EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Under section twenty-one of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1949, which is brought into force by the Justices of the Peace Act, 1949 (Commencement No. 3) Order, 1951 (S.I. 1951 No. 1941), on 1st April, 1953, a justices' clerk will by virtue of his office be collecting officer of any magistrates' court of which he is clerk, and any sums payable under an order of a magistrates' court for the periodical payment of money, whenever made, will normally be payable to a justices' clerk in his capacity as collecting officer. These Regulations prescribe the form and manner in which notice is to be given by a justices' clerk to the person liable to make payments under an order for the periodical payment of money made before 1st April, 1953, where section twenty-one operates to require payments made on or after that date to be made to the clerk although the order directs payment to be made to some other person.

MAINTENANCE OF DEPENDANTS

1953 No. 1215

The Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) (Jersey) Order, 1953

Made - - - - 1*st August,* 1953

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of August, 1953

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act, 1920(a), provision has been made for the enforcement in England and Northern Ireland of maintenance orders made by a court in any part of Her Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom to which the said Act extends:

And Whereas by subsection (1) of section twelve of the said Act it is provided that where Her Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature of any part of Her Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that part of maintenance orders made by courts within England and Northern Ireland, Her Majesty may by Order in Council extend the said Act to that part, and thereupon that part shall become a part of Her Majesty's dominions to which the said Act extends:

And Whereas Her Majesty is satisfied that the Legislature of Jersey has made reciprocal provisions for the enforcement within the Island of Jersey of maintenance orders made by courts within England and Northern Ireland:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said section twelve, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Act, 1920, shall extend to the Island of Jersey.

2. This Order may be cited as the Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) (Jersey) Order, 1953.
