SCHEDULE D.

NEWRY PORT SANITARY AUTHORITY.

Newry Port.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS the Port of Newry is a port established for the purposes of the laws relating to the Customs of the United Kingdom:

And whereas each of the county districts named in the first column of the schedule hereto is a sanitary district and the council of each of the said districts is a sanitary authority having jurisdiction within the part of the said port herein-after described:

And whereas after inquiry it appears proper to Us the Local Government Board for Ireland (in this Order referred to as "the Local Government Board") that a port sanitary authority of the part of the said port herein-after described should be constituted by the formation of a joint board consisting of representative members of all of the said sanitary authorities (in this Order referred to as "component authorities"):

Now therefore We the Local Government Board in pursuance of the powers given to Us by section 9 of the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1896 and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf do hereby order that from and after the date of the Act confirming this Order the following provisions shall have effect that is to say:—

59 & 60 Vict. c. 54.

Constitution of port sanitary authority.

1. A joint board shall be formed as herein-after mentioned and shall be permanently constituted the port sanitary authority for the part of the said port of Newry herein-after described.

Constitution of joint board.

2. The joint board shall be a body corporate by the name of "The Newry Port Sanitary Authority" and shall have a perpetual succession and a common seal and shall consist of twenty members to be elected by the respective component authorities from among the persons who at the time of such election are members of their bodies and the said authorities shall elect respectively the number of members specified in the second column of the schedule hereto.

First election of members of joint board.

3. The first election of members of the joint board shall in the case of each component authority take place at a duly convened meeting of the authority held within three months after the date of the Act confirming this Order or within such further time as the Local Government Board may allow.

Notification of members elected.

4. The clerk to each of the component authorities shall notify in writing to the Local Government Board within seven days after such first election has taken place the name address and occupation of each person elected by such authority as a member of the joint board.

Date of commencement of office.

5. The several members of the joint board shall go out of office and their successors shall come into office on the first day of April in each year Provided that the members of the joint board elected at the first election shall subject to the provisions of this Order continue in office until the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and fourteen The election in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen and in each succeeding year of members for the ensuing period of office by any component authority shall take place at a meeting of such authority held within the month next preceding the first day of April or at such meeting as the Local Government Board may appoint.

Duration of office.

6. Every member of the joint board shall unless he previously dies or resigns or becomes disqualified or vacates his seat for absence continue in office until the day on which the several members of the joint board go out of office as provided by Article 5 of this Order.

Casual vacancies.

7. On a casual vacancy occurring on the joint board by reason of the death resignation disqualification or absence of a member the vacancy shall be filled by the component authority by whom the vacating member was elected electing a new member in his place at a meeting of the authority to be held within one month after the vacancy has occurred or within such further time as the Local Government Board may allow and the member so elected shall hold office until the time when the member in whose place he was elected would have regularly gone out of office and shall then retire The clerk of the component authority shall give seven days' notice in writing of any such meeting to each member of the component authority and after the election shall forthwith notify in writing to the clerk of the joint board the name address and occupation of the person elected.

Disqualifications.

8. Such of the provisions of Article 12 of the schedule to the Local Government (Application of Enactments) Order 1898 as relate to members of district councils shall with the necessary modifications apply to members of the joint board.

Meeting of joint board.

9.—(1) The time and place of holding the first meeting of the joint board shall be fixed by the Local Government Board.

(2) An annual meeting of the joint board shall be held in every year except the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve on the first Saturday following the first day of April or if that day be Saturday then on that day at such place as the joint board may appoint.

A.D. 1912.

Newry Port.

(3) Ordinary meetings of the joint board that is to say meetings other than the said first meeting and the annual meeting shall be held at such times and places as the joint board may appoint:

Provided that an extraordinary meeting shall be summoned by the clerk to the joint board when a requisition for that purpose is addressed to him by the chairman or any three members of the joint board Such requisition shall be in writing and no business other than that specified in the requisition shall be transacted at such extraordinary meeting.

(4) Notices of all meetings of the joint board shall be delivered or sent by post so as to reach the last known place of abode or business of each member of the joint board in the case of an ordinary meeting two clear days before the day of such meeting and in the case of an extraordinary meeting one clear day before the day of such meeting or in either case at such earlier time as the joint board may direct.

Chairman and vice-chairman.

10. At the said first meeting and subsequently at every annual meeting the members of the joint board shall appoint one of their members chairman and another member vice-chairman of the joint board Such chairman and vice-chairman shall hold office until the next annual appointment of chairman and vice-chairman Provided that in the event of the death or resignation of such chairman or vice-chairman or of his otherwise ceasing to be a member of the joint board the joint board at the next meeting after such vacancy has taken place shall appoint another member of the joint board to fill the vacancy.

Conduct of business at meetings.

11. At all meetings of the joint board the chairman or in his absence the vice-chairman shall preside and if at the commencement of the meeting the chairman and vice-chairman are both absent the members of the board who are present shall elect one of their number to preside at such meeting until the chairman or vice-chairman takes the chair.

Decision of questions at meetings.

12. Every question at any meeting of the joint board shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and in any case in which there is an equality of votes on any question that question shall be deemed to be lost Provided that where there is an equality of votes at the election of chairman or vice-chairman or the chairman of a meeting it shall be determined by lot which of the persons receiving an equal number of votes shall be chairman or vice-chairman of the meeting as the case may be.

Vote of chairman.

13. The chairman presiding at any meeting of the joint board shall be entitled to give one vote on each question submitted to the joint board but he shall not under any circumstances be entitled to an additional or casting vote.

Quorum.

14. At all meetings of the joint board five members shall constitute a quorum.

Sanitary officers.

15. The joint board shall appoint a medical officer of health and such other sanitary officers (if any) as the Local Government Board may direct with such salary in each case as the joint board with the approval of the Local Government Board may determine and the Local Government Board shall assign to the medical officer of health and to the other sanitary officers (if any) their respective duties and functions The Local Government Board shall have the same powers with regard to the qualifications appointment duties regulation of salary and tenure of office of every sanitary officer as they have in the case of the medical officer of a dispensary district.

Offices clerk &c.

16. The joint board may provide and maintain such offices as may be necessary for transacting their business or may pay such sums as they may think proper for the use of offices for such purpose They may also in addition to the officers mentioned in the last preceding article appoint and employ a person to be clerk of the joint board and such officers and servants as may be necessary and proper for the efficient transaction of their business and may pay such clerk officers and servants such reasonable remuneration salaries and wages as they may think proper and every clerk officer or servant appointed or employed in pursuance of this Article shall be removable by the joint board at their pleasure.

Limits of jurisdiction.

17. The jurisdiction of the joint board shall extend to all that part of the said port of Newry which lies on the landward side of a straight line drawn from Cranfield Point in the rural district of Kilkeel to Cooley Point in the rural district of Dundalk together with the waters of the said port within those limits and all docks basins harbours creeks rivers channels bays and streams within those limits and the places for the time being appointed as the customs boarding station or stations for that part of the said port and the places for the time being appointed for the mooring or anchoring of ships for that part of the said port under any regulations for the prevention of the spread of disease issued under the authority of the statutes in that behalf.
