SCHEDULE.

I.—CURRAGH OF KILDARE.

A Provisional Order made in pursuance of Section Two of the Military Lands Act 1892 authorising the taking of rights of firing over and other rights of user of a certain part of the Curragh of Kildare.

55 & 56 Vict. c. 43.

WHEREAS by section two of the Military Lands Act 1892 the Secretary of State is empowered to make Provisional Orders authorising the taking of land for the military purposes defined in that Act:

And whereas under section twenty-three of the Military Lands Act 1892—

(i.) the term "military purposes" is defined to include rifle or artillery practice the enlarging of camps the erection of butts targets batteries and other accommodation the storing of arms and military drill; and

(ii.) the term "land" is defined to include any right of firing over lands or other right of user:

And whereas it is expedient for the military purposes aforesaid that the Secretary of State should be empowered to purchase under the Military Lands Act 1892 the rights of firing and other rights of user described in this Order:

And whereas plans showing the lands over which the rights are to be purchased have been signed by the Secretary of State and have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Kildare:

And whereas the Secretary of State has with reference to the purchase of the said rights caused such notices to be served and such local inquiry to be held as are required by the provisions of the Military Lands Act 1892 and after that inquiry he is satisfied that the rights should be taken:

Now therefore I the Secretary of State in pursuance of the powers given to me by section two of the Military Lands Act 1892 and any other enactment in that behalf do hereby order that from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall take effect:—

Power to purchase rights under the Military Lands Act 1892.

1. The Secretary of State may for the military purposes aforesaid purchase under section two of the Military Lands Act 1892 and the Acts incorporated therewith—

(a) the right of firing over the lands being portion of the lands of the Curragh of Kildare in the townland of Curragh parish of Ballysax and county of Kildare which are more particularly delineated on the plans signed by the Secretary of State and deposited as aforesaid and are thereupon coloured brown and green and contain as to the lands coloured brown sixty-three acres three roods and eight perches or thereabouts and as to the lands coloured green three hundred and fifty-two acres one rood and seven perches or thereabouts; and (b) the right of user of those lands for the purpose of rifle and musketry practice for instruction in field works for the erection and maintenance of butts and other necessary or proper works for that practice for the purpose of the drill exercise and recreation of Her Majesty's troops and for the purpose of temporary encampment thereon when required in the judgment of the Secretary of State.

Short title. 2. This Order may be cited as the Curragh (Rights of Firing and User) Order 1898.

Given under the hand and seal of the Secretary of State this seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

II.—LONDONDERRY BARRACKS.

A Provisional Order made in pursuance of Section Two of the Military Lands Act 1892 authorising the taking of certain lands and rights of way for the purpose of the enlargement of the Ebrington Barracks in the City of Londonderry.

WHEREAS by section two of the Military Lands Act 1892 the Secretary of State is empowered to make Provisional Orders authorising the taking of land for the military purposes defined in that Act: 55 & 56 Vict. c. 43.

And whereas under section twenty-three of the Military Lands Act 1892—

(i.) the term "military purposes" is defined to include the building and enlarging of barracks; and

(ii.) the term "land" is defined to include any easement in or over lands:

And whereas it is expedient for the military purposes aforesaid that the Secretary of State should be empowered to purchase under the Military Lands Act 1892 the lands and rights of way described in this Order:

And whereas a plan showing the lands to be purchased and the lands over which the rights of way are to be purchased has been signed by the Secretary of State and has been deposited with the clerk of the Crown and peace for the city and county of Londonderry:

And whereas the Secretary of State has with reference to the purchase of the said lands and rights caused such notices to be served and such local inquiry to be held as are required by the provisions of the Military Lands Act 1892 and after that inquiry he is satisfied that the lands and rights should be taken:

Now therefore I the Secretary of State in pursuance of the powers given to me by section two of the Military Lands Act 1892 and any other enactment in that behalf do hereby order that from and after the date of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order the following provisions shall take effect :—

Power to purchase lands and rights under the Military Lands Act 1892.
