BOROUGH OF ROTHERHAM.

Rotherham Order.

Provisional Order for altering the Rotherham Gaslight Act 1855 the Rotherham and Kimberworth Local Board of Health Act 1870 and the Rotherham Corporation Act 1904.

To the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Rotherham;—

To the County Council of the County of the West Riding of Yorkshire;—

To the Rural District Council of Rotherham;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Borough of Rotherham (herein-after referred to as "the Borough") is an Urban Sanitary District of which the Mayor

Aldermen and Burgesses acting by the Council (herein-after referred to as "the Corporation") are the Urban Sanitary Authority and the unrepealed provisions of the Rotherham Gaslight Act 1855 as altered by the Rotherham and Kimberworth Local Board of Health Act 1870 and the Rotherham Corporation Act 1904 (all which Acts are herein-after together referred to as "the Local Acts" and each of which Acts is herein-after referred to as the Act of the year in which it was passed) are in force in the Borough;

18 Vict. c. xxxii.
33 & 34 Vict. c. cxxxiv.
4 Edw. 7. c. ccxxxii.

And whereas the limits of the Corporation for the supply of gas (herein-after referred to as "the gas limits") are defined by Section 29 of the Act of 1855 Section 31 of the Act of 1870 and Sections 13 and 14 of the Act of 1904 and it is expedient that the gas limits should be extended so as to include the Township of Thrybergh which is a contributory place in the Rural District of Rotherham and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Rural District Council of Rotherham (herein-after referred to as "the Rural Council");

And whereas the Corporation have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue of a Provisional Order to alter or amend the Local Acts in the manner herein-after set forth:

Now therefore We the Local Government Board in pursuance of the powers given to Us by Section 303 of the Public Health Act 1875 and by any other Statutes in that behalf do hereby order that from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the Local Acts shall be altered so that the following provisions shall have effect that is to say:—

38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

Extension of gas limits.

Art. I. The gas limits shall be extended so as to include the Township of Thrybergh and such of the provisions of the Local Acts with respect to the supply of gas and otherwise with respect to gas purposes as now apply and have effect within the gas limits shall with the necessary modifications apply and have effect within the gas limits as so extended.

Protection for County Council and Rural District Council.

Art. II.—(1) Subsection 12 of Section 11 of the Local Government Act 1888 (which relates to main roads) shall apply and have effect as if with the necessary modifications the subsection were herein re-enacted and in terms made applicable to every county bridge (including every road repairable with a county bridge) which is situate within the Township of Thrybergh and in relation to which anything is authorised or required to be done or is done in pursuance of this Order or of any enactment applied by or incorporated with the Local Acts.

(2) Section 8 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847 as applied by or incorporated with the Local Acts shall in relation to any main road county bridge or road repairable with a county bridge in the said

A.D. 1910.

Rotherham Order.

Township and in relation to any road in the said Township under the control or management of the Rural Council have effect as if the word "seven" were substituted for the word "three" in that Section.

(3) Whenever the Corporation in pursuance of this Order or of any enactment applied by or incorporated with the Local Acts shall have opened or broken up any main road in the said Township or any road in the said Township under the control and management of the Rural Council Section 12 of the Gasworks Clauses Act 1847 shall have effect as if the reinstatement and making good of the road required by that Section included the application of a sufficient layer of surface metalling of the same specification as that employed by the County Council of the West Riding of Yorkshire (herein-after referred to as "the County Council") or the Rural Council as the case may be for the particular road and also included the use of a steam roller on the places where the road has been opened and broken up until the surface thereof has been made uniform with the unbroken surface adjoining the same to the reasonable satisfaction of the Surveyor of the County Council or of the Rural Council as the case may be.

(4) If the County Council or the Rural Council at any time deem it necessary to raise sink or otherwise alter the situation of any gas pipe gas main or gasworks laid or placed by the Corporation in the said Township in pursuance of this Order or of any enactment applied by this Order in under or upon a main road or a county bridge or a road repairable with a county bridge or any road under the control and management of the Rural Council the County Council or the Rural Council as the case may be may by notice in writing require the Corporation to raise sink or otherwise alter the situation of the said pipe main or works in such manner and within such reasonable time as is specified in the notice and if the notice is not complied with the County Council or the Rural Council as the case may be may themselves make the alteration required and the reasonable expenses of or connected with any such alteration shall whenever there is sufficient ground for requiring the alteration be paid by the Corporation:

Provided that except in a case of necessity no such alteration shall be required or made as will permanently injure any such pipe main or works or prevent the gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as usual.

(5) All mains or pipes other than service pipes to be laid by the Corporation in the Township of Thrybergh in or along any road shall be so laid that the upper surface of the main or pipe shall be at a depth of not less than two feet from the surface of the road and in such position as the County Council or the Rural Council as the case may be shall by writing under the hand of their surveyor direct.

(6) If any difference arises at any time between the County Council or Rural Council as the case may be and the Corporation with respect to any matter to which this Article relates the difference shall if either Authority so require be determined by an arbitrator appointed by the Local Government Board.

Art. III. This Order may be cited as the Rotherham Order 1910. Short title.
