1962 No. 1090

MEDICAL PROFESSION

The Medical Practitioners (Republic of South Africa) Order 1962

Made - - - - 23*rd May* 1962

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of May 1962

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas Her Majesty is of opinion that the Republic of South Africa affords to persons registered under section 7 of the Medical Act 1956(a) such privileges of practising there as to Her Majesty seem just:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power conferred on Her by section 19 of the aforesaid Act, and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Medical Practitioners (Republic of South Africa) Order 1962.

2. As from the 31st May 1962, the Republic of South Africa is hereby declared to be a foreign country to which Part III of the Medical Act 1956 applies.

3. As from the 31st May 1962, the Order in Council dated the 10th June 1921(b) (which declared that the Second Part of the Medical Act 1886 should be deemed to apply to the Union of South Africa) is hereby revoked.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order declares the Republic of South Africa (having ceased to be a part of the Commonwealth) to be a foreign country to which Part III of the Medical Act 1956 applies with effect from the 31st May 1962.
