EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These rules make provision for amending the Northern Rhodesia (Non-Domiciled Parties) Divorce Rules, 1953, by substituting three months for six weeks as the maximum period after which, in the absence of an appeal, a decree nisi may be made absolute.

MEDICAL PROFESSION

1958 No. 766

The Medical Practitioners (Western Australia) Order, 1958

Made - - - - 7th May, 1958

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May, 1958

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the power conferred on Her by subsection (1) of section nineteen of the Medical Act, 1956(a), and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the Medical Practitioners (Western Australia) Order, 1958.

2. As from the first day of January, 1959, the State of Western Australia is hereby declared to be a Commonwealth country to which Part III of the Medical Act, 1956, applies.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under Part III of the Medical Act, 1956, medical practitioners with a recognised qualification in a Commonwealth or foreign country to which Part III applies may be registered in the United Kingdom as Commonwealth practitioners or foreign practitioners, as the case may be. Under s. 19 of the Act, a country may be declared to be a Commonwealth or foreign country to which Part III applies if Her Majesty in Council is of opinion that it affords just privileges of practising there to persons registered in the United Kingdom.

This Order declares the State of Western Australia to be a Commonwealth country to which Part III applies with effect from the 1st January, 1959.
