EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order puts a person provisionally registered by virtue of Section 6 of the Medical Act, 1950, in the same position in relation to the age of call-up under the National Service Act, 1948, as a registered medical practitioner.

By virtue of section 3 (2) of the National Service (Amendment) Act, 1948, the age upon attaining which a registered medical practitioner ceases to be liable to be called up for wholetime service in the armed forces under the National Service Act, 1948, is 30 years.

MERCHANDISE MARKS

1952 No. 1078

The Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) Exemption Direction (No. 1) 1952

Made - - - -	24th May, 1952
Coming into Operation	24th May, 1952

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926(a), it is provided that if, where an Order in Council has been made under that Act with respect to any goods, it is shown to the satisfaction of the Appropriate Department by persons appearing to the Department to have a substantial interest in the matter that the application of the provisions of the Order or of some of those provisions to any particular class or description of those goods has caused or is likely to cause injury or hardship to the said persons or any of them, the Department may direct that the Order or any particular provisions of the Order shall cease to apply to goods of that class or description or shall apply to such goods subject only to such modifications and conditions as the Department think fit, and the Order shall, while the Direction is in force, have effect subject thereto :

And Whereas it is provided by the Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 1 Order, 1932(b), that it shall not be lawful to sell or expose for sale in the United Kingdom any imported butter unless it bears an indication of origin :

And Whereas the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, the Secretary of State for the Home Department and the Secretary of State for Scotland acting jointly, being the Appropriate Department in this case, having considered representations made to them in that behalf by persons appearing to the Department to have a substantial interest in the matter, are satisfied that the application of the provisions of the said Order is likely to cause hardship :

Now therefore the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, the Secretary of State for the Home Department and the Secretary of State for Scotland, acting jointly, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Section 3 of the said Act, hereby direct as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 1 Order, 1932, shall cease to apply to butter during the period of twelve months from the date of this Direction.

2. This Direction may be cited as the Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) Exemption Direction (No. 1), 1952.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this twenty-fourth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.
