue the same, or appropriate the same to the Uses of a public Market, under the Provisions of this Act; and upon such Prohibition or Purchase such Market or reputed Market shall cease, be discontinued, and extinguished as a private Market, and all Right, in whomsoever vested, to demand, take, receive, retain, or collect any Beamage, Porterage, Piccage, Customs, Rents, Stallages, Tolls, or Dues whatsoever, by whatever Name known, now or heretofore paid or payable by Persons resorting to such Markets, and all Powers and Remedies for the Recovery thereof, shall cease and be for ever abolished; and the Compensation to be made to the Person or Persons claiming to hold such Market or reputed Market shall, in case such Person or Persons and the Council do not agree upon the same, be ascertained and determined according to the Provisions contained in "The Land Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," in the same Manner as for any Land or other Property purchased or taken in pursuance of or for the Purposes of this Act.

Power to Owner of private Mar-

XL. It shall be lawful for the Owner of every legal Market existing at the Time of the passing of this Act within the Limits of this Act to ket to continue the same.

to continue to hold the same, and to receive the Rents, Profits, and other Emoluments thereof, unless and until the Trustees shall purchase the Interest in the same, or shall prohibit the holding of the same, and make Compensation for the Discontinuance thereof as aforesaid.

Present Markets to be removed as soon as new Markets completed.

XLI. Except as to such private legal Markets, if any, as aforesaid, the Markets to be established under this Act shall be the only Markets within the Limits of this Act; and when and so soon as the Market Places to be provided hereunder shall be completed and opened for public Use, such of the present Markets for the Sale of Corn and all other agricultural Produce which now belong to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, as the Trustees shall in that Behalf direct, shall be removed to and held in and upon such Market Places; and the several other Market Places now vested in the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses shall be used by the Trustees for the holding of such Markets respectively as they shall in that Behalf direct; and as soon as the said several Markets shall have been opened for public Use, all other Markets or reputed Markets whatsoever within the Limits of this Act (saving always such private legal Markets, if any, as aforesaid,) shall cease, be discontinued, and extinguished; and thenceforth it shall not be lawful to demand, take, receive, retain, or collect, from any Person resorting to any Market within the Limits of this Act, anything whatever, except the Rents, Tolls, and Rates to be authorized under the Provisions of this Act, and except also the usual and accustomed Rents, Stallages, Tolls, Dues, Profits, and Emoluments of such private legal Markets as aforesaid, to be taken in such last-mentioned Markets as heretofore: Provided always, that until the Markets to be provided under the Authority of this Act shall be opened for public Use, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses shall have full Power and Authority and they are hereby authorized to continue to demand, take, and receive all such Market Tolls, Customs, and Dues as they are at present legally entitled to; and provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees to retain and use for the Purposes of this Act, and as a Market or Markets thereunder, any Market or Market Place now held or used by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses; provided always, that in the event of any such Retainer, Appropriation, and Use by the Trustees, they shall be liable and subject to pay and thenceforth shall pay the Rents and Charges to which the said Market or Market Place shall be respectively subject.

4 Anne, c. 14. and 6 Anne, c. 12. (I.), so far as relates to the Borough of XLII. When and as soon as but not before any Market to be provided under this Act shall be opened for public Use, so much of the said Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fourth Year of Queen Anne, and so much of the said other Act of the Sixth Year of the same Reign, for continuing the said first-mentioned Act, as relate to the Appointment, Duties, and Remuneration of Weighmaster, shall be and they are hereby repealed, in so far as they extend to the said Borough of Limerick, or relate to the Appointment, Duties, and Remuneration of Weighmaster within the Limits of the said Borough, and the Rights, Duties, Privileges, and Emoluments of Weighmaster of the said Borough, in every respect whatever, shall cease, be abolished, and extinguished, and also all Tolls, Dues, and Customs, now or heretofore collected or claimed by the Corporation of the said Borough shall cease and be absolutely extinguished; and in lieu and in consideration thereof, and of all other Charges whatsoever, now or heretofore made or claimed by the said Corporation, there shall be substituted the Rents and Tolls in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed mentioned; which said Rents and Tolls the Trustees shall collect and account for, and shall not be at liberty to diminish, vary, alter, reduce, waive, or remit in any respect or anywise howsoever, paying One Third of the half-yearly Proceeds of said Rents and Tolls to the Council twice in each Year, upon the Days and Times and in the Manner and subject to the Provisions hereafter mentioned.

Limerick, repealed.

All Tolls, &c. abolished, and the Tolls, &c. in Schedule (C.) to this Act substituted for them.

XLIII. Provided always, That no Privilege nor Exemption, of what Nature or Kind soever, from Payment of Tolls, Dues, Rates, and Customs, now or heretofore enjoyed or claimed by the Freemen of the Corporation of the said Borough or City, shall apply to any Market established under the Provisions of this Act.

Freemen's Exemptions from Tolls not to extend to this Act.

XLIV. After the Market Places hereby authorized to be provided shall be opened for public Use, it shall be lawful for the Trustees, or any Person appointed by them, under this Act, to keep Order in such Market Plate or Market Places, and for any Constable or Policeman to remove to any Place to be appointed for this Purpose by the Trustees within the said Borough any Cart, Booth, Stall, Stand, Bulk, Block, Tressel, or other Obstruction erected, placed, or used in any Street, Square, Road, Lane, Passage, or other public Place within the said Borough, other than such private legal Market as aforesaid for the Sale or Display of any of the Stock, Goods, Provisions, Articles, or Commodities specified in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed.

When new Market Places opened, Trustees may remove Stalls, &c. from public Places.

XLV. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to appoint such Number of Persons as they may think necessary for the Purpose of weighing or measuring all Corn or Grain, Pulses, or Seeds brought by Water Carriage within the Limits of this Act, and to take for the same the Metage Tolls specified in Schedule (D.) to this Act annexed, and which Persons so appointed shall, before entering on the Duties of their Office, make and subscribe an Oath that they will faithfully and and honestly discharge the Duties of such Office, which Oath the Mayor or any other Justice of the Peace of the said Borough for the Time being is hereby authorized to administer.

After new Market is opened, no Person, except a licensed Hawker, &c., to sell, except in the Market Place, or in his own Dwelling.

XLVI. After the said Market Places shall be opened for public Use, every Person (except an Auctioneer selling by Auction in any Place other than the public Streets, or a licensed Hawker, or a Person hawking or selling Eggs or Fruits, or a Person bringing by Water Carriage any Corn, Grain, Pulses, or Seeds,) who shall sell or expose for Sale in any Place within the Limits of this Act, other than in some One of the said Market Places, or of such private legal Markets, or in his own Dwelling House, Shop, Warehouse, Yard, or Store, any Cattle or live Stock, or any Corn, or anything whatever in respect of which Rents or Tolls are by this Act authorized to be taken, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings, to be recovered in the same Manner as Penalties are recoverable under "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847."

All Corn or Grain, &c. to be weighed at the public Weighing Places.

XLVII. After the said Market Places shall be opened for public Use, all Corn, Grain, Pulses, or Seeds bought or sold in any of the said Market Places shall, if the same shall have been brought by Land Carriage, be weighed at some One of the Weighing Houses or Places to be provided by the Trustees, and if the same shall have been brought by Water Carriage shall be weighed from on board the Vessel bringing the same, by proper Officers appointed by the Trustees in that Behalf, upon pain of every Person buying, and of every Person selling the same, forfeiting respectively for every Draught, or Part of every Draught, where such Corn, Grain, Pulses, or Seeds shall form Part only of any Draught, omitted to be weighed as aforesaid, any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for the First Offence, and any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every subsequent Offence, to be recovered in like Manner as the Penalties aforesaid; and all such Corn, Grain, Pulses, or Seeds shall, upon the Sale thereof, be weighed net, and the Price thereof shall be determined according to the full Weight, after deducting the Weight of the Package, Sack, or Bag; and if any Buyer, by himself or by any other Person employed by him, shall demand, take, or receive any other or greater Quantity thereof than the Quantity really and bonâ fide bought and agreed for at such net Weight, or shall demand or take any Addition or Allowance to the Weight over and above the real Content thereof at such net Weight, or demand or make any Deduction from the full and true Amount of the Price of the real Content thereof, according to such net Weight, under Pretence of such Allowance or Addition for Tret, Beamage, or Brokerage or Porterage, or under any other Pretence whatever, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, to be recovered as aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall not not be necessary that any Corn or Grain, Pulses, or Seeds imported by Water Carriage from any Place beyond the Mouth of the River Shannon be weighed as aforesaid, or measured; but if the Buyer or Seller thereof require the same to be weighed or measured, the same shall be weighed or measured by some Officer of the Trustees from on board the Vessel importing the same, but no Toll, Duty, or Charge whatsoever shall be taken or demanded in respect of weighing or measuring the same, other than the Tolls specified in the Schedule (D).

Power to take Tolls.

XLVIII. It shall be lawful for and the Duty of the Trustees to demand from every Person occupying or using any Stand, Shed, Station, or Place in any Market Place to be provided or established under the Provisions of this Act, or any Buildings or Ground connected therewith, or bringing into any such Market Place or Buildings or Ground any Cattle or other live Stock, or any Corn or Grain, or any marketable Commodity, or any Provisions, or any Article, or anything whatever specified in the said Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, such Rents and Tolls as are specified in the said Schedule: Provided always, that such Rents and Tolls shall only be chargeable and charged upon Cattle, live Stock, Corn, Grain, or any other marketable Commodity which shall be sold in any Market Place established by virtue of this Act.

Rents for the Deposit of Articles unsold.

XLIX. It shall be lawful for the Trustees, through the Person for the Time being appointed to attend any Store House, Shed, Building, or Place which may be provided by the Trustees for the safe keeping of any Provisions, or anything else whatever (except Grain, Corn, or Butter, for which no other Charge than those mentioned in the said Schedule shall be allowed) mentioned in the said Schedule (C.), which may be or which shall remain unsold, to demand from every Person requiring the same to be deposited for safe keeping, or requiring the same to be delivered back, such Rents as they may from Time to Time in their Discretion think reasonable and appoint, and such Rents shall be due and recoverable in the same Manner as any other Rents by this Act authorized to be taken; and if the Corn, Provisions, or other Thing deposited be not removed at the Time specified in that Behalf, it shall be lawful for the Trustees, through the Person so appointed as aforesaid, to sell the same by Auction at any Hour between Twelve and Four o'Clock on any subsequent Market Day, and out of the Proceeds to satisfy any Rents (if any) which may be due, and the Charges of the Sale, leaving the Overplus (if any) in the Hands of the Treasurer, for the Use of the Person entitled thereto; and if the Title thereto shall be disputed between any Two or more Persons, the Treasurer shall have the same Right in all respects to compel them to interplead as any Sheriff has by Statute or otherwise to compel adverse Claimants of Goods seized in Execution to interplead.

All Butter brought for Sale to be inspected previous to Sale.

L. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to appoint a competent Person or Persons to inspect all Butter brought for Sale within the Limits of this Act; and no Butter which shall be brought for Sale as aforesaid, in Cask, Firkin, or Keg, shall be sold within the Limits of this Act without such Inspection as aforesaid, under a Penalty not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings for every such Offence.

All Monies, to be paid weekly into a Bank at Limerick.

LI. All Monies to be received for Rents, Tolls, and Rates, and all other Monies whatever, and however to arise to or to be received by the Trustees under this Act, shall be lodged weekly in a Bank in Limerick, to be chosen by them from Time to Time, to their Credit, to an Account to be entitled "The Account of the Limerick Market Trustees," and all Payments shall be made by Cheques or Drafts on such Bank, to be signed by the Chairman and Two of the Trustees, and countersigned by the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Trustees for the Time being.

Application of Money arising from Tolls, &c. under this Act.

LII. That all Monies arising from the Rents and Tolls to be levied and taken as aforesaid, and all Monies which shall be borrowed on Mortgage as aforesaid, and all Monies which shall come to the Hands of the Trustees otherwise howsoever under this Act, shall be applied and disposed of as follows; first, in defraying the Charges and Expenses of the Town Council, the Grand Jury, and the Chamber of Commerce respectively, preparatory and incident to the passing of this Act; secondly, in paying the Interest of the Monies to be borrowed as aforesaid; thirdly, in paying to the Council One Third of the gross Income of the Trustees, such One Third to be computed after providing out of the said gross Income for the Interest of all Sums of Money to be raised for the Purposes of this Act; and after the Principal Monies to be borrowed as aforesaid shall have been paid, then such One Third to be computed after deducting One thousand Pounds per Annum from the gross Receipts for the Purposes of this Act; fourthly, in paying the Salaries and Expenses of the Officers appointed for carrying this Act into execution, and making, providing, regulating, and maintaining the Markets and Market Places hereby authorized, and carrying all the Purposes of this Act into execution; and, fifthly, in paying off the Principal of the Monies so borrowed as aforesaid; and the Residue (if any) in the Hands of the Trustees after the Purposes aforesaid shall have been effected shall be paid and applied for such public Purposes within the Limits of this Act as the said Trustees may think fit.

LIII. The

Books to be kept of Receipts and Disbursements.

LIII. The Trustees shall cause Books to be provided and kept, and true, accurate, and regular Accounts to be therein entered, of all Sums received and paid for and on account of this Act, and of the several Purposes for which such Sums shall have been received and paid, which Books shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of any of the Trustees, or any Member of the Council, or any Creditor of the Trustees or the Council, without Fee or Reward; and any of the Persons aforesaid may take Copies of or Extracts from the said Books without paying anything for the same; and any Clerk or other Person having the Custody of the said Books who shall not on any reasonable Demand of any such Person as aforesaid permit him to inspect the said Books, or to take Copies or Extracts as aforesaid, shall be liable to a Penalty of Five Pounds for every such Offence.

The Trustees to balance and examine their Accounts half-yearly.

LIV. The Trustees shall cause their Accounts to be balanced twice in each Year, from the First Day of September in the Year preceding to the First Day of March, and from the First Day of March to the First Day of September, and a half-yearly General Meeting of the Trustees, for the Purpose of examining, settling, and certifying the said Accounts shall be held on some convenient Day in the Second Week of March and the Second Week of September; and Seven Days at least before such Meeting the Trustees shall cause a full and true Statement and Account to be drawn out of the Amount of all Monies received and expended by them under this Act during the preceding Half Year, and of all Contracts entered into, and of all Debts then owing by them, and of One Third of their gross Income, without any Deduction whatever, save for Interest, as before mentioned, during the said Half Year; and they shall cause such Statement and Account to be printed, and shall allow the same to remain for Inspection at their Office; and every Trustee or Member of the Council, or Creditor of the Trustees or the Council, or any Person acting on behalf of such Creditor, may at all reasonable Times inspect such Statement and Account, and compare the same with the Books and Documents relating thereto in the Possession of the Trustees; and the Secretary shall, on Demand, furnish a printed Copy of the said Statement and Account to every such Trustee, Member of the Council, or Creditor as aforesaid, without Fee; and Seven Days at the least before the Meeting for examining and settling such Accounts the Trustees shall give public Notice of such intended Meeting, stating in such Notice that the said Statement and Account are printed, and lie at their Office ready for the Inspection of all such Persons as aforesaid.

Accounts to be examined and settled at the half-yearly Meeting.

LV. The Accounts of the Trustees, so balanced as aforesaid, together with the said Statement and Account, shall be produced at the said half-yearly Meeting of the Trustees, or at some Adjournment ment thereof, at which Meeting all Members of the Council, and Creditors of the Trustees or the Council, and Ratepayers of the said Borough, and other Persons interested, may be present; and the Accounts shall be then finally examined and settled by the Trustees, and if the same be found just and true they shall be allowed by the Trustees, and certified accordingly under the Hand of the Chairman of such Meeting, and after they shall have been so allowed, and signed by such Chairman, and also by the Auditors, as herein-after provided, the same shall be final in regard to all Persons whomsoever, unless an Appeal be prosecuted against such Accounts, as herein-after provided.

Auditors to be appointed.

LVI. The Auditors under this Act shall be the Auditors provided to be elected in pursuance of an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in Ireland, and they shall receive a reasonable Remuneration, not exceeding Two Pounds each, for every Day they shall be fully employed in auditing any Accounts under this Act, and all such Expenses as they shall be put to in auditing the same; and if any Dispute arise as to the Amount of the Remuneration or the Expenses, it shall be settled by any Two of the Justices of the said Borough; and the Remuneration and Expenses of such Auditors shall be defrayed out of the Sums of Money to be received by the Trustees under this Act.

3 & 4 Vict. c. 108.

Auditors to inspect Accounts, and may appeal against the same, if they think fit.

LVII. The Auditors shall attend, as soon as conveniently may be after the said half-yearly Meeting, at the Office of the Trustees, or at some other convenient Place to be appointed by the Trustees, and from Time to Time, in Presence of the Secretary to the Trustees, if he desire to be present, proceed to audit the Accounts of the Trustees for the Half Year preceding the said Meeting; and the Trustees shall produce and lay before such Auditors the Accounts so allowed and certified as aforesaid, together with the Statement and Account herein-before mentioned, accompanied with proper Vouchers in support of the same, and all Books, Papers, and Writings in their Custody or Power relating thereto; and any Person interested in the said Account as Trustee or Creditor of the Trustees, or as a Ratepayer, may be present at the Audit of the said Accounts, by himself or his Agent, and may make any Objection to any Part of such Account; and if the Accounts be found correct, such Auditors shall sign the same in token of their Allowance thereof; but if such Auditors think that the Amount of the said One Third of the gross Income of the Trustees during the said Half Year is not truly and correctly stated, they may rectify and amend the Accounts by inserting the true and correct Amount of the said One Third of the said gross gross Income, and if the Trustees do not object to such Rectification the Auditors may sign the Accounts so rectified and amended, in token of their Allowance thereof; but if the Trustees object to such Rectification, or the Auditors think there is any other just Cause to disapprove of any Part of the said Accounts, the Trustees may appeal against such Rectification, or the Auditors or any other Person interested in the said Accounts as aforesaid may appeal against any such Parts of the said Accounts as shall be so disapproved of, to One of the Two next Quarter Sessions; Notice in Writing of such Appeal being given to the Auditors in the Case of an Appeal by the Trustees, and to the Secretary of the Trustees in the Case of an Appeal by any other Party, Fourteen Days at the least before the hearing of such Appeal.

Court may order Payment of the Costs of the Appeal, which shall be final.

LVIII. Upon the hearing of any such Appeal the Assistant Barrister may make such Order as he shall think fit respecting the Payment of the Costs of the Appellant or Respondent, out of the Monies coming to the Hands of the Trustees under this Act, and his Order upon the Appeal shall be in all respects final.

Yearly Abstract to be prepared.

LIX. After such Accounts shall be examined and audited in the Month of September in every Year, the Treasurer shall make out in Writing, and cause to be printed, a full Abstract of the Accounts of the Trustees for the Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with a Statement of the Balance of such Accounts, duly audited and certified by the Chairman of the Trustees and by the Auditors; and the said Account in Abstract shall be open at all seasonable Hours to the Inspection of the Public, upon Payment of a Fee, to be fixed by the Auditors, and not to exceed in any Case One Shilling; and Copies thereof shall be delivered to all Persons applying for the same, upon Payment of a reasonable Price for each Copy, to be fixed, and not to exceed in any Case One Shilling; and One Copy thereof shall be transmitted free of Charge to the Clerk of the said Borough, on or before the Thirty-first Day of January then next ensuing, under the Penalty of Ten Pounds against the Treasurer for not preparing and sending in the said Account; and it shall not be necessary to send a Copy of the said Account to any other Clerk whatever, or to prepare any other Account or send any Copy thereof, anything herein, or in any Act or Part of any Act incorporated herewith, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Upon the Accounts being audited, the Treasurer shall pay over One Third of the gross half-yearly Income.

LX. Immediately upon the Auditors auditing the Accounts of the Trustees it shall be the Duty of the Trustees to order the Treasurer to pay over forthwith, to the Account of the Council under this Act, the Amount of the One Third of the gross Income of the Trustees for the preceding Half Year, to be ascertained as aforesaid, as allowed or certified by the Auditors; and if the same shall be at any Time unpaid unpaid by the Space of Seven Days next after the First Day of October or the First Day of April in any Year, it shall be lawful for the Council to apply for the Appointment of a Receiver over the Rents, Tolls, and Rates hereby authorized to be taken and levied, until the said One Third, with all Costs and Expenses attending the same, shall be satisfied, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as any Mortgagee under this Act to the Extent of Five hundred Pounds might enforce the Payment of Arrears of Principal and Interest.

Penalty on damaging Boards.

LXI. Any Person who shall destroy, pull down, injure, or deface any Board on which any Byelaw or Rule of the Trustees, or any Rent, Stallage, Toll, or Due to be taken in pursuance of this Act, shall be painted, shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence, and shall defray the Expenses attending the Restoration of such Board.

Damages, &c. to be levied by Distress.

LXII. All Damages, Costs, and Expenses which are by this Act, or any Act incorporated herewith, directed to be paid, and the Amount of which shall not be disputed, may be levied by Distress, and any Justice, on Application, shall issue his Warrant accordingly.

All Penalties Forfeitures, &c. must be sued for within Three Months.

LXIII. No Penalty for any Offence against any Byelaw, nor any other Penalty, Forfeiture, or Sum of Money whatever, imposed or made payable for any Offence against or Non-compliance with this Act, or any Act incorporated herewith, shall be sued for or recovered, unless the Action or other Proceedings for Recovery thereof shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Time at which the Party charged in such Action or Proceeding shall have committed the Offence or been guilty of the Non-compliance in respect of which any such Forfeiture, Penalty, or Sum of Money shall have arisen, or be sought to be recovered.

Application of Penalties.

LXIV. In every Case where a Justice or Justices is or are authorized to hear, adjudge, determine, or dispose of any Matter whatever under this Act, he or they shall award such Costs to either Party as to such Justice or Justices shall seem meet; and all Penalties imposed by this Act or any Act incorporated herewith, unless the Application thereof is otherwise provided for, shall be paid One Half to the Informer, and One Half to the City of Limerick Infirmary.

Nothing to prevent Indictment.

LXV. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Person from being indicted for any indictable Offence made punishable on Summary Conviction by this Act, or to prevent any Person from being liable under any other Act to any other or higher Penalty or Punishment than is provided for such Offence by this Act, so nevertheless that no Person be punishable twice for the same Offence.

LXVI. And

The Limerick Markets Act, 1852.

Saving Rights of Munster Fair Trustees.

LXVI. And whereas a Bill is now pending in Parliament, intituled A Bill for providing a convenient Place or Fair Green, with proper Approaches thereto, for holding Fairs for the Sale of Cattle and other Animals, Wool, and Flax, in the Province of Munster, at or near the City of Limerick, and for regulating such Fair: Be it enacted, That if the said Bill shall pass into a Law, nothing in this Act contained shall alter or diminish any of the Powers of the said Bill, or affect any Provision therein, but all the Clauses and Provisions contained in the said Bill as passed into a Law shall operate and take effect as if this Act had not been passed; and from and after the Day on which the said Fair shall be opened for public Use it shall not be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Limerick to hold any Fair within the City or Borough, or elsewhere, or to demand, receive, or take any Tolls, Dues, or Customs in respect thereof: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall give to the Trustees of the Great Munster Fair any Right, Title, Property, or Interest in or to the Fair Green of Limerick.

Compensation to C. S. Vereker, Borough Weighmaster.

LXVII. And whereas Charles Smyth Vereker Esquire, commonly called the Honourable Charles Smyth Vereker, claims to be a Weighmaster of the Borough of Limerick; Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees, and they are hereby required, upon the Establishment of the legal Right of the said Charles Smyth Vereker to be a Weighmaster of the said Borough, to purchase such Right and to abolish such Office, upon paying adequate Compensation for the same, by a Sum of Money in gross or by way of Annuity, at the Option of and to be assessed by the Trustees, and to be paid out of the Monies by this Act authorized; and if any Dispute shall arise between the Trustees and the said Charles Smyth Vereker as to the Amount of such Sum in gross or of the said Annuity, as the Case may be, the same shall be referred to and finally decided by Arbitration in the Manner provided by the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration.

If any Dispute, the same to be settled by Arbitration.

Chapel of St. John not to be taken without Consent.

LXVIII. It shall not be lawful for the Trustees to enter upon and take, under the Authority of this Act, the Lands and Premises delineated in the said Plan, and mentioned in the Book of Reference as the Roman Catholic Chapel of Saint John, nor the Yards and other Premises belonging or attached thereto, without the Consent in Writing first had and obtained of the Bishop and Parish Priest of the said Chapel of Saint John.

Not to affect the Mayor's Dues.

LXIX. Nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect the Right of the Mayor of the said Borough to demand and receive receive the Tolls and Dues, commonly called the Mayor's Dues, which may now be legally payable to him in respect of Coals and Salt.

Member of Council or Trustee not incapable of acting as Justice.

LXX. No Person shall be incapable of acting as a Justice in any Matter relating to the Execution of this Act by reason of his being a Member of the Council of the said Borough, or a Trustee as aforesaid.

Saving Rights of certain Mortgagees.

LXXI. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice, affect, or diminish the Rights of John Stephens, William Stephens, and Robert Stephens, Esquires, under and by virtue of a certain Deed of Mortgage bearing Date the 26th Day of November, A.D. 1850, it being hereby declared and enacted, that the said clear One Third of the gross Proceeds, to be ascertained as aforesaid, of the Rents and Tolls arising or to arise under the Provisions of this Act, shall be liable and subject to the Payment of the Sum due for Principal Money, or to become due for Interest and Costs, under the said Deed, to the said John Stephens, William Stephens, and Robert Stephens, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of the Survivor, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Tolls, Dues, Customs, Privileges, and Emoluments, and all other Rights and Privileges of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough, in lieu and consideration of which the said clear One Third is hereby substituted and secured to them the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, now are subject and liable to the Payment of the said Principal, Interest, and Costs.

Saving Rights of certain other Creditors.

LXXII. That nothing herein contained shall prejudice, affect, or diminish the Rights of the Creditors of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses named in the Schedule to a certain Deed of Covenant, dated the Sixteenth Day of October, A.D. 1851, it being hereby declared and enacted, that the said clear One Third, to be ascertained as aforesaid, (subject to the Interest as aforesaid, and to the Priority of the said John Stephens, William Stephens, and Robert Stephens,) of the gross Proceeds of the Rents and Tolls arising or to arise under the Provisions of this Act, shall be liable and subject to the Payment of the Sums due for Principal Money, or to become due for Interest and Costs, under the said Deed, as fully to all Intents and Purposes as the Toll Dues, Customs, Privileges, and Emoluments of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough, in lieu and consideration of which the said One Third is hereby substituted and secured to them the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, now are subject and liable to the Payment of the said Principal, Interest, and Costs.
