THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND.

TOWN OF CASHEL.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS the town of Cashel, in the county of Tipperary, is comprised within, and forms part of, the rural sanitary district consisting of the Cashel Poor Law Union:

And whereas the Town Commissioners of Cashel, elected and acting in pursuance of the provisions of the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854, have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland, in pursuance of the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, section 7, seeking to have a Provisional Order made by the said Board to separate the said town of Cashel from the said rural sanitary district, and to constitute the said town an urban sanitary district, subject to the provisions of the said Act affecting urban sanitary districts:

41 & 42 Vict. c. 52. s. 7.

And whereas public notice of the purport of the proposed Order has been given by advertisements in two successive weeks in three newspapers circulating in the district to which the said proposed Order relates, and no objection to such proposed Order has been taken by any person whatever:

And whereas the said Board having considered the said petition and inquired into the matters therein alleged, it appears to them that this Order should be made in respect to the matters aforesaid:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board for Ireland as follows:

Constitution of the town of Cashel as a separate urban sanitary district.

1. The said town of Cashel, consisting of the district under the jurisdiction and control of the Town Commissioners of Cashel, is hereby separated from the rural sanitary district consisting of the Cashel Union, and from and after the time when this Order shall take effect the said town of Cashel shall constitute an urban sanitary district subject to all the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, affecting urban sanitary districts:

2. This Order shall take effect when confirmed by Act of Parliament, and not previously: Time of commencement of Order.

3. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the Cashel Sanitary District Provisional Order, 1878. Short title of Order.
