MERCHANDISE MARKS

1956 No. 1216

The Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 1 Order, 1956

Made - - - - 3*rd August*, 1956
Coming into Operation 3*rd November*, 1956

At the Court at Arundel Castle, the 3rd day of August, 1956

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas an enquiry in relation to imported oil-burning heating, cooking and lighting appliances has on a reference from the Board of Trade been held by the appropriate standing committee appointed under the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926(a): and, the report of the committee having been taken into consideration, the Board of Trade have made a representation to Her Majesty that it is desirable that an Order should be made under Section 2 of the said Act requiring the said goods to be marked in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by Section 2 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. It shall not be lawful in the United Kingdom to sell or expose for sale any oil-burning appliance to which this Order applies unless it bears an indication of origin applied in accordance with the appropriate requirements of Article 3 of this Order.

2. The oil-burning appliances to which this Order applies are any goods of a kind described in the Schedule hereto.

3. The indication of origin provided for by Article 1 shall be applied as follows, that is to say, it shall be stamped or embossed either on the article itself or on a metal label soldered or rivetted to the article or applied to the article itself or to such a label by means of a transfer.

4. Where, at the time at which it is being sold or exposed for sale in the United Kingdom, any appliance to which this Order applies is packed ready for sale in a carton or other container, then in addition to the foregoing requirements as to the marking of the article itself or such label as aforesaid with an indication of origin in accordance with Article 3, the carton or other container shall, at the time of the sale or exposure for sale as aforesaid also be marked with an indication of origin which shall be stamped, printed or stencilled on the carton or container or on an adhesive label securely attached thereto, or applied to the carton or container or to such a label by means of a transfer.

(a) 16 & 17 Geo. 5. c. 53.

5. Nothing in this Order shall require any goods to which it applies to bear an indication of origin at the time of importation or at the time of exposure for sale wholesale by a person being a wholesale dealer.

6. This Order shall be cited as the Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 1 Order, 1956, and shall come into operation on the 3rd day of November, 1956.

W. G. Agnew.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which comes into operation on 3rd of November, 1956, requires an indication of origin to be applied to the oil-burning appliances described in the Schedule. The goods are to bear the indication of origin when sold or exposed for sale; but the requirement does not apply to the exposure for sale wholesale by a person being a wholesale dealer.

The indication of origin is to be applied in the manner specified in Article 3; and, by Article 4, where the goods are sold or exposed for sale ready packed in cartons or other containers the cartons or containers must also bear an indication of origin.
