ANNO QUARTO

GEORGII IV. REGIS.

Cap. vii.

An Act to rectify a Mistake in an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for more effectually improving the Roads leading from the East Side of Lincoln Heath to the City of Peterborough, and several other Roads therein mentioned, in the Counties of Northampton and Lincoln; and for making a new Branch of Road to communicate with the said Roads, from Bourn to Spalding in the said County of Lincoln.

[24th March 1823.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for more effectually improving the Roads leading from the East Side of Lincoln Heath to the City of Peterborough, and several other Roads therein mentioned, in the Counties of Northampton and Lincoln; and for making a new Branch of Road to communicate with the said Roads, from Bourn to Spalding in the said County of Lincoln; whereby it was among other things (by Mistake) enacted, that nothing therein contained should extend or be construed to extend to empower the Trustees acting under or by virtue of the same Act, or any of them, to cause more than One full Toll to be demanded or taken for the Passage of any Horses, Beasts or Carriages, through all the Toll Gates to be continued, erected or provided by virtue of the same Act, in the whole Length of the South-east District Part of the Roads therein particularly named or referred to: 3 G. 4. c. 66.

And whereas it is highly expedient, for the Purposes of the said Act, that such Mistake should be rectified, and that Two full Tolls should be demanded and taken within the said South-east District, as before the passing of the said recited Act, in order to enable the Trustees acting under and by virtue of the said Act the better to discharge a large Arrear of Interest due to sundry Persons who have advanced considerable Sums of Money on the Credit of the Tolls within the same District; but such beneficial Purposes cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Trustees for executing the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, to demand and take, or cause to be demanded and taken, Two full Tolls for the Passage of Horses, Beasts, and all other Cattle, and for Carriages, through the Toll Gates erected or to be erected or provided by virtue of the Laws now in force upon the said South-east District; and which said additional Tolls, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall arise and be produced therefrom, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the said Trustees; and the same and every Part thereof shall be levied, recovered, paid, applied and disposed of, in the same Manner, and with the same Powers and Authorities, and to and for the same Uses, Intents, and Purposes, as in and by the said recited Act of the last Session is directed, with respect to the Tolls thereby granted on the said South-east District.

Power to take Two full Tolls on the South-east District.

For paying the Expences of the Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Charges and Expences of obtaining and passing this Act shall be defrayed out of the Monies raised by virtue of the said recited Act of the last Session, or out of the first Monies to be raised or received by virtue of such former Act and this Act, in preference to all other Payments whatever.

Public Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and others, without being specially pleaded.

Continuance of the Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take place upon the passing thereof; and shall continue and be in force for and during the Remainder of the Term granted by the said recited Act of the last Session.
