Given under my hand this tenth day of December in the year 1954.

George North,
Registrar General.

I approve

Iain Macleod,
Minister of Health.

10th December, 1954.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations prescribe the form of endorsement on the notice of a marriage which is to take place in a registered building in a district in which neither party resides. They are rendered necessary by the Marriage Act, 1949 (Amendment) Act, 1954, which removed certain restrictions on such marriages.

MERCHANDISE MARKS

1954 No. 217

The Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 10 Order, 1934, Amendment No. 2 Order, 1954

Made - - - -	1*st March,* 1954
Coming into Operation	13*th March,* 1954

At the Court of Saint James, the 1st day of March, 1954.

Present,

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother.
Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret.

Lord President	Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster
Lord Privy Seal	Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer

Whereas Her Majesty, in pursuance of the Regency Acts, 1937 to 1953, was pleased, by Letters Patent dated the twentieth day of November, 1953, to delegate to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret, His Royal Highness The Duke of Gloucester, Her Royal Highness The Princess Royal and the Earl of Harewood, or any two or more of them, as Counsellors of State, full power and authority during the period of Her Majesty's absence from the United Kingdom to summon and hold on Her Majesty's behalf Her Privy Council and to signify thereat Her Majesty's approval of anything for which Her Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas the question whether the Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 10 Order, 1934(a), as amended(b) (hereinafter referred to as " the principal Order "), should be further amended in manner hereinafter appearing was referred to the appropriate standing committee appointed under the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926(c); and, the report of the committee having been taken into consideration, the Board of Trade have made a representation to Her Majesty that it is desirable that the principal Order should be further amended in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother and Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret, being authorised thereto by the said Letters Patent and in pursuance of the powers conferred by sections 2 and 7 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, do hereby, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, on Her Majesty's behalf order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The principal Order shall cease to apply to the woven piece goods specified in Part I of the Schedule hereto.

2. The principal Order shall apply to woven piece goods of the class or description specified in column 1 of Part II of the Schedule hereto subject to the following modifications and conditions, that is to say, that, in relation to goods of that class or description, for the manner of applying the indication of origin specified in the second column of the Schedule to the said Order there shall be substituted the manner of applying such indication specified in column 2 of Part II of the Schedule to this Order.

3. This Order may be cited as the Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 10 Order, 1934, Amendment No. 2 Order, 1954, and shall come into operation on the 13th day of March, 1954.

W. G. Agnew.

SCHEDULE

Part I

Woven piece goods wholly or mainly of jute.

Part II

Column 1	Column 2
Class or description of goods	Manner in which the indication of origin is to be applied
Woven piece goods wholly or mainly of cotton, being such goods in the loom state and commonly known to the trade in the United Kingdom as " grey cloth ".	Woven into or stamped or printed either— (a) at intervals of 2 yards on the selvedge, or (b) at one end of the piece and on the material, or (c) on a label securely attached to one end of the roll or piece:— provided that any marking in accordance with (b) or (c) above shall be such that the indication of origin can readily be seen from an inspection of the roll or piece without unrolling or, as the case may be, unfolding more than 2 yards of the roll or piece.

(a) S. R. & O. 1934/1185 (Rev. XIII, p. 604: 1934 I, p. 1175).
(b) S.R. & O. 1935/519 (Rev. XIII, p. 615: 1935, p. 1083).
(c) 16 & 17 Geo. 5. c. 53.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 10 Order, 1934 (S.R. & O. 1934 No. 1185), as amended (S.R. & O. 1935 No. 519), prohibits the importation or sale in the United Kingdom of certain woven piece goods, bedding and other articles unless they bear an indication of origin applied to them in the manner prescribed in the Schedule thereto.

This Order amends the principal Order by exempting woven piece goods wholly or mainly of jute from its operation and by permitting additional methods of applying the indication of origin to cotton grey cloth.
