CHAPTER cxx.

An Act to confirm a Provisional Order made by the Local Government Board for Ireland relating to Coleraine. A.D. 1875.

[19th July 1875.]

WHEREAS the Local Government Board for Ireland, acting under the provisions of "The Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871," as amended by "The Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872," have made, in relation to Coleraine, the Provisional Order set forth in the schedule to this Act annexed:

And whereas a Provisional Order made under the authority of the said Act is not of any validity or force whatever until confirmed by Parliament:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Provisional Order should be confirmed by Parliament:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Provisional Order in schedule confirmed.

1. The said Order set forth in the schedule to this Act annexed shall be and the same is hereby confirmed, and all the provisions of the same shall, from and after the passing of this Act, have full validity and force.

Short title of Act.

2. This Act may be cited as The Local Government Board (Ireland) Provisional Order (Coleraine) Confirmation Act, 1875.

SCHEDULE.

The Local Government Board for Ireland.

COLERAINE BURIAL GROUND.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS "The Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854," has been adopted and is in force in Coleraine:

And whereas the Town Commissioners of Coleraine, being the Burial Board of the borough of Coleraine, acting in execution of "The Burial Grounds (Ireland) Act, 1856," have duly determined that a new burial ground shall be provided for the said borough; and, in order to provide a site for such new burial ground, the said Town Commissioners, herein-after called "the Burial Board," have selected a plot or piece of land containing three acres three roods and three and a half perches, or thereabouts, at "Shell Hill," near the said town of Coleraine, in the townland of Millburn, parish of Coleraine, barony of the north-east liberties of Coleraine, and county of Londonderry, and have deposited a plan of the said ground (herein-after called the deposited plan) in the office of the Local Government Board, Ireland, and also in the Town Hall at Coleraine, and have duly published advertisements and served notices in pursuance of "The Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871," and have presented their petition to the Local Government Board, Ireland, under their seal, praying that the said Burial Board may, with reference to the said plot or piece of ground comprised in the said deposited plan, be allowed to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement:

And whereas an inquiry has been made in the district after due notice, and it appears to the Local Government Board, Ireland, that this Order should be made in respect of the matters aforesaid:

It is ordered as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Order may be referred to for all purposes as "The Coleraine Burial Ground Order, 1875."

Incorporation clause.

2. All provisions, matters, and things contained in "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," as the same is amended by "The Railways Act (Ireland), 1851," "The Railways Act (Ireland), 1860," "The Railways Act (Ireland), 1864," and "The Railways Traverse Act," when the same may respectively be applicable to the objects of this Order, and are not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, shall be incorporated with and apply to this Order, and the objects hereby authorised to be effected and done, as effectually as if the same provisions, matters, and things were repeated in this Order, and respectively ordered hereby in reference to such objects and purposes; and the said Act and this Order shall be read and construed together.

Power conferred on burial board to put in force the provisions of the Lands Clauses Act as to compulsory purchase.

3. From and after the time when this Order shall come into force, it shall be lawful for the Burial Board to put in force the said provisions of "The Lands Clauses Act, 1845," as amended as aforesaid, in relation to the purchase and taking of land otherwise than by agreement in respect to the said land comprised in the said deposited plan, and to use the land so to be acquired for the purpose of providing a new burial ground for the said borough of Coleraine.

Commencement of Order.

4. This Order shall take effect from the time when it shall have been confirmed by Act of Parliament.

Given under our hands and seal of office, this fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

(Signed) A. Power,
Vice-President.
