REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE

AMENDMENT OF ENACTMENTS

1953 No. 773

The Local Fisheries Committees Order, 1953

Made - - - -	2nd May, 1953
Laid before Parliament	5th May, 1953
Coming into Operation	15th May, 1953

In pursuance of the power conferred upon me by subsection (2) of section seventy-four of the Representation of the People Act, 1948(a), I hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) The term of office of members of a local fisheries committee constituted by an Order under section one of the Sea Fisheries Regulation Act, 1888(b), as amended by section fifty-one of the Sea Fish Industry Act, 1938(c), due to expire not later than the first day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, shall be continued till not later than the first day of July, nineteen hundred and fifty-five.

(2) As respects the year nineteen hundred and fifty-five and subsequent years the appointment of such members due to take place before the first day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and every third year thereafter, shall take place before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, and every third year thereafter, and accordingly in subsection (3) of section fifty-one of the Sea Fish Industry Act, 1938, for the words "In this subsection the expression 'triennial period' means the period of three years beginning with the first day of April nineteen hundred and forty and with every third anniversary of that day" there shall be substituted the words "In this subsection the expression 'triennial period' means the period of three years beginning with the first day of July nineteen hundred and fifty-five and with every third anniversary of that day".

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Local Fisheries Committees Order, 1953, and shall come into operation on the fifteenth day of May, 1953.

(2) Section thirty-eight of the Interpretation Act, 1889(d), shall apply as if this Order were an Act of Parliament and as if any enactment amended by this Order were an Act of Parliament repealed by an Act of Parliament.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Local fisheries committees, which are committees or joint committees of county councils and borough councils, are appointed for a term of three years and were last appointed in 1952. This Order alters the date of election from not later than the first day of April to not later than the first day of July. It continues existing members in office till not later than the first day of July, 1955.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1953 No. 1107

The Representation of the People Regulations, 1953

Made - - - -	24th April, 1953
Coming into Operation	30*th July*, 1953

In pursuance of the powers conferred on me by section forty-two and subsection (5) of section one hundred and seventy-one of the Representation of the People Act, 1949(a), I hereby make the following Regulations:—

1.—(1) For paragraph (2) of Regulation 25 of the Representation of the People Regulations 1950(b) (which Regulation relates to applications to be treated as an absent voter), there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(2) An application to be so treated shall be disregarded—

(a) for the purposes of a parliamentary election if it is received by the registration officer after the twelfth day before the day of the poll at that election;

(b) for the purposes of a local government election if it is received by the registration officer after the last day for the delivery of nomination papers at that election:

Provided that an application on the grounds of the applicant's employment on the day of the poll by a returning officer or as a constable may be allowed after the said twelfth or last day as the case may be.".

(2) For paragraph (3) of the said Regulation 25 there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"(3) An application to be no longer so treated may be disregarded—

(a) for the purposes of a parliamentary election if it is received by the registration officer after the twelfth day before the day of the poll at that election;

(b) for the purposes of a local government election if it is received by the registration officer after the last day for the delivery of nomination papers at that election.".
