CHAPTER clxiii.

An Act to regulate the expenditure of Money by the London County Council on Capital Account during the current Financial Period and the raising of Money to meet such expenditure. [17th August 1894.]

A.D. 1894.

WHEREAS the powers of the London County Council (in this Act referred to as "the Council") for the expenditure of money on capital account up to the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four are limited by the London County Council (Money) Act 1893 (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 1894") and the Acts wherewith the same is to be read and have effect:

55 & 56 Vict. c. ccxi.

And whereas estimates have been prepared by the various committees of the Council of the expenditure on capital account which will or may be required in the execution of the powers and duties respectively delegated to them for the financial year ending the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and also for the following six months ending the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (which periods collectively are herein-after referred to as "the financial period") and all those estimates have been considered and approved by the finance committee of the Council in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1888 and the estimates as so approved have been adopted by the Council:

51 & 52 Vict. c. 41.

And whereas the various purposes for which money is required to be expended on capital account during the financial period and the sums estimated to be required in respect of each such purpose are set out in the Schedule to this Act (Part I.) and such sums amount in the aggregate to four million seven hundred and twenty-one thousand eight hundred and seven pounds:

And whereas the Council are promoting a Bill in Parliament in the present session under the title of the London County Council

A.D. 1894.

(Improvements) Bill by which powers are sought to make Street Improvements to purchase lands and to acquire the garden in Lincoln's Inn Fields and it is estimated that it will or may be necessary to expend on capital account in the execution of the powers to be conferred by the said Bill (if the same be passed into an Act during the present session) during the financial period a sum of eighty-four thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds:

And whereas the Council are promoting a Bill in Parliament in the present session under the title of the London County Council (Tower Bridge Southern Approach) Bill by which powers are sought to make a new approach to the Tower Bridge on the southern side of the River Thames and it is estimated that it will or may be necessary to expend on capital account in the execution of the powers to be conferred by the said Bill (if the same be passed into an Act during the present session) during the financial period a sum of seventy-one thousand pounds:

And whereas the Council are promoting a Bill in Parliament under the title of the London County Council (General Powers) Bill by which among other things powers are sought to enable the Council to expend on capital account a sum of money not exceeding six thousand pounds as a contribution towards the cost of acquiring land adjoining and to be added to the Paddington Recreation Ground:

And whereas it is estimated that the amounts which the Council will or may require for loans to local authorities as herein-after defined during the financial period will be not exceeding two million seven hundred and fifty thousand pounds as set out in Part III. of the Schedule to this Act:

And whereas it is expedient that subject to the provisions of this Act the Council should have power to raise for the several purposes mentioned in this Act such sums of money as they may require not exceeding the amounts herein-after prescribed:

And whereas it is also expedient that subject to such consent as herein-after provided the Council should have certain additional powers of expenditure on capital account:

And whereas the powers for raising money given by this Act are (to the extent set out in Part V. of the said Schedule) re-grants of powers already conferred on the Council by the Act of 1893 but not exercised:

And whereas it is expedient to make other provisions as in this Act set forth but the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

A.D. 1894.

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—
