

CHAP. 50.

An Act to provide for Superannuation Allowances to Medical Officers of poor law unions, and of dispensary districts of such unions, in Ireland. [2d August 1869.]

A.D. 1869.

WHEREAS it is expedient that provision should be made to enable superannuation allowances to be granted to medical officers of poor law unions in Ireland, and of dispensary districts of such unions, who become disabled, either by infirmity or age, to discharge the duties of their offices: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Power to guardians, with consent of poor law commissioners, to grant superannuation allowance to medical officers in certain cases.

1. That the board of guardians of any union in Ireland may, at their discretion, with the consent of the commissioners for administering the laws for relief of the poor in Ireland, grant to any medical officer, including in that term a surgical officer, of such union, or of any dispensary district in such union, an annual allowance, under and subject to the provisions of the Act to provide for superannuation allowances to officers of the unions in Ireland, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of Her Majesty, notwithstanding such medical officer shall not have devoted his entire time to the services of the union, and such allowance shall be paid out of the rates of the union exclusively, and no contribution shall be made thereto out of any moneys voted by Parliament.

Short title.

2. This Act shall be called "The Medical Officers Superannuation Act (Ireland), 1869."
