WHITEWELL WARD

The boundary of Whitewell Ward is a line drawn as follows:—
Commencing on the Newtownabbey Urban District boundary at the intersection of the Belfast County Borough boundary by High Water Mark, thence in a westerly direction along the Newtownabbey Urban District boundary to the centre of Whitewell Road, thence in a north-westerly direction along the centre of Whitewell Road to its junction with Tory Lane, thence in a north-easterly, northerly, easterly, northerly and north-easterly direction along Tory Lane to a point on the centre of Church Road, thence in a south-easterly direction along the centre of Church Road for approximately 1320 yards to a point at the centre of Glas-na-Cradan, thence in an easterly direction along the centre of the said stream to its junction with the Newtownabbey Urban District boundary at High Water Mark, thence in a southerly direction along the said Urban District boundary to the point first mentioned.

NOTE: Where in these descriptions a line is referred to as drawn along the centre of a road, it is intended that the description shall mean a line drawn along the centre of the carriageway.

Qualifications of Engineers and Surveyors

REGULATIONS, DATED 1ST AUGUST, 1957, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNDER SECTION EIGHTEEN OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1934.

1957. No. 154 [NC]

The Ministry of Health and Local Government (hereinafter referred to as "the Ministry"), in exercise of the powers vested in it by Section eighteen of the Local Government Act (Northern Ireland), 1934, and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations, that is to say:—

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Local Authorities (Engineers and Surveyors) Regulations, (Northern Ireland), 1957.

(2) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

"local authority" means the council of a county or other borough, or urban or rural district or any committee of, or joint committee or joint board partly appointed by, such council;

"surveyor" or "engineer" means the officer (by whatever name called) who is responsible to the local authority for the carrying out of its normal surveying or engineering functions, and whose ordinary description is indicated in the Schedule to these Regulations.

2. A person shall not be qualified to be appointed as surveyor or engineer of a local authority unless:

(a) he possesses the qualifications set forth in the Schedule to these Regulations in relation to such office;

(b) he has had adequate and suitable experience and has shown capacity in the practice of his profession as surveyor or engineer;

(c) he produces satisfactory evidence that his health and character are good;

(d) he is a natural born British subject and is the son of a father also a natural born British subject;

(e) he has, during the whole of the period of 5 years ending on the date of his appointment, been resident in the United Kingdom.

3. The Ministry may from time to time assent to any departure from the provisions of these Regulations, if, in its opinion, the adoption of such a course is desirable.

4. The County Borough Councils (Surveyors Qualifications) Order, 1938(a) is hereby revoked.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Health and Local Government this first day of August, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, in the presence of

(L.S.)

J. L. O. Andrews,
Minister of Health and Local Government.
