MAGISTRATES' COURTS

The Metropolitan Magistrates' Courts Order 1964

Made - - - - 20th January 1964
Coming into Operation 16th March 1964

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of January 1964

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 2 of the Metropolitan Police Courts Act 1839(a) and sections 2 and 4 of the Metropolitan Police Courts Act 1840(b) is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) A metropolitan magistrates' court to be known as Wells Street magistrates' court shall be established at Tasman House, 59 to 65, Wells Street, London, W.1.

(2) A metropolitan stipendiary magistrate shall attend at Wells Street magistrates' court on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday in every week from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. or such later time as the metropolitan stipendiary magistrate may consider expedient for the transaction of business:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall require a metropolitan stipendiary magistrate to attend at the said court on any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving.

2. The metropolitan magistrates' court divisions assigned to the following metropolitan magistrates' courts, that is to say, Clerkenwell, Marlborough Street and Marylebone shall be altered, and there shall be assigned as metropolitan magistrates' court divisions to Wells Street magistrates' court and to the aforementioned metropolitan magistrates' courts the areas respectively described in the Schedule hereto.

3. The Order in Council made on the 5th day of October 1934 altering and re-defining the boundaries of certain police court divisions(c), so much of the Metropolitan Police Courts (Divisions) Order 1948(d) as sets out the boundary of the metropolitan magistrates' court division assigned to Clerkenwell magistrates' court and so much of the Metropolitan Magistrates' Courts Order 1963(e) as sets out the boundary of the Marlborough Street magistrates' court are hereby revoked.

4. This Order may be cited as the Metropolitan Magistrates' Courts Order 1964 and shall come into operation on 16th March 1964.
