SLIGO UNION.

CARRIGEENS BURIAL GROUND PROVISIONAL ORDER.

WHEREAS the Guardians of the Poor of the Sligo Union (herein-after called the Burial Board) are the Burial Board of the rural sanitary district consisting of the said Union (except the town of Sligo) and have determined at a special meeting convened in pursuance of the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1878 that an addition should be made to the existing burial ground at Carrigeens in the parish of Drumcliffe in the said rural sanitary district which said burial ground is not attached or contiguous to any church or chapel or place of worship actually used for divine worship and is not situated in any private demesne:

41 & 42 Vict. c. 52.

And whereas the Burial Board have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland (herein-after called the Local Government Board) praying that they may be empowered to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement with reference to the lands and premises required for the purpose aforesaid and which are not nearer than one hundred yards to any dwelling-house:

And whereas the Burial Board have deposited at the office of the Local Government Board in Dublin a plan and book of reference (herein-after called the deposited plan and book of reference) showing the said lands and premises and all notices and advertisements required by the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1878 having been previously served given and published the Local Government Board have caused a local inquiry to be made as to the propriety of assenting to the prayer of the said petition and it appears to be proper to assent thereto:

41 & 42 Vict. c. 52.

It is ordered by the Local Government Board as follows:—

Compulsory powers to take land.

1. From and after the confirmation of this Order by Parliament the Burial Board shall be empowered to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement with reference to that part of the townland of Carrigeens in the parish of Drumcliffe barony of Carbury and county of Sligo containing about one half an acre statute measure adjoining the present burial ground of Carrigeens and shown in the deposited plan and book of reference.

2. No addition to said present burial ground of Carrigeens shall be made within three hundred yards of any house of the annual value of fifty pounds or of any garden or pleasure ground occupied therewith except with the consent of the owner lessee and occupier thereof in writing. Provision as to dwelling houses.

3. The powers of compulsory purchase given by this Order shall not be exercised after the expiration of three years from the confirmation of this Order. Duration of compulsory powers.

4. All costs charges and expenses of and incidental to the application for obtaining and confirming this Order shall be paid by the Burial Board in the manner provided by section 234 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1878. Expenses of Order. 41 & 42 Vict. c. 52.

5. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the Carrigeens Burial Ground Provisional Order 1896. Short title of Order.
