EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The revocation of the Order in Council of 25th November 1919 terminates the arrangements under Part III of the Medical Act 1956 (previously Part II of the Medical Act 1886) by which medical practitioners holding recognised qualifications granted in Alberta are eligible for full or provisional registration in the United Kingdom. In accordance with section 19(2) of the Medical Act 1956, this revocation does not prejudice the rights of persons already registered.
