Cap. ix.

An Act for abolishing the Payment of certain Tolls called Ingates and Outgates, collected at the several Entrances into the Town of Liverpool in the County of Lancaster, and of certain Tolls and Stallage now payable in the Markets and Fairs there, and for granting other Tolls and Stallage in lieu thereof, and for the better Regulation of the said Markets and Fairs. [23d March 1819.]

WHEREAS the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Town of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, are entitled, by Prescription and Usage, to certain Tolls on Articles brought into the said Town for Sale therein, or passing through the same, which said Tolls have been heretofore denominated Ingates and Outgates, and have been collected and paid at the several Entrances into the said Town: And whereas the Number of Persons now residing in the Neighbourhood of the said Town, and by whom the said Tolls have been payable, has greatly increased of late Years, and the Avenues and Entrances leading into the said Town have also greatly increased, and considerable Difficulty has in consequence arisen in the due Collection of the said Tolls, and such Difficulty, and the Expences attendant upon the Collection of the same, is likely to increase: And whereas the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses are also entitled, by Prescription and Usage, and by certain Letters Patent from Her late Majesty Queen Anne, dated the Second Day of June in the Eighth Year of Her said Majesty's Reign, to certain Tolls and Stallage, payable in respect of all Articles exposed for Sale in the Markets and Fairs within the said Town; and from the great Increase in the Inhabitants of the said Town, and of the Articles brought to the said Markets for Sale, and of the Persons resorting thereto, it has become absolutely necessary, for the Convenience of the Public, and to prevent Annoyances and Obstructions in the principal public Streets within the said Town, not only that additional Markets should be established, but that additional Space and Accommodations should be also provided in the present Markets in the said Town: And whereas the present Markets in the said Town consist of the Markets called Derby Square Market, Islington Market, Cleveland Square Market, Scotland Road Market, Pownall Square Market, the Haymarket, and the Market in Chapel Street for the Sale of Cattle, Pigs, and Live Stock; and by an Act made in the Twenty-sixth Year of the 26 G. 3. c. 12. Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for opening, making, widening, and altering certain Streets, Passages, and Places within the Town of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaster; for supplying the said Town with fresh and wholesome Water; for removing and preventing Nuisances and Annoyances therein; for appointing additional Market Places; and for extending so much of the Powers of an Act of the Second Year of His present Majesty as relates to Hackney Coachmen, Chairmen, Carters, and Porters, to a certain Distance beyond the Liberties of the said Town, the Common Council for the Time being of the said Town were authorized and empowered to direct and order such public Squares, or Parts of Streets then in being, or thereafter to be in the said Town, to be used as and for public Market Places, and for such Sorts and Species of Goods and Provisions as such Common Council should think proper, which it was thereby declared and enacted should from thenceforth be accordingly so used, without being deemed a public or private Nuisance; and by another Act made in the Fifty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, 51 G. 3. c. 143. intituled An Act for the Improvement of the Port and Town of Liverpool, and amending the several Acts relating to the Docks, Quays, and other Works belonging to the said Port, it was enacted, that a certain Part of the Site of the Dock called The Old Dock in Liverpool aforesaid, which was authorized by the said Act to be filled up, should be appropriated by the said Common Council for the Purpose of a public Market as therein mentioned: And whereas the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses have been at very considerable Expence, and are about to incur very considerable additional Expences, in providing and establishing such Markets, and in the erecting of Shops, Stalls, and other Accommodations, for Persons resorting thereto with Articles for Sale, and they are extremely desirous to render the Markets within the said Town as commodious and convenient as possible: And whereas it would be beneficial to the Public, although attended with Loss to the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, if the said Tolls denominated Ingates and Outgates were to be abolished; and it would be also beneficial to the Public if certain other Tolls and Stallage were to be made payable in the said Markets and Fairs in lieu of those now payable; and it would be also attended with considerable Advantage to the Persons frequenting the said Markets and Fairs, and be the Means of preventing Disputes, if such Tolls and Stallage were to be paid not as heretofore in respect of the various Articles exposed for Sale, but in respect of the Accommodation provided, and the Space occupied by the same; and the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses have therefore consented to relinquish their Right to the said Tolls denominated Ingates and Outgates, and also to the present Tolls and Stallage now payable in the said Markets and Fairs, and in lieu thereof to accept and take the several Tolls and Stallage specified in the Schedule annexed to this Act; but such Measures cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and nineteen, all Right in the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, to demand or collect the said Tolls denominated Ingates and Outgates, or any of them, or the said Tolls and Stallage now or heretofore paid and payable by Persons resorting to the Markets and Fairs held within the said Town, or any of them, and all Powers and Remedies for the Recovery thereof, shall cease and be for ever abolished, and such Tolls and Stallage respectively shall be no longer paid or payable.
