SPIRITS

The Methylated Spirits (Amendment) Regulations, 1951

1951 No. 1470

Made - - - - 8th August, 1951

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Spirits Act, 1880(a), and the Acts amending that Act and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations amending the Methylated Spirits Regulations, 1930(b), hereinafter referred to as the Principal Regulations.

1. The Principal Regulations shall apply in the case of a registered veterinary practitioner in like manner as they apply in the case of a veterinary surgeon and as if references in those Regulations to a veterinary surgeon included references to a registered veterinary practitioner.

2. The expression "registered veterinary practitioner" means a person registered in the Supplementary Veterinary Register in pursuance of the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1948(c).

3. These Regulations may be cited as the Methylated Spirits (Amendment) Regulations, 1951.

Dated this 8th day of August, 1951.

Signed by Order of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise.

A. W. Taylor,
Secretary for the Customs and Excise.

City Gate House,
Finsbury Square,
London, E.C.2.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under the Principal Regulations veterinary surgeons (persons duly registered in the Register of Veterinary Surgeons) may receive and use industrial methylated spirits and chemists may sell industrial methylated spirits and articles made with industrial methylated spirits on the orders or prescriptions of veterinary surgeons. The present regulations extend these facilities to apply in the case of registered veterinary practitioners (persons registered in the Supplementary Veterinary Register).
