ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO TERTIO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

Cap. 5.

An Act for altering and enlarging the Powers of an Act, of the Seventeenth Year of His preſent Majeſty, for building a Bridge at Maiſmore, in the County of Glouceſter. [23d March 1813.]

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled An Act for rebuilding the Bridge over the River Severn, at Maiſmore, near the City of Glouceſter; for raiſing, widening, and ſecuring Over's Cauſeway, leading from the ſaid City towards Maiſmore aforeſaid; and for enforcing the proper paving and cleanſing of the ſeveral Streets within the ſaid City, and for removing Nuiſances and Annoyances therefrom, and preventing the like for the future; the Lord of the Manor of Maiſmore, and the Miniſter, Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh of Maiſmore for the Time being, were and are required to demiſe certain Pieces or Parcels of Meadow Ground, the Property of the Pariſhioners of the ſaid Pariſh, and Lord of the ſaid Manor, or ſome or one of them (being formerly a Part of the Common Meadow Ground belonging to the ſaid Pariſh, and appropriated to the Repair of Maiſmore Bridge and Cauſeway) ſituate and lying between that Part of the Turnpike Road called Maiſmore Cauſeway, and the ſaid River Severn, and extending from Over's Bridge aforeſaid to the Place where the former Bridge at Maiſmore ſtood, and to pay the neat Rents and Profits thereof to the Truſtees thereby appointed, to be by them applied towards the building, and for ever keeping in Repair, the ſaid then intended Bridge at Maiſmore: And whereas the ſaid Bridge hath been long ſince built, and the Ex- 17 G. 3. c. 68.

pences incident thereto fully paid off and satisfied, and the said Rents and Profits have accumulated and are accumulating to a very considerable Amount, much greater than can probably, for a considerable Time, be necessary for the Purposes aforesaid; and it is expedient and necessary that the whole of the said neat Rents and Profits should be no longer applied exclusively to the keeping in Repair the said Bridge, but that the said Rents and Profits should be hereafter applied towards the Repair of the same Bridge and Causeway: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as directs, "That it shall be lawful for the Lord of the said Manor of Maismore, and the Minister, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish of Maismore, for the Time being, to pay the neat Rents and Profits of the said Pieces or Parcels of Meadow Ground annually to the Trustees appointed by the same Act, to be by them applied towards building and for ever keeping in Repair the said then intended Bridge at Maismore," shall, from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, be and the same is hereby repealed, and declared to be null and void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Part of 17 G. 3. repealed.

Lord of the Manor and Minister, &c. of Maismore, to pay One-third of Rents of certain Meadow Ground, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, the Lord of the said Manor of Maismore, and the Minister, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish of Maismore for the Time being, shall and they are hereby authorized, required and directed, from Time to Time, and until the neat Rents and Profits of the said Pieces or Parcels of Ground in the Hands of the said Trustees shall have amounted or accumulated to the Sum of One thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to pay, by and out of the said neat Rents and Profits, One-third Part thereof to the said Trustees appointed by virtue of an Act of the Fifty-second Year of His said present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for enlarging the Term and Powers of an Act of King George the First, two Acts of King George the Second, and an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the Roads from Gloucester towards Hereford, and other Roads therein mentioned, all in the County of Gloucester, or to their Clerk or Treasurer for the Time being, to be by them applied towards keeping in Repair the said Causeway, called Maismore Causeway, and the Remainder of the said neat Rents and Profits to the said Trustees appointed by the said recited Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for keeping in Repair the said Bridge, to be by them applied for the Purposes of the said Bridge.

When Rents shall have accumulated to 1,000 l. then to pay One Half to such Trustees for repairing said Causeway.

III. And be it further enacted, That when and as soon as the said neat Rents and Profits in the Hands of them the said Trustees appointed by virtue of the said recited Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall have amounted or accumulated to the Sum of One thousand Pounds of like lawful Money, then and from thenceforth, and at all Times thenafter, One-half Part of the said neat Rents and Profits shall be paid by the said Lord of the said Manor, and the Minister, Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish of Maismore for the Time being, to the said Trustees appointed by virtue of the said recited Act of the Seventeenth teenth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, to be applied by them for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Bridge; and the other Half Part thereof to the ſaid Truſtees appointed by virtue of the ſaid recited Act of the Fifty-ſecond Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, or their ſaid Clerk or Treaſurer, for and towards the amending and keeping in Repair the ſaid Cauſeway; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act of the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Public Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and others, without being ſpecially pleaded.
