PART XII.

Appeals from the United Courts to the Provincial Courts.

Appeals from the United Courts to the Provincial Courts.

78. In any Suit or other Proceeding before a United Court there shall be no Appeal, without the special Leave of such Court, from any interlocutory Decree or Order thereof not having the Force of a definitive Sentence, until a definitive Sentence shall have been pronounced thereon; but when a definitive Sentence has been pronounced, any Party appealing therefrom may also appeal from such interlocutory Decree or Order.

Provincial Court may affirm, &c. Order appealed against.

79. The Provincial Court may affirm, modify, or amend the Decree or Order appealed against, or make such other Order in the Premises as it thinks just.

How Appeals from a United Court shall be made.

80. Every Appeal from a United Court to a Provincial Court shall be made by suing out Letters of Request from the Bishop to the Provincial Court, having annexed thereto a Transcript of the Record in the Cause, the Proceedings thereon, the documentary Evidence, any Decision of the Court upon any Question of Law, with the Notes of the Evidence, and no other Evidence shall be received before the Provincial Court.

No Appeal from the Judgment of a Provincial Court from interlocutory Decrees not having the Force of a definitive Sentence.

81. In any Suit or other Proceeding there shall be no Appeal from a Provincial Court, without the special Leave of such Court, from any interlocutory Decree or Order thereof not having the Force of a definitive Sentence, until a definitive Sentence shall have been pronounced therein; but when any definitive Sentence has been pronounced either in a Provincial or a Diocesan Court, any Party appealing therefrom may also appeal from such interlocutory Order or Decree.

CAP. LV.

An Act for the better Regulation of Street Music within the Metropolitan Police District. [25th July 1864.]

'WHEREAS by Section Fifty-seven of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for further improving the Police in and near the Metropolis,' it was enacted, that any Householder within the Metropolitan Police District might require any Street Musician to depart from the Neighbourhood of the House of any such Householder, on account of the Illness of any Inmate of such House, or for other reasonable Cause: And whereas the said Provision has been found insufficient for the Protection of such Householders from Annoyance by Street Musicians:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: 2 & 3 Vict. c. 47.

Repeal of recited Provision, and Substitution of amended Provision.

1. Section Fifty-seven of the said Act is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following Provision shall take effect as Part of the said Act; namely, any Householder within the Metropolitan Police District, personally, or by his Servant, or by any Police Constable, may require any Street Musician or Street Singer to depart from the Neighbourhood of the House of such Householder, on account of the Illness, or on account of the Interruption of the ordinary Occupations or Pursuits of any Inmate of such House, or for other reasonable or sufficient Cause; and every Person who shall sound or play upon any Musical Instrument or shall sing in any Thoroughfare or public Place near any such House after being so required to depart, shall be liable to a Penalty not more than Forty Shillings, or, in the Discretion of the Magistrate before whom he shall be convicted, may be imprisoned for any Time not more than Three Days, and it shall be lawful for any Constable belonging to the Metropolitan Police Force to take into Custody without Warrant any Person who shall offend as aforesaid: Provided always, he shall be given into Custody by the Person making the the Charge: Provided also, that the Person making a Charge for an Offence against this Act shall accompany the Constable who shall take into Custody any Person offending as aforesaid to the nearest Police Station House, and there sign the Charge Sheet kept for such Purpose.

Treatment of Charge brought to Police Court while shut.

2. Whenever any Person charged with an Offence under this Act shall be brought to any Station House during the Time when the Police Court shall be shut, it shall be lawful for the Constable in charge of the Station House to require the Person making the Charge to enter into a Recognizance, conditioned as is provided by the Act passed in the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-seven, Section Seventy-two; and upon the Refusal of such Person to do so it shall be lawful for such Constable to discharge from Custody the Person so charged.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for granting to Her Majesty certain Stamp Duties; and to amend the Laws relating to the Inland Revenue. [25th July 1864.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

19 G. 2. c. 37.

1. 'Whereas an Act was passed in the Nineteenth Year of King George the Second, 'Chapter Thirty-seven, intituled An Act to regulate Insurance on Ships belonging to the 'Subjects of Great Britain, and on Merchandises or Effects laden thereon; and by Section 'Four of the same Act it is prohibited to make Re-assurance except in the Cases therein 'mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to remove such Restriction:' Be it enacted, That notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, it shall be lawful to make Re-assurance upon any Ship or Vessel, or upon any Goods, Merchandise or other Property on board of any Ship or Vessel, or upon the Freight of any Ship or Vessel, or upon any other Interest in or relating to any Ship or Vessel which may lawfully be insured, and such Re-assurances shall be deemed to be the Insurance of Interests which may lawfully be insured within the Meaning of the Acts imposing Stamp Duties on Policies of Sea Insurance: Provided always, that if within Three Calendar Months next after the Termination of the Risk on any Policy of Re-assurance Application shall be made to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and it shall be proved to their Satisfaction that any such Re-assurance as aforesaid has been made on the same Property or Interest and Risk which shall have been previously assured to the same or some greater Amount by One or more lawful and valid Policy or Policies existing at the Time of making such Re-assurance, and duly stamped for denoting the full and proper Duties chargeable thereon, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make Allowance for the Stamp Duty impressed on the Policy of Re-assurance in like Manner as in the Case of spoiled Stamps on Policies of Insurance under the Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and thirty-three; and the several Provisions of the said Act, so far as they are applicable or can be applied, shall be observed and put in force with respect to the Allowance of the Stamps on the said Policies of Re-assurance.

Re-assurances of Sea Risks may lawfully be made.

On Termination of Risk and Proof of prior Assurance duly stamped, Allowance to be made for Stamp Duty on Policy of Re-assurance.

Bills of Exchange payable on demand and endorsed abroad to be deemed Foreign Bills.

2. Any Bill of Exchange payable on Demand, which shall be endorsed out of the United Kingdom, or purport to be so endorsed, wheresoever the same may have been drawn, shall, for the Purpose of charging the Stamp Duty thereon, be deemed to be a Foreign Bill of Exchange, but shall be chargeable with the same Amount of Stamp Duty as an Inland Bill of Exchange for the Payment of Money otherwise than on Demand, according to the Amount thereby made payable; and the Provisions, Regulations, and Penalties contained in the Fifth Section of the Act passed in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty's
