6. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, the Registrar-General may, subject to the provisions of article 1 of the Schedule to the Legitimacy Act (Northern Ireland), 1928, authorise the re-registration of the birth of a legitimated person in any case in which no informant is available.

7. Every entry of the birth of a legitimated person made on the authority of the Registrar-General shall contain a reference to the fact of such authority having been given.

8. The superintendent registrar or registrar having the custody of the register containing the original entry of the birth of a person whose birth has been re-registered under the Legitimacy Act (Northern Ireland), 1928, shall, on being so directed by the Registrar-General, make in the margin of the original entry a note, which shall for all purposes be deemed to be part of the entry, referring to the re-registration, and also if so directed shall make a certified copy of the original entry including the marginal note, and shall transmit such copy to the Registrar-General.

9. Where information with a view to obtaining re-registration is not furnished to the Registrar-General within the time specified in article 2 of the Schedule to the Legitimacy Act (Northern Ireland), 1928, the following fees shall be payable by the informant or other person obtaining the re-registration :—

(a) to the registrar who re-registers the birth, a fee of five shillings ; and,

(b) to a registrar who attests a declaration pursuant to article 5 (1) of these Regulations, a fee of two shillings and sixpence.

Witness my hand this 27th day of June, 1928.

L. A. Bullwinkle,
Registrar-General.

Approved,

William Moore.
