III. And whereas an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating the Trusts of the several Turnpike Roads in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis North of the River Thames: And whereas another Act was passed in the Tenth Year of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Seventh Year of His present Majesty, for consolidating the Trusts of the several Turnpike Roads in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis North of the River Thames, and to make and maintain Two new or Branch Roads to communicate with the said Metropolis Roads, which said Two last-mentioned Acts are herein-after called the Metropolis Roads Acts: And whereas it would be of public Advantage if the Trust hereby continued were placed under the Management of the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed by or under the said Metropolis Roads Acts, or either of them, which Commissioners are styled and known as the Commissioners of the Metropolis Turnpike Roads North of the Thames: Be it therefore enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions of the said Metropolis Roads Acts, except such of the said Powers and Provisions as have been repealed or altered, and except so far as the same or any of them shall be repealed and altered, and also except such of them as are, and so far as the same or any of them are, inconsistent with any of the Provisions of this Act, or relate to Matters specially provided for by this Act, shall, on and after the First Day of November next, be applicable to the said Road and Branch in as full and ample a Manner as if the said Road and Branch had been specially named, and the special Provisions in this Act, and in the Act hereby continued locally applicable thereto, had been inserted in the said Metropolis Roads Acts, and that the said Road and Branch shall form a separate District, and the Tolls thereon shall be those authorized by the said Act hereby continued, and shall be applicable as herein-after is mentioned, and that the Tolls and Income receivable by the said Commissioners under the said Metropolis Roads Acts, or either of them, shall continue to be applicable as by the same Acts directed, and shall not be applied in or towards the Maintenance or Repair of the said Road or Branch hereby placed under the Management of the said Commissioners, and that all the Powers and Authorities given by the said first-recited Act of the Seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth to the several Trustees appointed thereby or thereunder, so far as the same are not hereby repealed or altered, shall be transferred to the said Commissioners, who are hereby authorized and directed

Carts laden with Bricks, &c. to pay each Time of passing.

XI. And be it enacted, That no Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage laden with Bricks, Tiles, Stone, Lime, Timber, Coals, Iron in Bars, or Lead in Sheets shall be exempt from Toll on passing along the said Road by reason of any previous Payment of Toll, except in Cases where such Horse or other Beast shall, at the Time of such previous Payment of Toll, have been going with the same Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage empty, or laden with Breeze or Ashes for making Bricks, to fetch the Load which he shall be drawing at the Time when such Exemption shall be claimed.

First, in paying so much of the Expenses of obtaining and passing this Act, or incident thereto, as has not been hereinbefore provided for:

Secondly, in paying to the said Charles Freeth the Sum of Three hundred and forty-five Pounds, being the Amount due or to become due to him in respect of his Salary as such Clerk as aforesaid up to the First Day of November next:

Thirdly, in paying the Expenses to be incurred by the said Commissioners in the Management of the said Road and Branch (including as a Part of such Expenses such Proportion, as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners such Road and Branch ought to bear, of the Expenses of the said Commissioners in Salaries to Officers, and other Expenses incurred on account of the Roads now under their Care, and also of the said Road and Branch), such Expenses not to exceed in any One Year the Sum of Eighty Pounds:

Fourthly, in paying and discharging the Interest from Time to Time owing upon the Mortgages to be executed by virtue

And lastly, the Residue of such Monies shall be applied in paying off annually Securities on the Tolls of the said Road in manner herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) the said Commissioners, whenever the same shall amount to Two Pounds per Centum on the Debt for the Time being of the said Trust, shall and they are hereby required to apply the same in Payment of such Sum and Sums of Money as shall or may be agreed to be accepted by any Person or Persons, being a Creditor or Creditors on the said Tolls, as a Composition or Compositions on and in satisfaction of his, her, or their Security or Securities according to the Stipulation after mentioned; (that is to say,) the said Commissioners shall, Twenty-one Days at least before a General Meeting to be held in each Year, cause public Notice to be given by Advertisement, to be inserted in some One or more Newspaper or Newspapers which shall be published in the County of Middlesex, that a Composition or Compositions will be paid to such Creditor or Creditors on the said Tolls as shall be willing to accept the smallest Composition for his, her, or their Security or Securities, and requiring such Creditors to transmit Proposals in Writing, sealed up, to the Commissioners at the said Meeting, specifying therein the lowest Rate per Centum which such Creditor or Creditors will accept and take for the Sum or Sums which he, she, or they may have due and owing on the said Tolls, or for some Part or Parts thereof, (which said Proposals shall, as soon after the Hour of One of the Clock in the Afternoon of the Day of the said Meeting as convenient, be publicly opened at the said Meeting,) and the Creditor or Creditors whose Proposal or Proposals shall specify the lowest Rate per Centum which he, she, or they will accept and take for all or any of the said Securities, or for any Portion of any such Security, shall have the Preference, and be paid such Sum or Sums of Money as he, she, or they may be willing to accept for the same (if the Amount due upon such Security shall not exceed the Amount of the Fund to be disposed of, or such Portion of the same as that Sum shall extend to satisfy, if the Amount due thereon shall exceed the Amount of such disposable Fund,) by the said Commissioners at the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after such Meeting, with all Interest then due for the same; and if Two or more of the said Creditors shall deliver in Proposals at the same Meeting for
