gave such notice, he would have proved, if no arrangement had been made, that he had made application for benefit in the prescribed manner.

(5) A member who in accordance with the said procedure proves unemployment on or in respect of any day, shall be treated as making a claim in respect of that day.

(6) A member who, whether with any particular intent or not, makes or fails to make, or delays in making a claim, or proves or fails to prove any fact or matter on or in connection with a claim, shall be treated as if he would, if no arrangement had been made, with the like intent (if any) have made or failed to make or delayed in making a claim for benefit or would have proved or failed to prove the fact or matter on or in connection with a claim for benefit.

(7) In this Regulation, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression " claim " means a claim by a member against an association with which an arrangement is in force for a sum in lieu of the amount which he would have been entitled to receive under the Act if no arrangement had been made."

Given under the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland this 30th day of December, 1937.

R. R. Bowman,
Assistant Secretary to the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland.
