EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

Local authorities and development bodies who undertake construction or maintenance work are required by section 10(1) of the Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 to keep separate accounts in respect of each description of work in section 10(2) of the Act. These regulations amend the descriptions of construction or maintenance work in section 10(2) so as to provide a separate description for Scotland for general water and sewerage works, which in Scotland are generally the responsibility of regional and islands councils. The descriptions of construction or maintenance work in section 10(2) were previously amended in respect of England and Wales by S.I. 1981/339.
