ANNO QUINTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Sess. 2.

the Owners and Occupiers of such last-mentioned Lands respectively, although such Maps or Plans and Book or Books of Reference are mentioned or referred to in the said Ninth Section of the said recited Act, as comprising only the first-mentioned Particulars: And whereas in respect of the said Maps or Plans and Book or Books of Reference, and in some other respects, the said recited Act requires to be explained and amended, and some Provisions thereof require to be repealed, but the same cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, and Twelfth Sections of the said recited Act shall have the same Construction and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Maps or Plans and Book or Books of Reference deposited at the respective Offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the said City of Lincoln and the Parts of Kesteven in the said County of Lincoln, as in the Ninth Section of the said recited Act is mentioned, had been mentioned or referred to in the said Ninth Section, as comprising all the Particulars which are actually comprised therein.

Certain Sections of recited Act as to Maps, &c., to have the same Effect as mentioned in the Ninth Section.

Repealing the Clause limiting One Toll to be taken.

II. And whereas by the Twenty-second Section of the said recited Act it was enacted, that no more than One Toll should be taken for passing and repassing once only in the same Day (to be computed from Twelve of the Clock at Night to Twelve of the Clock in the next succeeding Night) with the same Horses, Beasts, Cattle, or other Animal or Thing liable to Toll or Duty, through all the Toll Gates erected or to be erected or continued on the Roads therein mentioned or referred to, and it is expedient that the same should be repealed; be it enacted, That the same shall be and it is hereby repealed.

Authorizing Two Tolls to be taken on the whole Line of Roads.

No Toll to be taken within the Distance of Five Miles.

III. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no more than Two Tolls shall be taken on any of the Roads referred to in the said recited Act for passing and repassing once only in the same Day (to be computed as in the said recited Act is mentioned) with the same Horses, Beasts, Cattle, or other Animals or Things liable to Toll or Duty through all the Toll Gates and Bars erected or to be erected or continued on such Roads; and that no Toll shall be taken on any of the said Roads for passing or repassing once only in the same Day, to be computed as aforesaid, with the same Horses, Beasts, Cattle, or other Animals or Things liable to Toll or Duty, through any Toll Gate or Bar, if a Toll shall have been already taken on the same Day, in respect of the same Horses, Beasts, Cattle, or other Animals or Things at any other Toll Gate or Bar on the same Road within the Distance of Five Miles.

Post Chaises, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the Provisions contained in the said recited Act concerning the Tolls to be paid for Horses or Cattle drawing any Post Chaise or other Carriage travelling for Hire, and for Horses and Cattle drawing any Stage Coach, Waggon, or other Stage Carriage conveying conveying Passengers or Goods for Hire or Reward, and for any Carriage propelled or drawn by Steam, or by any other Power than Animal Power, and for Stage Coaches and other Stage Carriages as aforesaid.

So much of the Twenty-seventh Section as authorizes the Trustees to erect and remove Toll Gates repealed.

V. And whereas by the Twenty-seventh Section of the said recited Act it was enacted (among other Things) that it should be lawful for the Trustees for carrying the said Act into execution to order and cause to be set up in or across the then present Turnpike Roads, and also in or upon any Roads to be made, improved, and repaired by virtue of the said Act, or upon the Sides thereof, any Toll Gate or Bar, and to remove the then present or any future Toll Gate or Bar, as they might think proper; and it is expedient that so much of the said Twenty-seventh Section of the said recited Act as is hereinbefore set forth should be repealed; be it enacted, That so much of the said Twenty-seventh Section of the said recited Act as is hereinbefore set forth shall be and it is hereby repealed.

Authorizing the Trustees to erect Toll Gates.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to order and cause to be set up in or across any of the Roads referred to in the said recited Act, or upon the Sides thereof respectively, any Toll Gate or Bar, and that such Toll Gate or Bar shall for all the Purposes of the said recited Act and of this Act be considered as set up by virtue of the said recited Act, and that it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to remove any present or future Toll Gate or Bar, as they may think proper.

Roads not to be exempt from any general Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to exempt the Roads referred to in the said recited Act from the Provisions of any general Act relating to the Consolidation or other improved Arrangement of Turnpike Roads which may pass during this present or any future Session of Parliament.

Term of Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall commence immediately after the passing thereof, and shall continue in force during the whole Continuance of the said recited Act, or the unrepealed Part or Parts thereof.

Interpretation of Act.

IX. And be it enacted, That in this Act, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction, Words importing the Singular Number shall include the Plural Number, and Words importing the Plural Number shall include the Singular Number.

Public Act.

X. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.
