The Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 4 Order, 1930 (S.R. & O. 1930/527) as amended (S.R. & O. 1937/720), prohibits the importation or sale in the United Kingdom of refractory bricks, blocks and tiles, other than metallic bricks, blocks and tiles, unless they bear an indication of origin applied to them in the manner prescribed in that Order.

This direction prescribes alternative methods of applying the indication of origin to refractory bricks, blocks and tiles not made from molten material.

Under the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, s. 3, the Direction will (unless it is withdrawn by the Board) continue in force until an Order in Council is made amending the Order of 1930 either in accordance with the terms of the Direction or otherwise or until the expiration of twelve months from the operation of the Direction whichever occurs first.
