CHAPTER lxx.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders of the Local Government Board relating to the Urban Sanitary Districts of Brighton, Cheltenham, Linthwaite, Southport, and Waltham-Holy-Cross. [3rd July 1891.]

A.D. 1891.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board have made the Provisional Orders set forth in the schedule hereto, under the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1875: 38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

And whereas it is requisite that the said Orders should be confirmed by Parliament, and that the provisions herein contained should be enacted with reference to certain of those orders:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Orders in schedule confirmed.

1. The Orders as altered and set out in the schedule hereto shall be and the same are hereby confirmed, and all the provisions thereof shall have full validity and force.

Restriction of power to take houses of labouring class in Cheltenham and Southport.

2. The sanitary authorities mentioned in the Orders relating to the urban sanitary districts of Cheltenham and Southport hereby confirmed shall not, without the consent of the Local Government Board, purchase or acquire, either compulsorily or by agreement, in any city, borough, or other urban sanitary district, or in any parish or part of a parish not being within an urban sanitary district, ten or more houses included in the schedules to those Orders, which after the passing of this Act have been, or on the fifteenth day of December last were, occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring class as tenants or lodgers.

Special provision as to houses of

3. The following provisions shall apply to the sanitary authority for each of the urban sanitary districts of Linthwaite and Waltham-Holy-Cross, viz.:—

labouring class in Linthwaite and Waltham-Holy-Cross.

(1.) The sanitary authority shall not purchase or acquire, either compulsorily or by agreement, in the district ten or more houses included in the schedule to the Order relating to the district hereby confirmed, which after the passing of this Act have been, or on the fifteenth day of December last were, occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring class as tenants or lodgers, unless and until—

(a.) They shall have obtained the approval of the Local Government Board to a scheme for providing new dwellings for such number of persons as were residing in such houses on the fifteenth day of December last, or for such number of persons as the Local Government Board shall, after inquiry, deem necessary, having regard to the number of persons on or after that date residing in such houses and working within one mile therefrom, and to the amount of vacant suitable accommodation in the immediate neighbourhood of such houses, or to the place of employment of such persons, and to all the circumstances of the case; and

(b.) They shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Local Government Board for the carrying out of the scheme.

(2.) The approval of the Local Government Board to any scheme under this section may be given either absolutely or conditionally, and after the Local Government Board have approved of any such scheme they may from time to time approve either absolutely or conditionally of any modifications in the scheme.

(3.) Every scheme under this section shall contain provisions prescribing the time within which it shall be carried out, and shall require the new dwellings proposed to be provided under the scheme to be completed fit for occupation before the persons residing in the houses in respect of which the scheme is made are displaced:

Provided that the Local Government Board may dispense with the last-mentioned requirement, subject to such conditions, if any, as they may see fit.

(4.) Any provisions of any scheme under this section or any conditions subject to which the Local Government Board may have approved of any scheme, or of any modifications of any scheme under this section, or subject to which they may have dispensed with the above-mentioned requirement, shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the High Court.

(5.) If the sanitary authority acquire or appropriate any house or houses for the purposes of this Act, or of the Order hereby confirmed, in contravention of the foregoing provisions, or displace or cause to be displaced the persons residing in any house or houses in contravention of the requirements of the scheme, they shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred pounds in respect of every such house, which penalty shall be recoverable by the Local Government Board by action in the High Court, and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom:

Provided that the Court may, if it think fit, reduce such penalty.

(6.) Subject to the provisions of this section, the sanitary authority and the Local Government Board and their inspectors shall have and may exercise for any purpose in connexion with any scheme under this section all or any of the powers vested in them under the Public Health Act, 1875, in the same manner in every respect as if the preparation and carrying into effect of such scheme were one of the general purposes of that Act:

Provided that all lands on which any buildings have been erected or provided by the sanitary authority in pursuance of any scheme under this section shall, for a period of twenty-five years from the passing of this Act, be appropriated for the purpose of dwellings, and every conveyance, demise, or lease of such lands and buildings shall be endorsed with notice of this enactment:

Provided also that the Local Government Board may at any time dispense with all or any of the requirements of this sub-section, subject to such conditions, if any, as they may see fit.

(7.) The sanitary authority shall pay to the Local Government Board a sum to be fixed by that Board in respect of the preparation and issue of any Provisional Order in pursuance of this section, and any expenses incurred by that Board in relation to any inquiries under this section, including the expenses of any witnesses summoned by the inspector holding the inquiry, and a sum to be fixed by that Board, not exceeding three guineas a day, for the services of such inspector.

Definition of labouring class.

4. For the purposes of sections two and three of this Act the expression "labouring class" includes mechanics, artizans, labourers, and others working for wages, hawkers, costermongers, persons not working for wages, but working at some trade or handicraft without employing others except members of their own family, and persons other than domestic servants, whose income does not exceed an average of thirty shillings a week, and the families of any of such persons who may be residing with them.

Short title.

5. This Act may be cited as the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 8) Act, 1891.

SCHEDULE.

A.D. 1891.

Brighton Order.

BOROUGH OF BRIGHTON.

Provisional Order for partially repealing and altering certain Local Acts.

To the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Brighton, being the Urban Sanitary Authority for that Borough; —

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Borough of Brighton (herein-after referred to as "the Borough") is an Urban Sanitary District, of which the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, acting by the Council (herein-after referred to as "the Corporation"), are the Urban Sanitary Authority;

And whereas under a Local Act passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to enable the "Commissioners acting under an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign "of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for better regulating, paving, "improving, and managing the Town of Brighthelmston, in the County of "Sussex, and the Poor thereof, to purchase, improve, and manage the Royal "Pavilion at Brighton, and the grounds thereof, and to enlarge, extend, and "apply the powers and provisions of the same Act with reference thereto" (herein-after referred to as "the Act of 1850"), the Brighton Town Commissioners, acting under the Brighton Town Act (herein-after referred to as "the Commissioners") purchased the Royal Pavilion at Brighton, with the land and grounds, and the appurtenances thereto; 13 Vict. c. v. 6 Geo. IV. c. clxxix.

And whereas by Section 10 of the Act of 1850 the Commissioners were authorised, for the purposes of that Act, to make one or more equal rate or rates, assessment or assessments, upon the tenants or occupiers of all hereditaments within the Parish of Brighton (save as therein mentioned), so as such rate or rates, assessment or assessments, did not exceed in the whole in any one year, to be computed from the First day of January, the sum of fourpence in the pound on the scale or rate for the time being on which rates were raised to and for the relief of the poor of the Parish;

And whereas by Sections 22 to 25 (both inclusive) of the Act of 1850 provision was made with respect to the audit of the accounts of moneys received and expended under and by virtue of that Act;

And whereas by Sections 1 and 2 of the Brighton Commissioners Transfer Act, 1855 (herein-after referred to as "the Act of 1855"), it was enacted that the Commissioners should cease to exist and that the Corporation should be the Commissioners for carrying the Brighton Town Act and the Act of 1850 into execution, and that the property, powers, privileges, and liabilities of the Commissioners under those Acts, including the Royal Pavilion and the land and 18 Vict. c. vi.

grounds and appurtenances thereto, should be transferred to and vested in the Corporation for the intents and purposes, and subject to the provisions upon, for, and subject to which the same were vested in, given to, conferred on, imposed on, or enjoyed by the Commissioners;

30 Vict. c. xxii.

And whereas by Section 3 of the Brighton Pavilion Act, 1867 (herein-after referred to as "the Act of 1867"), it was enacted that the expression the "Pavilion Estates" meant the pavilion and the grounds thereof, and appurtenances belonging thereto, and all lands and hereditaments purchased and from time to time held by the Corporation under and by virtue of the Act of 1850;

And whereas by Section 4 of the Act of 1867 the Corporation were empowered from time to time to borrow, at interest, such sums of money as they might think requisite so that there should not be owing under the powers of that Act at any one time more than the sum of fifteen thousand pounds, and in the event of any part of such money being repaid to re-borrow the same from time to time, and so toties quoties;

And whereas by virtue of Section 21 of the Brighton Borough Extension Act, 1873, the rates or assessments authorised by Section 10 of the Act of 1850 are now made upon the tenants or occupiers of hereditaments within the Borough;

39 Vict. c. xxxiv.

And whereas by Section 7 of the Brighton Pavilion Acts Amendment Act, 1876 (herein-after referred to as "the Act of 1876"), the establishment and maintenance of a free library, museum, and picture gallery are declared to have been and to be purposes of the Act of 1850 within the meaning of Sections 10 to 14 (both inclusive) of that Act, and of Section 10 of the Act of 1867;

And whereas by Section 4 of the Act of 1876 the consent of the owners and ratepayers of the Borough is required to the letting, demise, or lease of any rooms forming part of the Pavilion Estates for the term or period therein mentioned;

And whereas by Section 9 of the Act of 1876 it was enacted that when by the Act of 1850, the Act of 1855, and the Act of 1867, or by any other Act or Acts relating to the Royal Pavilion, or to the Pavilion Estates, or to the Corporation, the consent of the inhabitants of the Parish of Brighton, in vestry assembled, was for any purpose made necessary, the consent of the owners and ratepayers of the Borough, to be testified by a resolution passed in manner provided by Schedule III. to the Public Health Act, 1875, should, after the passing of the Act of 1876, be necessary in place of the consent of the inhabitants as aforesaid;

38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

And whereas the Act of 1850, the Act of 1867, and the Act of 1876 are herein-after collectively referred to as "the Pavilion Acts";

And whereas under and by virtue of the will of Edward Thomas Booth, late of Bleak House, Dyke Road, Brighton, deceased, the Corporation are the owners of a freehold messuage or tenement situate in the grounds of the said Bleak House, and used as a museum of stuffed or preserved birds, together with all the birds and cases, and the furniture and certain other effects, articles, and things in or about or belonging to the said messuage and tenement, all of which are herein-after referred to as "the Booth Museum":

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by Section 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, or by any other

38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

Statutes in that behalf, do hereby order that, from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order (herein-after referred to as "the commencement of this Order"), the following provisions shall take effect; viz.,—

Art. I. The following provisions of the Pavilion Acts shall be repealed, except so far as the same may have been acted upon; viz.,—

Of the Act of 1850,—

So much of Section 8 as makes the provisions of the Brighton Town Act, as to byelaws and fines for non-observance thereof, applicable to byelaws made thereunder; and — 6 Geo. IV. c. clxxix.

Sections 11, 12, and 22 to 25 (both inclusive), and the Schedule to that Act.

Of the Act of 1867,—

Sections 2 and 4.

Of the Act of 1876,—

Section 8.

Provided that, notwithstanding such repeal, any proceedings begun before the commencement of this Order under Sections 24 and 25 of the Act of 1850 may be continued as if this Order had not been made:

Provided also, that the repeal of Section 4 of the Act of 1867 shall not prejudice any mortgage or other security which may have been given in respect of moneys borrowed under that section, or affect the rights and powers of any person entitled under any such mortgage or other security to enforce the same, as if this Order had not been made.

Art. II. Sections 4 and 9 of the Act of 1876 shall be altered so as to provide that the consent of the Local Government Board shall be substituted for the consent of the owners and ratepayers of the Borough in any case where such consent is made necessary by any Act relating to the Royal Pavilion or the Pavilion Estates:

Provided that the Local Government Board, before giving such consent, may, if they deem it necessary or expedient, cause a local inquiry to be made, and for the purposes of any such inquiry Section 296 of the Public Health Act, 1875, shall apply, with the necessary modifications.

Art. III. Section 7 of the Act of 1876 shall be altered so that the words "public library, museum, and art gallery" shall be deemed, from the passing of that Act, to have been substituted for the words "free library, museum, and picture gallery"; and the words "purposes of the Act of 1850 and of the Act of 1867" shall be deemed from that date to have been substituted for the words "purposes of the Act of 1850, within the meaning of Sections 10 to 14 (both numbers included) of that Act, and of Section 10 of the Act of 1867."

Art. IV. The Pavilion Acts shall be further altered so as to provide as follows:—

(1.) In addition to the sums authorised to be borrowed by the Pavilion Acts, the Corporation may, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, and subject to the provisions of this Order, borrow for all or any of the purposes of the Pavilion Acts, as hereby altered, to which capital is properly applicable, and on the security of the rates and assessments authorised by

A.D. 1891.

Brighton Order.

Section 10 of the Act of 1850, and of the district fund and general district rate of the Borough, or upon any of such securities, either together or separately, such sums as they may from time to time think requisite, not exceeding the sum of forty thousand pounds.

38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

(2.) Sections 236 to 239, both inclusive, of the Public Health Act, 1875, shall apply to all money raised and borrowed under this Order, other than money borrowed under the provisions of the Brighton Corporation Loans Act, 1886.

49 & 50 Vict. c. lxiv.

(3.) The moneys borrowed under this Order shall be repaid within such periods, not exceeding thirty years from the date of borrowing, as the Corporation, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, shall determine, and the periods so determined and sanctioned are herein-after referred to as "the prescribed periods."

(4.) The Corporation shall repay the moneys borrowed under this Order, other than money borrowed under the provisions of the Brighton Corporation Loans Act, 1886, either by equal annual instalments of principal, or of principal and interest, or by setting apart in every year as a sinking fund such a sum or sums as will, according to a reasonable calculation for the time being, with accumulations in the way of compound interest, be sufficient, after payment of all expenses, to pay off the moneys so borrowed within the prescribed periods.

(5.) The Corporation shall invest any sinking fund so set apart, and the interest on and the sums paid into the fund, in the purchase of Exchequer bills or other Government securities, or in securities in which trustees are by law for the time being authorised to invest, or in mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities issued by any Local Authority, as defined by Section 34 of the Local Loans Act, 1875, other than the Corporation, the Corporation being at liberty from time to time to vary and transpose such investments.

(6.) The Corporation may at any time apply the whole or any part of any such sinking fund in or towards the discharge of the money for the repayment of which the fund is established: Provided that the Corporation pay into such fund each year, and accumulate until the whole of the money borrowed is discharged, a sum equivalent to the interest which would have been produced by such sinking fund or the part of such sinking fund so applied at the rate per cent. on which the annual payments to the sinking fund are based.

(7.) The Corporation may re-borrow for the purpose of paying off moneys borrowed under the Pavilion Acts or this Order, and not paid off by means of any sinking fund set apart for their repayment, or by instalments, or out of the proceeds of the sale or disposition of land, or out of other moneys received on capital account (not being borrowed moneys): Provided that all moneys so re-borrowed shall be repaid, in the case of moneys borrowed for the purpose of paying off moneys borrowed under the Act of 1850 and the Act of 1867, within thirty years from the borrowing of the money to be paid off, and in the case of moneys borrowed for the purpose of paying off moneys borrowed under this Order within the prescribed periods; and any moneys from time to time re-borrowed shall be deemed to form the same loan as the money in lieu of which such re-borrowing has been made, and the obligations of the Corporation with respect to the repayment of such moneys shall not be in any way affected by such re-borrowing.

(8.) The town clerk shall, within forty-two days after the Thirty-first day of March in each year in which any sum is required to be paid as an instalment or to be set apart for a sinking fund in pursuance of the provisions of the Pavilion Acts or this Order, transmit to the Local Government Board a return, in such form as may be prescribed by that Board, and verified by statutory declaration, if so required by them, showing, for the year next preceding the making of such return, the amounts which have been paid as instalments, and the amounts which have been invested or applied for the purpose of such sinking fund, and the description of the securities upon which any investment has been made, and the purposes to which any portion of the sinking fund or investment or of the sums accumulated by way of interest has been applied during the same period, and the total amount (if any) remaining invested at the end of the year; and, in the event of any wilful default in making such return, such town clerk shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, which shall be paid to the Local Government Board, and shall be recoverable by that Board in the same manner as penalties recoverable under the Public Health Act, 1875, in a summary manner may be recovered by parties aggrieved within the meaning of that Act.

(9.) If it appear to the Local Government Board by that return, or otherwise, that the Corporation have failed to pay any instalment required to be paid, or to set apart any sum required for any sinking fund, or have applied any portion of the moneys set apart for any sinking fund, or of the sums accumulated by way of interest, to any purpose other than those authorised, the Local Government Board may, by Order, direct that the sum in such Order mentioned, not exceeding double the amount in respect of which default has been made, shall be paid by way of instalment or be set apart and invested or applied as part of the sinking fund, and any such Order shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the High Court.

Art. V. The Pavilion Acts shall be further altered so as to provide as follows:—

(1.) The Corporation may, without obtaining the consent required by Section 9 of the Act of 1876 as hereby altered, purchase, for a sum not exceeding seven thousand pounds, the interest of the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish of Brighton in the part of the Pavilion Estates now occupied by the said Guardians, and the Corporation shall hold the same as part of the Pavilion Estates, and subject to the like conditions and restrictions.

(2.) Subject to the provisions of Section 2 of the Act of 1855, the Corporation may enlarge the public library, museum, and art gallery, and for that purpose and for any of the other purposes of the Pavilion Acts may alter or adapt existing buildings, or erect new buildings on the Pavilion Estates.

Brighton Order.

(3.) The Booth Museum shall be deemed to be part of the museum referred to in Section 7 of the Act of 1876 as hereby altered, and all the provisions of the Pavilion Acts as hereby altered, as to the maintenance, management, and control of the last-mentioned museum, shall apply to the Booth Museum.

(4.) Before making a rate or assessment under Section 10 of the Act of 1850, the Corporation shall cause an estimate to be prepared of the money required—

(a.) for the purpose of the public library, museum, and art gallery (including the sums from time to time required for the payment of interest upon and for the repayment of any portion of the pavilion debt incurred either before or after the commencement of this Order for the purposes of the public library, museum, and art gallery); and

and of the rate in the pound required for such purpose and for such other purposes; and the demand note for such rate or assessment shall show the respective rates in the pound at which the rate or assessment is made for such purpose and for such other purposes; and in the demand note so much of such rate as is required for the purposes of the public library, museum, and art gallery may be designated the library rate, and so much as is required for the other purposes of the Pavilion Acts may be designated the pavilion rate.

(5.) The accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the Corporation under the Pavilion Acts shall be audited, examined, and published as part of the municipal accounts of the Corporation.

Art. VI. Subject to the provisions of the Pavilion Acts as hereby altered, the Corporation shall have the like power of appointing a committee to manage, regulate, and control the public library, museum, and art gallery as the council of a borough have under Section 21 of the Public Libraries Act, 1855, and such committee shall have the same powers and privileges in respect of the general management, regulation, and control of the public library and museum and art gallery as if they had been appointed under that Act, subject nevertheless to such restrictions and conditions as the Corporation may deem expedient, and to the observance of such regulations as the Corporation may from time to time make for the guidance of such Committee; and such of the acts and proceedings of the Committee as the Corporation may from time to time require, but no others, shall be submitted to the Corporation for approval.

18 & 19 Vict. c. 70.

Art. VII. The provisions contained in the Public Health Act, 1875, with respect to byelaws, and the penalties which may be imposed thereby, and the recovery and application of penalties shall apply to all byelaws made under the provisions of the Pavilion Acts as hereby altered.

Art. VIII. All costs incurred by the Local Government Board, including such reasonable sum, not exceeding three guineas a day, as that Board may determine for the services of any inspector, in relation to the duties imposed on that Board under the Pavilion Acts as hereby altered, shall be paid by the Corporation out of such fund or rate as the Local Government Board may direct, and any sum so determined by the Board shall be a debt due to the Crown from the Corporation. A.D. 1891.

Linthwaite Order.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT DISTRICT OF LINTHWAITE.

Provisional Order to enable the Sanitary Authority for the Urban Sanitary District of Linthwaite to put in force the Compulsory Clauses of the Lands Clauses Acts.

To the Linthwaite Local Board, being the Sanitary Authority for the Urban Sanitary District of Linthwaite, in the County of the West Riding of Yorkshire; —

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Linthwaite Local Board (herein-after referred to as "the Local Board"), as the Sanitary Authority for the Urban Sanitary District of Linthwaite, in the County of the West Riding of Yorkshire, require to purchase and take the lands situate in the District, and described in the Schedule hereto, for the following purposes; viz., —

1. The lands described in Part I. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the street called Guy Lane;
2. The lands described in Part II. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the street called Blackmoorfoot Road;
3. The lands described in Part III. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the street called "Rock";
4. The land described in Part IV. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the street called Heath Road;

5. The lands described in Part V. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving Market Street;
6. The lands described in Part VI. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the streets called Yates Lane and Morley Lane;
7. The lands described in Part VII. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the street called Morley Lane (otherwise Cowlersley Lane);
8. The lands described in Part VIII. of the said Schedule for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the street called Slades Lane;

And whereas the London and North-western Railway Company (herein-after referred to as "the Company"), who are the owners or reputed owners of the lands numbered 52 and 57a on the deposited plans, have agreed to the inclusion of those lands in the Schedule hereto, subject to the conditions herein-after contained:

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by Section 176 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and by any other Statutes in that behalf, do hereby empower the Linthwaite Local Board, from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, to put in force, with reference to the lands described in the Schedule hereto, subject to the continuance of any existing public rights of highway, and for the purposes aforesaid, the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, or any of them, but subject to the following conditions; viz.,—

38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

Provisions for the protection of the London and North-western Railway Company.

1. The Local Board shall not for the purpose of the widening and improvement of Morley Lane and Yates Lane, and the re-construction and widening of Cuckoo Bridge over the Huddersfield Canal (herein-after referred to as "the canal"), take, use, enter upon, or interfere with any of the lands, works, or property of the Company without having first obtained the consent of the Company under their common seal; but the Local Board may purchase and take, and the Company may and shall sell and grant an easement or right of using, so much of the properties numbered 52 and 57a on the deposited plans in the Parish of Almondbury as the Local Board may require for the said re-construction, widening, and improvement.
2. The re-construction and widening of the said bridge over the canal, and the works connected therewith, shall be so executed as to carry the same over the whole of the waterway of the canal and towing-path at the point of crossing by a single span, with a clear headway throughout the entire width of such bridge as re-constructed and widened of not less than the existing headway at such point of crossing.
3. All the works affecting the lands, canal, or other property of the Company, shall be constructed according to plans, sections, and specifications to be previously submitted to and approved by and to the reasonable satisfaction of the principal engineer of the Company, but in the event of the said engineer for the space of one month neglecting to approve the said plans, sections, or specifications, or in the event of his disapproving the same, then according to such plans, sections, and specifications as shall be approved by an engineer to be appointed by the President for the time being of the Institution of Civil Engineers, on the application of either the Local Board or the Company.

4. The Local Board shall carry out the re-construction, widening, and improvement aforesaid so as in no way to obstruct, impede, or interfere with the free and uninterrupted and safe use of the canal, or the works connected with the canal or the traffic thereon.

5. The Local Board shall at all times maintain the said bridge as re-constructed and widened, with the approaches thereto, and the roadways and footways over the same, and also all other works executed by them, in substantial repair and condition, to the reasonable satisfaction in all respects of the principal engineer of the Company; and if and whenever the Local Board fail so to do, the Company may make and do, in and upon as well the lands and works of the Local Board as on their own lands and works, all such works and things as they may reasonably think requisite in that behalf, and the sum from time to time certified by their engineer to be the reasonable amount of such their expenditure shall be repaid to them by the Local Board, and in case of any difference between the Local Board and the Company under this provision the same shall be determined by an engineer to be appointed as before provided.

6. All the works constructed by the Local Board for re-constructing and widening the said bridge, including roadways, footways, and approaches, shall be maintained by the Local Board at their own expense.

7. The Local Board shall bear and, on demand, pay to the Company the expense of the employment by the Company during the execution of any works affecting the canal of a sufficient number of inspectors and watchmen, to be appointed by the Company for watching the canal and the works connected therewith respectively with reference to and during the execution of such intended works, and for preventing, so far as may be, all interference, obstruction, danger, and accidents from any of the operations or from the acts or defaults of the Local Board or their contractors, or any person in the employ of the Local Board or of their contractors, with reference thereto or otherwise.

8. If by reason of the execution of any of the works or any proceedings of the Local Board, or the failure of any such works, or any act or omission of the Local Board or of their contractors, or of any person in the employ of the Local Board or of their contractors, or otherwise, the canal or any of the works connected therewith shall be injured or damaged, such injury or damage shall be forthwith made good by the Local Board at their own expense, or in the event of their failing to do so, then the Company may make good the same, and recover the expense thereof, with full costs, against the Local Board in any court of competent jurisdiction; and if any interruption shall be occasioned to the traffic on the canal by reason of any of the matters or causes aforesaid, the Local Board shall pay to the Company all costs and expenses to which the Company may be put, as well as full compensation for the loss and inconvenience sustained by them by reason of any such interruption, such costs and expenses and compensation to be recoverable, with full costs, by the Company in any court of competent jurisdiction.

9. The Local Board and the Company may agree upon any variation or alteration in the works, or as to the manner in which the same shall be executed.

BOROUGH OF SOUTHPORT.

Provisional Order to enable the Urban Sanitary Authority for the Borough of Southport to put in force the Compulsory Clauses of the Lands Clauses Acts.

To the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Southport, being the Urban Sanitary Authority for that Borough ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Southport, as the Urban Sanitary Authority for that Borough, require to purchase and take the lands described in the Schedule hereto for the purpose of widening and otherwise improving the streets called Sussex Road, Hawkshead Street South, and Tithe Barn Road, and for the purpose of providing public walks and pleasure grounds, in the said Borough :

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by Section 176 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and by any other Statutes in that behalf, do hereby empower the said Urban Sanitary Authority, from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, to put in force, with reference to the lands described in the Schedule hereto, subject to the continuance of any existing public rights of highway, and for the purposes aforesaid, the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, or any of them.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT DISTRICT OF WALTHAM HOLY CROSS.

Waltham Holy Cross Order.

Provisional Order to enable the Sanitary Authority for the Urban Sanitary District of Waltham Holy Cross to put in force the Compulsory Clauses of the Lands Clauses Acts.

To the Waltham Holy Cross Local Board of Health, being the Sanitary Authority for the Urban Sanitary District of Waltham Holy Cross, in the County of Essex;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Waltham Holy Cross Local Board of Health (herein-after referred to as "the Local Board"), as the Sanitary Authority for the Urban Sanitary District of Waltham Holy Cross, in the County of Essex, require to purchase and take the lands described in the Schedule hereto for the purpose of widening, altering, and improving High Bridge Street, in their District:

A.D. 1891.

Waltham Holy Cross Order.

38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by Section 176 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and by any other Statutes in that behalf, do hereby empower the Local Board, from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, to put in force, with reference to the lands described in the Schedule hereto, and for the purpose aforesaid, the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, or any of them:

Protection of rights of Her Majesty's War Department.

Provided that in widening, altering, and improving High Bridge Street, and providing for the erection of buildings adjoining and near to that street, the following provisions shall have effect; viz.,—

(1.) The Local Board shall by arches or girders, or other like means, carry the said street as widened across the tail-stream numbered 7 on the deposited plans, and for that purpose may alter, strengthen, and improve the bridge across the same, in such manner and to such extent, as they may consider expedient.

(2.) The Local Board may, to any extent within the limits of deviation defined on the deposited plans, construct and maintain works so as to cover and close in the said tail-stream, and the site and space upwards from and including such works shall vest in the Local Board.

(3.) Nothing in this Order contained shall authorise any diminution of the present waterway of the said tail-stream, and no works shall be commenced under sub-sections 1 and 2 of this proviso until the plans thereof shall have been approved in writing by the Secretary of State for the War Department.
