SCHEDULE.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND.

TOWN OF CLONAKILTY.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS there are in the town of Clonakilty, in the west riding of the county of Cork, Town Commissioners elected under the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854:

17 & 18 Vict. c. 103.

And whereas the number of the inhabitants of the said town being less than six thousand, the said Commissioners have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland, in pursuance of the provisions of the 7th section of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, praying for a Provisional Order to separate the said town from the rural sanitary district, consisting of the Clonakilty Poor Law Union, wherein the said town is situate, and to constitute the said town an urban sanitary district:

41 & 42 Vict. c. 52. sec. 7.

And whereas public notice of the purport of the proposed Order having been duly given by advertisement, in the manner provided by the said Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, no objection to the proposed Order has been made, and the Guardians of the Poor of the Clonakilty Union have approved of the said proposed Order:

And whereas the Local Government Board for Ireland have inquired into and considered the matter of the said petition, and it appears to the said Board to be proper to comply with the prayer thereof:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board for Ireland as follows:

1. From and after the time when this Order shall be confirmed by Act of Parliament, the said town of Clonakilty shall be separated from the rural sanitary district, consisting of the Clonakilty Poor Law Union, and thenceforth the said town of Clonakilty shall constitute an urban sanitary district, subject to all the provisions of the Acts constituting the urban sanitary authority of such urban sanitary district, and to all the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and of the Public Health (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1879, affecting urban sanitary districts.

41 & 42 Vict. c. 52. 42 & 43 Vict. c. 57.

2. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the Clonakilty Provisional Order, 1880.

Given under our hands and seal of office, this eighth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

TOWN OF DROMORE.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS there are in the town of Dromore, in the county of Down, Town Commissioners elected under the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854: 17 & 18 Vict. c. 103.

And whereas the number of the inhabitants of the said town being less than six thousand, the said Commissioners have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland, in pursuance of the 7th section of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, praying for a Provisional Order to separate the said town from the rural sanitary district, consisting of the Banbridge Poor Law Union (except the Banbridge Urban Sanitary District), wherein the said town is situate, and to constitute the said town an urban sanitary district: 41 & 42 Vict. c. 52. s. 7.

And whereas the Guardians of the Poor of the Banbridge Union have passed a resolution concurring with the prayer of the said petition:

And whereas public notice of the purport of the proposed Order having been duly given by advertisements in the manner provided by the said Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, the Local Government Board for Ireland have caused a local inquiry to be made into the matter of the said petition in pursuance of the said Act, and it appears to the said Board to be proper to comply with the prayer of the said petition:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board for Ireland as follows:

1. From and after the time when this Order shall be confirmed by Act of Parliament, the said town of Dromore shall be separated from the rural sanitary district, consisting of the Banbridge Poor Law Union (except the Banbridge urban sanitary district), and thenceforth the said town of Dromore shall be constituted an urban sanitary district, subject to all the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and of the Public Health (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1879, affecting urban sanitary districts. Constitutes the town of Dromore an urban sanitary district.

2. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the town of Dromore Provisional Order, 1880. Short title of Order.

Given under our hands and seal of office, this sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

TOWN OF NAVAN.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS there are in the town of Navan, in the county of Meath, Town Commissioners, under the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854:

And whereas the population of the said town, according to the last parliamentary census, is less than six thousand, and the said town is wholly situate within and forms part of the rural sanitary district, consisting of the Navan Poor Law Union:

41 & 42 Vict. c. 52. s. 7.

And whereas the said Town Commissioners have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland, in pursuance of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, section 7, praying that the said town may be separated from the said rural sanitary district, and constituted an urban sanitary district:

And whereas all advertisements and notices required by the said Act relating to such separation have been duly published, given, and served, and no objection thereto has been taken by any person:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board for Ireland as follows:

Constitution of urban sanitary district.

1. From and after the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament, the said town of Navan shall be separated from the rural sanitary district, consisting of the Navan Poor Law Union, and shall constitute an urban sanitary district, subject to all the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and of the Public Health (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1879, affecting urban sanitary districts.

41 & 42 Vict. c. 52. 42 & 43 Vict. c. 57.

Short title of Order.

2. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the Navan Provisional Order, 1880.

Given under our hands and seal of office, this eleventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty.
