MERCHANT SHIPPING

The Merchant Shipping (Fees) Regulations 1971

Made - - -	15*th April* 1971
Laid before Parliament	29*th April* 1971
Coming into Operation	1*st May* 1971

The Secretary of State, with the approval of the Treasury and in exercise of his powers under section 33 of the Merchant Shipping (Safety Convention) Act 1949(a) as extended by section 2(4) of the Merchant Shipping Act 1964(b) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Fees) Regulations 1971 and shall come into operation on 1st May 1971.

2.—(1) In these Regulations, "tons" means tons gross tonnage and the gross tonnage of a ship having alternative gross tonnages shall be taken to be the larger of those tonnages.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if these Regulations and the Regulations hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

(3) Without prejudice to the preceding paragraph, nothing in these Regulations shall apply to any service started before 1st May 1971, and as respects such services the fees payable shall be those applicable at the time of starting the service. Where a service comprises the issue of a certificate consequent upon a survey or inspection that service shall be treated as starting when the survey or inspection as the case may be was started.

3. The Merchant Shipping (Fees) Regulations 1967(d) and the Merchant Shipping (Fees) (Amendment) Regulations 1970(e) are hereby revoked.

(a) 1949 c. 43.
(b) 1964 c. 47.
(c) 1889 c. 63.
(d) S.I. 1967/1611 (1967 III, p. 4432).
(e) S.I. 1970/1887 (1970 III, p. 6235).

4. The fees, or maximum fees as the case may be, payable under the enactments and for the services specified in the Schedule to these Regulations shall be the fees or maximum fees specified in relation thereto in that Schedule.

Anthony Grant,
Parliamentary Under Secretary of State,
Department of Trade and Industry.

15th April 1971.

We approve the making of these Regulations.

Walter Clegg,
H. S. P. Monro,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of
Her Majesty's Treasury.

(a) a fee of £50 for every partial survey, and

(b) a further fee of £50 for every additional visit when more than one visit is paid to the ship by the surveyor for the purposes of such a partial survey.

PART 21—continued

5. Where a surveyor of ships carries out a survey of a ship for the issue in respect of the ship of a Cargo Ship Safety Construction Certificate which it is intended shall remain in force for a period not exceeding three months, and the ship is one in respect of which there is or has within the period of twelve months preceding the survey been in force a passenger steamer's certificate, a safety certificate, or a passenger steamer's certificate combined with a safety certificate, the fee payable for such survey shall be as follows:—

(1) if the survey is carried out before or within one month after the expiry of the certificate ... ... £62·50

(2) if the survey is carried out more than one month but within twelve months after the expiry of the certificate ... ... £125·00

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations revoke and replace with amendments the Merchant Shipping (Fees) Regulations 1967 as amended by the Merchant Shipping (Fees) (Amendment) Regulations 1970.

The principal changes made are substantial increases of the fees payable for the survey and inspection of ships and their equipment, for the issue of safety, radio and other certificates, for tonnage measurement and for the services of receivers of wreck.
