CHAPTER xxxvii.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders of the Secretary of State under the Military Lands Act, 1892. A.D. 1893.

[9th June 1893.]

WHEREAS the Secretary of State has made the Provisional Orders set out in the Schedule to this Act under the provisions of the Military Lands Act, 1892, and it is requisite that those Orders should be confirmed by Parliament: 55 & 56 Vict. c. 43.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Confirmation of Orders in schedule.

1. The Orders as amended and set out in the schedule to this Act are by this Act confirmed, and all the provisions thereof shall have full validity and force from the date of the passing of this Act.

Notices, &c. as to land for Marlborough Barracks. 53 & 54 Vict. c. 25.

2. The notices served, and the local inquiry held, under the Barracks Act, 1890, with reference to the lands authorised to be purchased by the Marlborough Barracks (Dublin) Order, 1893, shall be deemed to have been served, and held respectively, under the Military Lands Act, 1892.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Military Lands Provisional Orders Confirmation Act, 1893.

SCHEDULE.

I.—BUTTEVANT BARRACKS.

A Provisional Order made in pursuance of Section Two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, authorising the purchase of land for the improvement of Buttevant Barracks, in the county of Cork.

55 & 56 Vict. c. 43.

WHEREAS by section two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, the Secretary of State is empowered to make provisional orders authorising the taking of land for the military purposes defined in that Act:

And whereas under section twenty-three of the Military Lands Act, 1892, the term "military purposes" is defined to include the building and enlarging of barracks:

And whereas it is expedient for the purpose of enlarging the Buttevant Barracks, in the county of Cork, that the Secretary of State should be empowered to purchase, under the Military Lands Act, 1892, the lands described in this Order:

And whereas plans, showing the lands to be purchased, have been signed by the Secretary of State, and have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Cork:

And whereas the Secretary of State has, with reference to the purchase of the said lands, caused such notices to be served, and such local inquiry to be held, as are required by the provisions of the Military Lands Act, 1892, and after that inquiry he is satisfied that the lands should be taken:

Now therefore, I, the Secretary of State, in pursuance of the powers given to me by section two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, and any other enactment in that behalf, do hereby order that from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this order, the following provisions shall take effect:

Power to purchase lands under the Military Lands Act, 1892.

1. The Secretary of State may, for the enlargement of the Buttevant Barracks, in the county of Cork, purchase, under section two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, and the Acts incorporated therewith, the lands situated in the townland of Creggane, in the barony of Orrery and Kilmore, in the parish of Buttevant, and in the county of Cork, which are more particularly delineated on the plan signed by the Secretary of State and deposited as aforesaid, and are thereon coloured pink, and contain one acre and sixteen perches or thereabouts.

2. This Order may be cited as the Buttevant Barracks Enlargement Order, 1893. A.D. 1893. Short title.

Given under the hand and seal of the Secretary of State this twenty-third day of February one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

II.—MARLBOROUGH BARRACKS (DUBLIN).

A Provisional Order made in pursuance of Section Two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, authorising the Purchase of Land for the Improvement of the Marlborough Barracks at Grangegorman, near Dublin.

WHEREAS by section two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, the Secretary of State is empowered to make provisional orders authorising the taking of land for the military purposes defined in that Act : 55 & 56 Vict. c. 43.

And whereas under section twenty-three of the Military Lands Act, 1892, the term "military purposes" is defined to include the building and enlarging of barracks :

And whereas it is expedient for the purpose of enlarging the Marlborough Barracks at Grangegorman, in the county of Dublin, that the Secretary of State should be empowered to purchase, under the Military Lands Act, 1892, the lands described in this Order :

And whereas plans, showing the lands to be purchased, have been signed by the Secretary of State, and have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Dublin :

And whereas the Secretary of State, under the Barracks, Act, 1890, has, with reference to the purchase of the said lands, caused notices to be served, and a local inquiry to be held, similar respectively to the notices and local inquiry required under the Military Lands Act, 1892, and after the local inquiry so held is satisfied that the lands should be taken : 53 & 54 Vict. c. 25.

Now therefore, I, the Secretary of State, in pursuance of the powers given to me by section two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, and any other enactment in that behalf, do hereby order that from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this order, the following provisions shall take effect :

1. The Secretary of State may, for the enlargement of the Marlborough Barracks at Grangegorman, purchase, under section two of the Military Lands Act, 1892, and the Acts incorporated therewith, the lands situated in the townland of Grangegorman south, in the parish of Grangegorman, in the barony of Coolock, in the county of Dublin, which are more particularly delineated on the plan signed by the Secretary of State and deposited as aforesaid, and are thereon coloured yellow, and contain in the whole eight acres two roods and fifteen perches or thereabouts. Power to purchase lands under the Military Lands Act, 1892.

A.D. 1893.

Short title.

2. This Order may be cited as the Marlborough Barracks (Dublin) Order, 1893.

Given under the hand and seal of the Secretary of State this third day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.
