| Coming into Operation | 1*st April*, 1952 |

M.H. 108

In exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (3) of section 1 of the Midwives Act, 1951(a), the Minister of Health, after having consulted such bodies and persons as appeared to him to be concerned, hereby makes the following order:—

1.—(1) This order may be cited as the Midwives (Constitution of Central Midwives Board) Order, 1952, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1952.

(a) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 53.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), applies to the interpretation of this order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. The constitution of the Central Midwives Board shall be varied in manner following, that is to say:—

(a) The Board shall consist of sixteen persons of whom—

(i) Six (of whom two shall be certified midwives and one shall be a duly qualified medical practitioner engaged in general practice) shall be appointed by the Minister after consultation with such bodies and persons as appear to him to be concerned;

(ii) Four shall be duly qualified medical practitioners appointed, as to one each, by the Royal College of Physicians of London, the Royal College of Surgeons of England, the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists and the Society of Medical Officers of Health;

(iii) Four shall be certified midwives appointed by the Royal College of Midwives; and

(iv) Two (not being certified midwives) shall be appointed, as to one each, by the County Council's Association and the Association of Municipal Corporations.

(b) The provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 1 of the first Schedule to the Midwives Act, 1951, shall not apply; and

(c) Paragraph 2 of the said first schedule shall have effect as if a term of three years was specified therein in lieu of a term of one year.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Health this fourteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

(L.S.) Harry Crookshank,
Minister of Health.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order varies the membership of the Central Midwives Board provided for by paragraph 1 of the first schedule to the Midwives Act, 1951, and extends the term of office of a member provided for by paragraph 2.
