CHAPTER 28.

An Act to further amend the Law relating to Juries in Ireland. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS the law relating to juries in Ireland was amended by "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," but the time during which the provisions of the said Act should be in force and operation was by the said Act limited to the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five:

And whereas it is expedient that certain of the said provisions should continue in force and operation for a further limited time:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1874;" and the Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1873, and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, and the same may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1874."

Certain provisions of 36 Vict. c. 27. continued.

2. The provisions of "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," with the exception of sections three and eight, shall continue in force and operation until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six; and the said provisions of the said Act hereby continued shall be read and construed as if the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six" were therein inserted instead of the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five," and as if the words "in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four" were inserted in section five instead of the words "in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three."

CHAPTER 29.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Militia. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the Militia:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Militia Law Amendment Act, 1874."

Power to Her Majesty to regulate the Militia by warrants and regulations, &c.

2. Subject to any Act of Parliament for the time being in force, Her Majesty may, by royal warrants, orders, and regulations, give directions as to the pay, promotion, clothing, and government of the Militia, and as to other matters and things relating to the Militia, in the same manner and to the same extent in and to which Her Majesty may, by royal warrants, orders, and regulations, give directions as to the pay, promotion, and government of Her Majesty's regular forces, and other matters and things relating to Her Majesty's regular forces.

Existing Militia Pay Acts to have

3. From and after the passing of this Act, the Militia Pay Acts shall cease to be of any force as Acts of Parliament, but shall have the same effect as if Her Majesty had, immediately after the passing of this Act, embodied the provisions thereof in a royal warrant. same force as royal warrants.

4. "The Militia Pay Acts" shall mean the Militia Pay Acts, 1868 and 1869, as continued by Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1873. Definition of "Militia Pay Acts."

CHAPTER 30.

An Act to transfer parts of the Holyhead Old Harbour Road from the Board of Trade to the Local Board of Health of the town of Holyhead; and for other purposes. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for vesting "in Commissioners the bridges now building over the Menai Straits and the river Conway, "and the harbours of Howth and Holyhead, and the road from Dublin to Howth, and "for the further improvement of the road from London to Holyhead," Commissioners were appointed to act in the execution of the said Act, and by the twenty-seventh section of the said Act it was enacted that a certain road leading round the harbour of Holyhead, from the drawbridge to the graving dock, and in the said section described, should from and after the first day of September then next ensuing be and become vested in the said Commissioners by that Act appointed, and should be thereafter maintained and repaired and supported by them in the manner in the said section prescribed: 4 G. 4. c. 74.

And whereas under the provisions of the London and North-western Railway (Additional Powers) Act, 1862, a portion of the said road was taken by and became vested in the London and North-western Railway Company for the purposes of their railway undertaking: 25 & 26 Vict. c. ccviii.

And whereas under the provisions of "The Harbours Transfer Act, 1862," the remaining parts of the said road described in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed are now vested in the Board of Trade, and the same are now maintained by the said Board: 25 & 26 Vict. c. 69. (Public.)

And whereas the said parts of the said road so maintained by the Board of Trade under the provisions aforesaid are wholly situate within the district of the Local Board of Health of the town of Holyhead, and are at all times open to the general public, and it is expedient that the same should be transferred to and vested in the said local board, and should be maintained, repaired, and supported by the said local board as other highways within the district of the said local board; and that for such purpose the said enactments, so far as they relate to the said parts of the said road, should be repealed, and that such provisions as are in this Act contained should be made:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Holyhead Old Harbour Road Act, 1874." Short title.

2. The enactments set forth in the first column of the Schedule B. to this Act annexed shall, to the extent specified in the second column of the said schedule, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repeal of enactments in Schedule B.

3. From and after the passing of this Act, the parts of the Holyhead Old Harbour Road described in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed shall be transferred to and shall Road in Schedule A. to be
