partly of Glass, &c.

'any other Index thereof, may be seen without Impediment, and the Use of such Measures 'by Publicans and others in the Retail of Malt Liquors and Spirits, and other exciseable 'Liquids, would be attended with Advantage both to the Purchaser and Seller:' Be it therefore enacted, That Measures for such Liquids, which shall correspond in Capacity with the Sub-Standard Measures herein-before mentioned, or Parts or Multiples thereof, although such Measures may be made partly of Copper or other Metal, and partly of Glass or other transparent Medium, may be examined, compared, and stamped by all ex officio Inspectors of Weights and Measures, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding: That Measures for such Liquids, the Capacity of which shall exceed the Sub-Standard Measures, or Parts or Multiples thereof, herein-before mentioned, but which shall have the Capacity of such Sub-Standard Measures, or Parts or Multiples thereof, respectively indicated by a level Line drawn through the Centre of the Window or transparent Part, although such Measures may be made partly of Copper or other Metal, and partly of Glass or other transparent Medium, may be examined, compared, and stamped by all such Inspectors of Weights and Measures, anything in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proceedings under this Act for Recovery of Penalties, &c.

XXI. All Proceedings under this Act as to compelling the Appearance of any Witness, and as to the Hearing and Determination of any Complaints, or any other Matter relating thereto, shall be subject in all respects to "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," as the same is amended by "The Petty Sessions Clerk (Ireland) Act, 1858," (when the Case shall be heard in any Petty Sessions District,) and to the Provisions of the Acts relating to the Divisional Police Offices, when the same shall be heard in the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, so far as the said Provisions shall be consistent with any special Provisions of this Act; and when any Fine or Penalty is imposed under the Provisions of this Act, such Fines and Penalties shall be paid over to such Purposes and applied in such Manner as is provided by "The Fines Act (Ireland), 1851."

Provisions of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 63. (save such Parts as are hereby repealed) incorporated in this Act.

XXII. The several Clauses and Provisions contained in the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-three, which are not by this Act expressly or by necessary Implication repealed, so far as the same are applicable, and are not modified by or inconsistent with this Act, shall be incorporated with and be construed as forming Part of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed or taken to apply to any Action or Proceeding now pending or which may have been commenced before the passing of this Act.

CAP. CXX.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Ballots for the Militia in England, and to suspend the making of Lists and Ballots for the Militia of the United Kingdom. [28th August 1860.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Laws relating to the Ballot for the Militia 'in England, and the Proceedings preparatory thereto, in the Cases where a Ballot 'may be required for supplying the Vacancies in the Militias of any Counties or Places; 'and it is also expedient to suspend for a further Period the Ballots for the Militia of the 'United Kingdom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

General Meetings of Lieutenancy may alter the existing Subdivisions.

I. The Lieutenant of each County, Riding, and Place in England shall as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, when required or authorized so to do by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, summon a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of such County, Riding, or Place, and such Lieutenant, together with Three or more Deputy Lieutenants, or in the Absence of the Lieutenant, or, if his Office be vacant, vacant, any Five or more Deputy Lieutenants, may at such General Meeting, or at an Adjournment thereof, alter all or any of the appointed Subdivisions within such County, Riding, or Place, or constitute new Subdivisions therein, in such Manner as may appear to them convenient for the Execution of this Act and other Acts in relation to the Militia (the Act of the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty, Section Ten, notwithstanding), and the Lieutenant shall report the Result of every such Meeting and the Description of the Subdivisions of such County, Riding, and Place, whether altered or constituted at such Meeting, or otherwise, to the Secretary of State.

Quota of Subdivisions to be fixed by Orders in Council.

II. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, after the General Meetings of Lieutenancy herein-before directed to be holden, and afterwards from Time to Time as Occasion may appear to Her Majesty to require, to ascertain and fix the Number of Militiamen who shall, until other Quotas shall be fixed in like Manner, serve for each Subdivision of every County, Riding, and Place, and the Numbers so fixed as aforesaid shall be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the said Counties, Ridings, and Places from Time to Time, and Notice of the same shall be published in the London Gazette, and the Numbers so from Time to Time appointed by Her Majesty shall be the Quotas of the several Subdivisions until other Quotas are appointed in like Manner.

Secretary-at-War to apportion Deficiency among Subdivisions, and certify Numbers to be raised.

III. The Secretary-at-War shall, at such Time as he shall think fit in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty, and previously to the Month of September in every subsequent Year, apportion between or among the Subdivisions in each County, Riding, and Place, according to the Quotas for the Time being fixed as aforesaid for such Subdivisions, the Number of Men required to be raised, in addition to those then serving, to make up the full Quota for each County, Riding, and Place, and certify or cause to be certified to the Clerk of each Subdivision the Number of Men which pursuant to such Apportionment is to be raised by Ballot in such Subdivision.

Regard to be had in Apportionment of the Number of Men actually serving who when enrolled were resident in each Subdivision, &c.

IV. As well in apportioning the Number of Men required to be raised between or among the several Subdivisions as aforesaid, as in fixing under the Provisions herein-after contained the Number to serve for each Parish of a Subdivision, regard shall be had to the Number of private Men for the Time being serving in the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place, who at the Time of their being enrolled were resident in each such Subdivision or Parish, as the Case may be, and Credit shall be given to each Subdivision and Parish respectively for the private Men actually serving as aforesaid who at the Time of being enrolled were resident in such Subdivision or Parish, and if the Number of private Men actually serving as aforesaid who at the Time of being enrolled were resident in such Subdivision or Parish amounts to or exceeds the full Number of Men which (upon an Apportionment among Subdivisions of the full Number of the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place,) such Subdivision ought to furnish, or which on the like Apportionment of the full Quota of the Subdivision among the Parishes therein such Parish ought to furnish, the Men required to be raised to make up any Deficiency of the whole County or Subdivision shall be apportioned among the other Subdivisions or Parishes, as the Case may be, to the Exemption of the Subdivision or Parish from which such full Number of Men has been enrolled.

Lord Lieutenant to appoint Places for holding Subdivision Meetings.

V. The Lord Lieutenant of every County, Riding, and Place shall, at or after the General Meeting of Lieutenancy herein-before directed to be holden, appoint the Places at which Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy shall be holden for the several Subdivisions within such County, Riding, or Place, and may from Time to Time alter the same as he may see Occasion, and shall cause Notice to be given by Advertisement in One or more Newspaper or Newspapers circulating in such County, Riding, or Place, of the Places so fixed, and of the Alterations from Time to Time made as aforesaid.

As to holding of Subdivision Meetings.

VI. A Subdivision Meeting of Lieutenancy shall be holden for each of the Subdivisions in every County, Riding, and Place on the First Wednesday in the Month of October in every Year, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon.

Notices to be given to Householders.

VII. The Overseers of the Poor of every Parish shall, within Seven Days after the Second Monday in the Month of September in every Year, give or leave Notice in Writing, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act marked (A.), to the Occupier of every Dwelling House within their Parish, at such Dwelling House, or if such Dwelling House be divided into different Apartments occupied separately by several Persons, then to the Occupier of each separate Apartment, requiring him or her to prepare and produce, within Five Days next after the Day of giving such Notice, a List in Writing, to the best of his or her Belief, of the Christian Name and Surname of every Man dwelling therein between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty, distinguishing therein every such Person claiming to be exempt from serving in the Militia, with the Ground of every such Claim; and every such Occupier shall, after such Notice so given or left, make out such List, and sign the same with his or her own Name and shall deliver the same, or cause the same to be delivered, to the Overseers, who are hereby required to collect the Returns to such Notices as aforesaid; and for the Purposes of this Act the Term "Parish" shall mean any Parish, Township, extra-parochial or other Place for which Overseers are appointed; and where Overseers are not required to be appointed for any Extra-parochial Place by reason of its contributing under Agreement to the Poor Rates of any Parish, such Extra-parochial Place shall for the Purposes of this Act be deemed Part of such Parish.

Penalty on Householder not making Return.

VIII. Every Occupier who neglects or refuses to make out, sign, and deliver such List as aforesaid within the Time herein-before limited, or who knowingly omits any Person who ought to have been included therein, or knowingly makes any false Return of any Particular required therein, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

List to be made out from Returns.

IX. The Overseers of every Parish shall, within Fourteen Days after having delivered such Notices as aforesaid, make out or cause to be made out a fair and true List in Writing, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act marked (B.), of the Names of all the Men usually and at that Time dwelling within the Parish to which such List refers between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty Years, as well of those who have not made any Return or not been returned in pursuance of such Notices as aforesaid, as of those who have made such Returns or been returned in pursuance thereof, distinguishing their respective Ranks and Occupations, and those who have made Returns to such Notices from those who have neglected to make such Returns, (and where the true Name of any Person cannot be procured the common Application of such Person shall be sufficient,) and distinguishing which of the Persons so returned labour under any known Infirmity incapacitating them from serving as Militiamen, and which of the Persons so returned claim or are known to be exempt from serving in the Militia, and on what Account, and shall cause a true Copy of every such List to be affixed on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every Church and public Chapel in such Parish, including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church, or (if such Parish have no such Church or Chapel) then on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every such Church and Chapel of some Parish thereto adjoining, during some One Sunday before they make the Return to the Deputy Lieutenants as directed by this Act, and shall afterwards make a Return of such List as aforesaid, or a true and exact Copy thereof, to the Deputy Lieutenants of the Subdivision in which the Parish is comprised, at their Meeting to be holden on the First Wednesday in the Month of October in the same Year, at the Time appointed for holding thereof.

Vestry Meeting to be called in each Parish to determine as to providing Volunteers under Sect. 42. of 42 G. 3. c. 90.

X. The Overseers of the Poor of each Parish shall, within the Time within which they are required to give or leave such Notices as aforesaid, call a Vestry or Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Parish to determine whether or no any Volunteer or Volunteers shall be provided on Behalf of the Parish under Section Forty-two of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, and shall report the Result of such Vestry or Meeting to the Subdivision Meeting as herein-after provided; and where any Volunteer or Volunteers provided for a Parish under the said Section of the said Act shall be produced to the Deputy Lieutenants at the Subdivision Meeting appointed for the Ballot, and shall be examined and approved, every such Volunteer shall be sworn and enrolled as in the Case of

of a balloted Man, and the Number to be chosen by Ballot for such Parish shall be reduced or dispensed with, as the Case may require.

Lists to be returned to Subdivision Meetings, and Deputy Lieutenants to amend Lists, and appoint Meetings for the Ballot.

XI. The said Overseers shall attend at the said Meeting at which Lists are required to be returned by them under this Act, and shall verify their said Returns upon Oath, and shall at the same Meeting report to the Deputy Lieutenants the Result of the Vestry or other Meetings of their respective Parishes, and the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, assembled in their respective Subdivisions, shall direct the Names of all Persons by Law exempted or incapacitated from serving in the Militia to be struck out from the several Lists, and shall direct to be inserted therein the Names of any Persons that have been wrongfully omitted, where the Right to be exempted, the Incapacity, or the Omission may be within the Knowledge of any of such Deputy Lieutenants, or may be made known to them by the Overseers making such Returns or otherwise; and the Lists for all the Parishes in each Subdivision, with such Corrections, if any, as may be so made therein, shall together, for the Purpose of the Ballot under this Act, form and be the List for such Subdivision, and at the said Meeting the Deputy Lieutenants or any Two or more of them there assembled shall ascertain and fix the Number of Militiamen, who shall until other Quotas shall be fixed in like Manner serve for each Parish of such Subdivision, having regard as herein-before provided to the Number of private Men then serving in the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place, who at the Time of their being enrolled were resident in any such Parish, and shall thereupon appoint another Meeting to be holden not later than Seven Days thereafter for the Ballot, and shall direct the Overseers of the Parishes in such Subdivision to give such public Notice in their respective Parishes of the Time so appointed for such Meeting, and of the Purpose thereof, as to the said Deputy Lieutenant shall seem meet.

Penalty for inducing Overseer to make false Returns, or refusing to tell Name, &c.

XII. Every Person who, by Gratuity, Gift, or Reward, or by any Threat or Promise, or otherwise, directly or indirectly endeavours to prevail on any Person not to make any Return, or to make a false Return of any List for any Place, or to omit or erase from or out of any such List the Name of any Person who ought to be returned to serve as a Militiaman, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and every Person who refuses to tell his Christian Name and Surname, or who knowingly tells a false Name, pretending the same to be his true Christian Name or Surname, or who refuses to tell the Christian Name or Surname of any Man lodging or dwelling within his or her House or Apartment, or knowingly tells any false Name, pretending it to be the true Name of any such Person, to any Overseer who may demand the same for the Purpose of making, correcting, or verifying any Return or List required by this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

Deputy Lieutenants may require the Attendance of Overseers, Constables, &c.

XIII. The Deputy Lieutenants within any Subdivision, or any Two or more of them, from Time to Time may issue their Order or Warrant under their Hands and Seals, requiring the Attendance of any Overseer, or any Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Peace Officer of any Parish within such Subdivision, at such Time and Place as in such Order or Warrant shall be expressed; and if any such Officer whose Attendance is so required refuse or neglect to appear according to such Order or Warrant, or if any Overseer refuse or neglect to perform his Duty in the Execution of this Act, or in making any Return under this Act be guilty of any Fraud or wilful Partiality or gross Neglect in his Duty, the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, shall be empowered and required to commit the Person so offending to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding One Calendar Month, or, at their Discretion, to fine such Person in any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

At the said Subdivision Meeting for Ballot twice the Number of Men required to be chosen by Ballot, and another Meeting appointed.

XIV. At the Subdivision Meeting appointed for the Ballot the Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them there assembled, after making due Allowance for any Volunteer or Volunteers who may be produced on Behalf of any Parish, and examined, approved, and sworn as herein-before provided, shall cause twice the Number of Men required to serve in the Militia for each Parish of such Subdivision to be chosen by Ballot in manner following; (that is to say,) the Names of the Persons liable to be balloted shall publicly, and in the Presence of such Magistrates, Churchwardens, and Overseers as choose to attend, be called over over from the Parish List and put into the Box or Glass for balloting, and be in like Manner publicly drawn out until the Number of Men to be chosen by Ballot has been obtained; and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall cause the Names of the Men so drawn to be called or read over, and entered in a Book, and numbered in the Order in which they are drawn, and shall appoint another Meeting to be holden within Seven Days in the same Subdivision, and the Clerk of the Subdivision Meeting shall forthwith send Notice by the Post to every Man so chosen, addressed to him at his Place of Abode as stated in the Overseer's List, requiring him to appear at the Meeting so appointed, and specifying the Place, Day, and Hour of holding the same; and the Overseers of each Parish within such Division shall forthwith cause Notices to be affixed on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every Church and public Chapel in such Parish, including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church, or (if such Parish have no such Church or Chapel) then on the Door or the outer Wall near the Door of every such Church and Chapel of some Parish thereto adjoining, which Notices shall state the Names and Places of Abode of such of the Men so chosen as were on the List made for such Parish, and the Fact of their having been so chosen, and shall require them to appear at the Meeting appointed as aforesaid, and shall specify the Place, Day, and Hour of holding the same.

At such Meeting Claims of Exemption to be heard;

XV. Every Person so chosen by Ballot shall upon such Notice appear at such Meeting; and if any Person so chosen consider that his Name ought not to have been returned or inserted in the List for his Parish, or that he is not liable to serve in the Militia, he may make his Objection at such Meeting, and the Determination thereon of any Two Deputy Lieutenants if only Two be assembled, or of the greater Number of those present if more than Two, shall be final.

Lists to be corrected, and the Number of Men required to be sworn and enrolled.

XVI. The said Deputy Lieutenants shall, after striking out the Names of Persons whose Objections are allowed, take and cause to be examined the remaining Persons chosen by Ballot as aforesaid, in the Order in which their Names are numbered, until the full Number of Men appearing to be of the Height of not less than Five Feet Two Inches and able and fit for Service, which is required for such Parish for the Militia, has been obtained; and the Men taken and examined, and appearing to be of such Height and able and fit for Service, shall then and there take the Oath required to be taken by Men raised by Ballot, and be enrolled (in a Roll to be prepared for that Purpose) to serve in the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place as a Private Militiaman for the Space of Five Years; and for the Purpose of any Examination as aforesaid the Secretary of War shall by his Regulations provide for the Attendance at any Meeting where the Men are so examined of a duly qualified Medical Practitioner, and for the Payment of such Medical Practitioner out of such Monies as may be provided by Parliament for this Purpose, and when such full Number of Men has been obtained the remaining Men on the said List shall be discharged from all further Attendance.

Provision for Case of List of balloted Men beingexhausted before the requisite Number obtained.

XVII. If from Incapacity for Service, Exemption, or other Cause the List of Men chosen by Ballot be exhausted before the full Number of Men required to be furnished for any Parish has been obtained, the Deputy Lieutenants shall, at the Meeting at which such List is found to be exhausted, or at any subsequent Meeting to be appointed for the Purpose, cause twice the Number deficient to be chosen by Ballot, and a Supplemental List of the Men so chosen to be formed in manner herein provided with respect to the choosing of Men for and the Formation of the original List, and shall, at a subsequent Meeting to be appointed for this Purpose, after the like Notices have been given and affixed as required in the Case of the first choosing of Men, provide for such Deficiency out of the Men so chosen in like Manner as in the Case of such original List.

Supply of Vacancies happening between the annual Ballots from Lists of balloted Men.

XVIII. Where after the Number of Men required have been raised by Ballot, Vacancies happen by Death, Discharge, or otherwise among the Militiamen so raised in any Parish or Parishes, and the Secretary-at-War may think it requisite that such Vacancies be supplied before the Time of the next annual Ballot, a Subdivision Meeting shall be held in the Subdivision in which such Parish or Parishes is or are situate, at such Time as shall be appointed by the Secretary-at-War and certified to the Clerk of the Subdivision for this this Purpose; and the Deputy Lieutenants shall at any such Meeting, or at any subsequent Meeting, cause twice the Number of Men required to supply the Vacancies to be chosen by Ballot, and a Supplemental or further Supplemental List of the Men so chosen to be formed in manner provided with respect to the choosing of Men for and the Formation of the original List at the annual Ballot, and shall at a subsequent Meeting to be appointed for this Purpose, after the like Notices have been given and affixed as required under the Enactment herein-before contained in the Case of the Men on the original List at the annual Ballot, supply out of such Supplemental or further Supplemental List the said Vacancies in like Manner as directed for providing the Men required for the Parish out of the original List.

Men sworn to attend at Head Quarters.

XIX. The Men sworn as herein-before provided shall within Seven Days after being sworn attend at the Head Quarters of the Regiment, or such other convenient Place as may be directed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, by any Order of Her Majesty, signified by One of the Principal Secretaries of State, there to be drilled, trained, or exercised by way of preliminary Instruction for not exceeding Twenty-eight Days, in like Manner and subject to the same Provisions as in the Case of Volunteers.

Balloted Man may produce a Substitute.

XX. Any balloted Man who becomes liable to serve in the Militia may, at the Meeting at which it appears that he is so liable to serve, produce for his Substitute a Man of such Age and Height as by the Regulations of the Secretary at War may be required in the Case of Volunteers raised for the Militia, and of the same County, Riding, or Place as such balloted Man, and who has not been drawn by Ballot in the same or any other Subdivision, and such Man, if on Examination appearing able and fit to serve, shall be accepted as such Substitute, and sworn and enrolled as in the Case of a balloted Man.

Consequences of not appearing and being sworn.

XXI. If any Person chosen by Ballot under this Act (not being a Quaker) required to appear at any Subdivision Meeting in pursuance of any Notice given under this Act refuse or neglect to appear, and he become liable in the Rotation herein-before prescribed to be taken and examined as herein-before provided, or if any Person so taken and examined refuse to take the said Oath and serve in the Militia, or to provide such Substitute as herein-before mentioned, who shall be examined and approved and take the said Oath, every such Person shall forfeit any Sum not less than Forty Shillings and not exceeding Ten Pounds, and at the Expiration of Five Years be again liable to serve or provide a Substitute, and in default of Payment of such Penalty, or for Want of sufficient Effects whereon to levy the same, the Name of such Person shall be entered on the Roll, and he shall be delivered over to some proper Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps for which he was balloted, and be compelled (if found fit for Service) to serve for Five Years from the Time of his being apprehended, and be subject to the same Punishment for afterwards absconding or deserting as he would have been subject to in case he had been then sworn and enrolled in the ordinary Way.

Consequences of Refusal to be examined.

XXII. If any Man chosen by Ballot as aforesaid, and becoming liable in the Rotation herein-before provided to be taken and examined, refuse, when required by any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants, to be examined as to his Fitness to serve in the Militia, such Person may, at the Discretion of any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants, be imprisoned for any Time not exceeding One Week, and shall, notwithstanding such Imprisonment, be liable to be enrolled to serve in the Militia if he appear to the Deputy Lieutenants a proper Person to be so enrolled.

Sections 27. and 33. of 42 G. 3. c. 90. as to Quakers to apply to this Act.

XXIII. Sections Twenty-seven and Thirty-three of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, in relation to Occupiers and Overseers who are Quakers, shall apply to and in the Case of Proceedings under this Act, and Section Fifty of the said Act, as amended by the Act of the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty, in relation to Persons being Quakers chosen by Ballot to serve in the Militia, and refusing or neglecting to appear and to take the Oath and serve in the Militia or provide a Substitute, shall apply to Persons being Quakers who may be chosen by Ballot, and become, or but for being Quakers would become, liable in the Rotation herein-herein-before prescribed to be taken and examined, and if found fit to be sworn and enrolled as herein-before provided.

Forms to be furnished by Secretary of State, and Expenses incurred to be defrayed out of Monies provided by Parliament.

XXIV. One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall from Time to Time cause to be furnished to the said Overseers the necessary Forms for the Purpose of the said Notices and Lists, and the Expenses incurred by such Overseers in and about the collecting Returns to such Notices, and making the Returns so required of them, and otherwise in the Performance of the Duties imposed on them by this Act, shall be defrayed out of such Monies as may be provided by Parliament for this Purpose.

Provision consequential on Alteration of Quotas.

XXV. Where upon any Alteration of the Quota of any County, Riding, or Place, or of any Subdivision, such Quota shall be increased, no Proceedings shall be taken for making up the Number of Men serving for such County, Riding, Place, or Subdivision to the full Quota by means of the Ballot, until the Time for the next annual Proceedings for the Purpose of the Ballot; and where upon any such Alteration the Quota is decreased below the Number then actually serving, the Men actually serving shall nevertheless continue to serve during their Term of Service as if such Quota had not been decreased.

Provisions herein-before contained as to the Ballot to apply to Militia raised in England only; and certain Enactments herein named to be repealed.

XXVI. The Provisions herein-before contained for and in relation to the Ballot shall apply only to the Militia to be raised in England: The following Enactments relating to such Militia shall be repealed; (that is to say,) the Sections numbered Twenty-five, Twenty-six, Twenty-eight, Twenty-nine, Thirty, Thirty-one, Thirty-two, Thirty-six, Thirty-seven, Thirty-eight, Thirty-nine, Forty, Forty-four, and Forty-five of the Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety, and Section Forty-one of the same Act, except so much thereof as prescribes the Form of Oath to be taken by Men raised by Ballot; and Sections Thirteen and Fourteen of the Act of the Forty-third Year of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty; and Section One of the Act of the Forty-third Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred; and all the Provisions now in force of the said Act of the Forty-second Year of King George the Third, and of any Acts amending the same not hereby repealed, shall, so far as the same are consistent with the Provisions herein-before contained, be applicable for the Purposes thereof, and be construed therewith as One Act.

Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom and Ballots for such Militia suspended.

XXVII. Provided always, That all Proceedings under the Enactments herein-before contained, except only the holding of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy under Section One of this Act, and the Proceedings to be had at such Meetings, and the Report of the Result thereof, and the Ascertainment and fixing of the Number of Militiamen to serve for Subdivisions, and the Appointment by Lord Lieutenants of the Places for holding Subdivision Meetings, shall, unless Her Majesty by Order in Council otherwise direct, be suspended until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; and all General and Subdivision Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom, and all Proceedings relating to procuring any Returns, or preparing or making out Lists of such Militia or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of a Ballot, or relating to balloting for any Militiamen or supplying any Vacancies in such Militia by Ballot, as are or may be directed or authorized by or under any Act of Parliament now in force, shall cease and remain suspended until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Proceedings may be had during such Suspension by Order in Council.

XXVIII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by any Order in Council to direct that any Proceedings shall be had at any Time before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid, either for the giving of Notices and making Returns and preparing Lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol Men for the filling up Vacancies in the Militia, as Her Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order all such Proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the Provisions herein-before contained, and all other the Provisions of the Acts in force in the United Kingdom relating to the giving Notices for and Returns of Lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of Men to supply any Vacancies in the Militia, and holding General and Subdivision Meetings for such Purpose, at such Times respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any Directions given in pursuance thereof to or by Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants

Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants, of the several Counties, Shires, Cities, and Places in the United Kingdom; and all the Provisions of this Act, and of the several other Acts in force in the United Kingdom relating to the Militia shall, upon any such Order, and any Directions given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full Force and be carried into execution by all Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Overseers, Constables, and all other Persons, at the Periods or respective Times specified in such Order or Directions as aforesaid, with all such Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect thereof, as fully as if such Periods or respective Times had been fixed in this Act or the other Acts relating to such Militia.

Not to extend to prevent the holding of certain Meetings relating to the Militia.

XXIX. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the holding before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid of such General or other Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom as may be called in Great Britain under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in Ireland under the Authority of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or of any Meeting which may be called for the Purpose of altering, enlarging, or providing any Place for the Reception of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, or other Stores belonging to the Militia.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 13.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty to provide for the Government of Her Settlements on the Coast of Africa and in the Falkland Islands, Provision was made for the Government of such Settlements which were then or might thereafter be made by any of Her Majesty's Subjects resorting to the said Coast or in the said Islands: And whereas divers of Her Majesty's Subjects have occupied or may hereafter occupy other Places, being Possessions of Her Majesty, but in which no Government has been established by Authority of Her Majesty: And whereas it is necessary that Provision should be made for the Civil Government of such Places, and for the Administration of Justice therein:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

6 & 7 Vict. c. 13. extended

I. The Provisions of the said Act shall extend to all Possessions of Her Majesty not having been acquired by Cession or Conquest, nor (except in virtue of this Act) being within
