CHAPTER xxxii.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders of the Local Government Board for Ireland under the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, relating to the Ballymahon, Carrick-on-Shannon, Enniscorthy, Gorey, Kanturk, Longford, Wexford, and Youghal Unions. [25th June 1885.]

A.D. 1885.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board for Ireland have, as regards the Poor Law Unions above mentioned, made the Provisional Orders set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, under the provisions of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883:

46 & 47 Vict. c. 60.

And whereas it is requisite that the said Orders should be confirmed by Parliament:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

The Provisional Orders in Schedule confirmed.

1. The Orders set out in the Schedule hereunto annexed shall be and the same are hereby confirmed, and all the provisions thereof shall, from and after the passing of this Act, have full validity and force.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Local Government Board (Ireland) Provisional Orders Confirmation (Labourers) (No. 3) Act, 1885.

A.D. 1885.

SCHEDULE.

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND.

Ballymahon.

BALLYMAHON UNION.

Provisional Order in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, authorising the purchase and taking of Land otherwise than by agreement.

WHEREAS representations have been made in pursuance of and in accordance with the provisions of the "Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883," to the guardians of the poor of the Ballymahon Union (herein-after called the sanitary authority) with respect to the existing house accommodation for agricultural labourers and their families in the sections of the sanitary district of the sanitary authority defined in such representations, which representations were accompanied by the certificates of the sanitary officers required by the said Act:

And whereas the sanitary authority have taken the said representations into their consideration at a meeting, of which the public and special notices required by the said Act were duly given and sent, and being satisfied of the truth of the said representations, and of the sufficiency of their resources, have passed a resolution that improvement schemes ought to be made in respect of such sections, and after passing such resolution have forthwith proceeded to make and have made, improvement schemes accordingly:

And whereas each of the said representations was signed, in accordance with the said Act, by not less than twelve persons rated for the relief of the poor within the sanitary district, and resident within the area upon which the costs of the scheme founded upon such representation are by the said scheme proposed to be charged:

And whereas the said improvement schemes were, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, accompanied by maps, particulars, and estimates, which have been deposited in the office of the Local Government Board for Ireland (herein-after called the Local Government Board) in Dublin, and are herein-after called the deposited maps, particulars, and estimates:

And whereas upon the completion of the said schemes the sanitary authority complied with the provisions contained in the seventh section of the said Act with respect to the publication of advertisements and the service of notices, and thereupon presented petitions to the Local Government Board, praying that Orders might be made confirming the said schemes, which said petitions were accompanied by copies of the said schemes, and contained the statements required by the said section, and were supported by such evidence as was required by the Local Government Board:

A.D. 1885.

Ballymahon.

And whereas on consideration of the said petitions and on proof of the publication of the proper advertisements and the service of the proper notices, the Local Government Board thought fit to proceed with the cases, and directed a local inquiry to be held, in pursuance of the said Act, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of the representations made as to the sections, and the deficiency of houses for agricultural labourers, and the sufficiency of the schemes, and any local objections to be made to such schemes, and as to the propriety of confirming such schemes:

And whereas the Local Government Board have received the report made on such inquiry, and the Local Government Board think fit to make this Provisional Order confirming the said schemes, with certain alterations, and the schemes so altered are set out in the schedule hereto:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board as follows:

Provisional confirmation of improvement schemes.

1. This Order shall not be of any validity until and unless it shall be confirmed by Act of Parliament. It is hereby declared that the limits of the sections of the sanitary district to which the improvement schemes set out in the schedule hereunto annexed relate, and within which the sanitary authority are authorised by this Order to carry the said schemes into execution, are those described and set out in the said schemes, and in the deposited maps and particulars. From and after the time of the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament the sanitary authority shall be authorised to carry the said schemes into execution, within the limits aforesaid.

Specification of contributory places.

The areas specified by the said schemes as the areas upon which the costs to be incurred in carrying the schemes into execution shall be charged shall be the contributory places for the purposes of the said Act, upon which the expenses under the said Act, and of obtaining and of executing this Order, shall be charged.

All the costs, charges, and expenses of the sanitary authority, preliminary to and of and incidental to receiving and considering the said representations, and of and incidental to the preparation and making of the said schemes, and of the application for this Order, and obtaining the confirmation of this Order by Parliament, and of executing the said schemes (save so far as the expenses of executing the schemes shall be defrayed by means of rents or other moneys received by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order) shall be special expenses of the sanitary authority within the meaning of Part V. of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and shall, accordingly, be raised and levied by the sanitary authority within and upon the said contributory places in the manner provided by section 233 of the last-mentioned Act, or be paid by the sanitary authority out of moneys borrowed by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order:

Apportionment of expenses.

3. After the said several schemes shall have been executed, or at such other time as the Local Government Board may order, the sanitary authority shall make an award declaring how much of the total amount of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred as aforesaid is chargeable to each of the contributory places specified in the schedule hereto.

A.D. 1885.

Ballymahon.

Ten or more ratepayers, or any number of persons liable to be rated to one fifth of the whole rate of any such contributory place, if aggrieved by any such award, may send or deliver a memorial to the Local Government Board stating their grounds of complaint, and the said Board after due inquiry (either local or otherwise) may make such Order in the matter as to it may seem equitable, and the Order so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties concerned.

Provided that nothing contained in this section of this Order shall affect the liability of the sanitary authority as between itself and any person or body corporate to whom it may become indebted in respect of any debt incurred in respect of or incidental to the said costs, charges, or expenses.

Compulsory powers of taking land, &c.

4. From and after the time of the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament, the sanitary authority shall be empowered to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, with reference to the lands and premises described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and which are included in the lands and premises described in the said schemes, and deposited maps, particulars, and estimates, and are required for the purpose of carrying the said schemes into execution, within the limits defined by this Order.

Interpretation of terms.

5. In this Order the term "The Lands Clauses Acts," means and includes the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as the same is amended by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, the Railways Act (Ireland) 1851, the Railways Act (Ireland), 1864, and the Railways Traverse Act, and the term "land," in the said Acts, shall, for the purposes of this Order, extend to and include lands, easements, lands covered with water, water, water rights, and rights to take and convey water.

Duration of compulsory powers of purchase conferred by this Order.

6. The compulsory powers of purchasing and taking land conferred by this Order shall not be exercised after the expiration of two years from the time of the confirmation of this Order by Parliament.

Short title of Order.

7. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the Ballymahon Union Labourers Order, 1885.

It is ordered by the Local Government Board as follows:—

Provisional confirmation of improvement schemes.

1. This Order shall not be of any validity until and unless it shall be confirmed by Act of Parliament. It is hereby declared that the limits of the sections of the sanitary district to which the improvement schemes set out in the schedule hereunto annexed relate, and within which the sanitary authority are authorised by this Order to carry the said schemes into execution, are those described and set out in the said schemes and in the deposited maps and particulars. From and after the time of the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament the sanitary authority shall be authorised to carry the said schemes into execution within the limits aforesaid.

Specification of contributory places.

2. The areas specified by the said schemes as the areas upon which the costs to be incurred in carrying the schemes into execution shall be charged, shall be the contributory places for the purposes of the said Act, upon which the expenses under the said Act, and of obtaining and of executing this Order, shall be charged.

All the costs, charges, and expenses of the sanitary authority, preliminary to and of and incidental to receiving and considering the said representations, and of and incidental to the preparation and making of the said schemes, and of the application for this Order, and obtaining the confirmation of this Order by Parliament, and of executing the said schemes (save so far as the expenses of executing the schemes shall be defrayed by means of rents or other moneys received by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order) shall be special expenses of the sanitary authority within the meaning of Part V. of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and shall, accordingly, be raised and levied by the sanitary authority within and upon the said contributory places in the manner provided by section 233 of the last-mentioned Act, or be paid by the sanitary authority out of monoys borrowed by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order.

Apportionment of expenses.

3. After the said several schemes shall have been executed, or at such other time as the Local Government Board may order, the sanitary authority shall make an award declaring how much of the total amount of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred as aforesaid is chargeable to each of the contributory places specified in the schedule hereto.

Provisional Order in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, authorising the purchase and taking of Land otherwise than by agreement.

WHEREAS representations have been made in pursuance of and in accordance with the provisions of the "Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883," to the guardians of the poor of the Gorey Union (herein-after called the sanitary authority) with respect to the existing house accommodation for agricultural labourers and their families in the sections of the sanitary district of the sanitary authority defined in such representations, which representations were accompanied by the certificates of the sanitary officers required by the said Act:

And whereas the sanitary authority have taken the said representations into their consideration at a meeting, of which the public and special notices required by the said Act were duly given and sent, and being satisfied of the truth of the said representations and of the sufficiency of their resources, have passed a resolution that improvement schemes ought to be made in respect of such sections, and after passing such resolution have forthwith proceeded to make, and have made, improvement schemes accordingly:

And whereas each of the said representations was signed, in accordance with the said Act, by not less than twelve persons rated for the relief of the poor within the sanitary district, and resident within the area upon which the costs of the scheme founded upon such representation are by the said scheme proposed to be charged:

And whereas the said improvement schemes were, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, accompanied by maps, particulars, and estimates, which have been deposited in the office of the Local Government Board for Ireland (herein-after called the Local Government Board) in Dublin, and are herein-after called the deposited maps, particulars, and estimates:

And whereas upon the completion of the said schemes the sanitary authority complied with the provisions contained in the seventh section of the said Act, with respect to the publication of advertisements and the service of notices, and thereupon presented petitions to the Local Government Board, praying that Orders might be made confirming the said schemes, which said petitions were accompanied by copies of the said schemes, and contained the statements required by the said section, and were supported by such evidence as was required by the Local Government Board:

And whereas on consideration of the said petitions, and on proof of the publication of the proper advertisements and the service of the proper notices, the Local Government Board thought fit to proceed with the cases, and directed a local inquiry to be held, in pursuance of the said Act, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of the representations made as to the sections, and the deficiency of houses for agricultural labourers, and the sufficiency of the schemes, and any local objections to be made to such schemes, and as to the propriety of confirming such schemes:

A.D. 1885.

Gorey.

And whereas the Local Government Board have received the report made on such inquiry, and the Local Government Board think fit to make this Provisional Order confirming certain of the said schemes:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board as follows:—

Provisional confirmation of improvement schemes.

1. This Order shall not be of any validity until and unless it shall be confirmed by Act of Parliament. It is hereby declared that the limits of the sections of the sanitary district to which the improvement schemes set out in the Schedule hereunto annexed relate, and within which the sanitary authority are authorised by this Order to carry the said schemes into execution, are those described and set out in the said schemes and in the deposited maps and particulars. From and after the time of the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament the sanitary authority shall be authorised to carry the said schemes into execution within the limits aforesaid.

Specification of contributory places.

2. The areas specified by the said schemes, as the areas upon which the costs to be incurred in carrying the schemes into execution shall be charged, shall be the contributory places for the purposes of the said Act, upon which the expenses under the said Act, and of obtaining and of executing this Order, shall be charged.

All the costs, charges, and expenses of the sanitary authority preliminary to and of and incidental to receiving and considering the said representations, and of and incidental to the preparation and making of the said schemes, and of the application for this Order, and obtaining the confirmation of this Order by Parliament, and of executing the said schemes (save so far as the expenses of executing the schemes shall be defrayed by means of rents or other moneys received by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order) shall be special expenses of the sanitary authority within the meaning of Part V. of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and shall accordingly be raised and levied by the sanitary authority within and upon the said contributory places in the manner provided by section 233 of the last-mentioned Act, or be paid by the sanitary authority out of moneys borrowed by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order.

Apportionment of expenses.

3. After the said several schemes shall have been executed or at such other time as the Local Government Board may order, the sanitary authority shall make an award declaring how much of the total amount of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred as aforesaid is chargeable to each of the contributory places specified in the schedule hereto.

Ten or more ratepayers, or any number of persons liable to be rated to one fifth of the whole rate of any such contributory place, if aggrieved by any such award, may send or deliver a memorial to the Local Government Board stating their grounds of complaint, and the said Board after due inquiry (either local or otherwise) may make such order in the matter as to it may seem equitable, and the order so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties concerned.

Provided that nothing contained in this section of this Order shall affect the liability of the sanitary authority as between itself and any person or body corporate to whom it may become indebted, in respect of

Youghal.

YOUGHAL UNION.

Provisional Order in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, authorising the purchase and taking of Land otherwise than by agreement.

WHEREAS representations have been made in pursuance of and in accordance with the provisions of the "Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883," to the guardians of the poor of the Youghal Union (herein-after called the sanitary authority) with respect to the existing house accommodation for agricultural labourers and their families in the sections of the sanitary district of the sanitary authority defined in such representations, which representations were accompanied by the certificates of the sanitary officers required by the said Act:

And whereas the sanitary authority have taken the said representations into their consideration at a meeting, of which the public and special notices required by the said Act were duly given and sent, and being satisfied of the truth of the said representations and of the sufficiency of their resources, have passed resolutions that improvement schemes ought to be made in respect of such sections, and after passing such resolutions, have forthwith proceeded to make and have made improvement schemes accordingly:

A.D. 1885.

Youghal.

And whereas each of the said representations was signed, in accordance with the said Act, by not less than twelve persons rated for the relief of the poor within the sanitary district, and resident within the area upon which the costs of the scheme founded upon such representation are by the said scheme proposed to be charged:

And whereas the said improvement schemes were, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, accompanied by maps, particulars, and estimates, which have been deposited in the office of the Local Government Board for Ireland (herein-after called the Local Government Board) in Dublin, and are herein-after called the deposited maps, particulars, and estimates:

And whereas upon the completion of the said schemes the sanitary authority complied with the provisions contained in the seventh section of the said Act, with respect to the publication of advertisements and the service of notices, and thereupon presented petitions to the Local Government Board, praying that Orders might be made confirming the said schemes, which said petitions were accompanied by copies of the said schemes, and contained the statements required by the said section, and were supported by such evidence as was required by the Local Government Board:

And whereas on consideration of the said petitions and on proof of the publication of the proper advertisements and the service of the proper notices, the Local Government Board thought fit to proceed with the cases, and directed a local inquiry to be held, in pursuance of the said Act, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of the representations made as to the sections and the deficiency of houses for agricultural labourers, and the sufficiency of the schemes, and any local objections to be made to such schemes, and as to the propriety of confirming such schemes:

And whereas the Local Government Board have received the report made on such inquiry, and the Local Government Board think fit to make this Provisional Order confirming the said schemes, with certain alterations, and the schemes so altered are set out in the schedule hereto:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board as follows:—

Provisional confirmation of improvement schemes.

1. This Order shall not be of any validity until and unless it shall be confirmed by Act of Parliament. It is hereby declared that the limits of the sections of the sanitary district to which the improvement schemes set out in the schedule hereunto annexed relate, and within which the sanitary authority are authorised by this Order to carry the said schemes into execution, are those described and set out in the said schemes, and in the deposited maps and particulars. From and after the time of the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament the sanitary authority shall be authorised to carry the said schemes into execution, within the limits aforesaid.

Specification of contributory places.

2. The areas specified by the said schemes, as the areas upon which the costs to be incurred in carrying the schemes into execution shall be charged, shall be the contributory places for the purposes of the said Act, upon which the expenses under the said Act, and of obtaining and of executing this Order, shall be charged.

All the costs, charges, and expenses of the sanitary authority preliminary to and of and incidental to receiving and considering the said representations,

A.D. 1885.

Youghal.

and of and incidental to the preparation and making of the said schemes, and of the application for this Order, and obtaining the confirmation of this Order by Parliament, and of executing the said schemes (save so far as the expenses of executing the schemes shall be defrayed by means of rents or other moneys received by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order) shall be special expenses of the sanitary authority within the meaning of Part V. of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and shall, accordingly, be raised and levied by the sanitary authority within and upon the said contributory places in the manner provided by section 233 of the last-mentioned Act, or be paid by the sanitary authority out of moneys borrowed by the sanitary authority in pursuance of the Labourers (Ireland) Act, 1883, and of this Order.

Apportionment of expenses.

3. After the said several schemes shall have been executed, or at such other time as the Local Government Board may order, the sanitary authority shall make an award declaring how much of the total amount of the costs, charges, and expenses incurred as aforesaid is chargeable to each of the contributory places specified in the schedule hereto.

Ten or more ratepayers, or any number of persons liable to be rated to one fifth of the whole rate of any such contributory place, if aggrieved by any such award, may send or deliver a memorial to the Local Government Board stating their grounds of complaint, and the said Board after due inquiry (either local or otherwise) may make such order in the matter as to it may seem equitable, and the order so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties concerned.

Provided that nothing contained in this section of this Order shall affect the liability of the sanitary authority as between itself and any person or body corporate to whom it may become indebted, in respect of any debt incurred in respect of or incidental to the said costs, charges, or expenses.

Compulsory powers of taking land, &c.

4. From and after the time of the confirmation of this Order by Act of Parliament, the sanitary authority shall be empowered to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, with reference to the lands and premises described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and which are included in the lands and premises described in the said schemes and deposited maps, particulars, and estimates, and are required for the purpose of carrying the said schemes into execution, within the limits defined by this Order.

Interpretation of terms.

5. In this Order the term "The Lands Clauses Acts," means and includes the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as the same is amended by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, the Railways Act (Ireland), 1851, the Railways Act (Ireland), 1864, and the Railways Traverse Act; and the term "land," in the said Acts shall, for the purposes of this Order, extend to and include lands, easements, lands covered with water, water, water rights, and rights to take and convey water.

Youghal.

6. The compulsory powers of purchasing and taking land conferred by this Order shall not be exercised after the expiration of two years from the time of the confirmation of this Order by Parliament. Duration of compulsory powers of purchase conferred by this Order.

7. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the Youghal Union Labourers Order, 1885. Short title of Order.
