C A P. XXXIX.

An Act for amending the Law with respect to the Accounts of the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District; and for other Purposes relating to the Metropolitan Police. [15th July 1867.]

WHEREAS in order properly to carry into effect the Provisions of the Act passed in the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, so far as respects the Audit of the Accounts of the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District, it is expedient that the Day in each Year to which the Accounts of Monies received and expended by the Receiver are to be made up should be the same Day as that to which the annual financial Accounts of the Receiver are made up: And whereas the large Increase which has of late Years taken place in the Amount of such Monies has considerably augmented the Duties and Responsibility of the Receiver:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

As to the Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

1. The Amount of all Monies received and expended for the Purposes of the Act passed in the Tenth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Forty-four, shall be made up to the Thirty-first Day of March in lieu of the Thirty-first Day of December in each Year, and shall annually be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Thirty Days after the Thirty-first Day of March, if Parliament be then sitting, or within Thirty Days after the first Meeting of Parliament subsequent to such last-mentioned Day.

As to Salary of Receiver.

2. The Salary to be paid to the Receiver, in accordance with the Provision in that Behalf contained in the Ninth Section of the Act passed in the Second and Third Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Seventy-one, shall be not more than Twelve hundred Pounds.
