Laid before Parliament	27th April, 1948
Coming into Operation	1st May, 1948

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of April, 1948

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by sub-section 1 (c) of Section 4 of the Matrimonial Causes (War Marriages) Act, 1944, it is provided, that the validity of any decree or order made by virtue of any law passed or made by any legislature or other authority having power to make laws with respect to matrimonial causes for any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom, or for any British protected state, which is declared by Order in Council to be a law substantially corresponding to the provision made as respects Great Britain by the preceding provisions of that Act, shall, by virtue of that Act, be recognised in all British Courts, whether within or without His Majesty's dominions, other than Dominion courts; 7 & 8 Geo. 6. c. 43.

And Whereas the legislature of British Guiana has passed a law entitled the Matrimonial Causes (War Marriages) Ordinance, 1947:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of His powers under the said Act, and all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the said law is a law substantially corresponding to the aforesaid provision made as respects Great Britain by the Matrimonial Causes (War Marriages) Act, 1944.

This Order may be cited as the Matrimonial Causes (War Marriages) (British Guiana) Order, 1948, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of May, 1948.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

THE MATRIMONIAL CAUSES (WAR MARRIAGES) (BRITISH GUIANA) ORDER, 1948

The object of this Order is to declare that a certain law made by the Colony of British Guiana is a law substantially corresponding to the provision made as respects Great Britain by the Matrimonial Causes (War Marriages) Act, 1944. Such a declaration will secure recognition in all British courts, whether within or without His Majesty's dominions, other than Dominion courts, of the validity of any decree or order made by virtue of the law of the said Colony.
