And Whereas by Article 3 of the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1950(a), made under subsection (2) of the said section eight on the second day of November, nineteen hundred and fifty, it is provided that the powers exercisable under the said section eighteen shall be exercisable in relation to any Defence Regulations remaining in force by virtue of that section when that Order was made as if for the reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, there were substituted a reference to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one:

And Whereas it is expedient to revoke certain Defence Regulations continued in force by the Emergency Laws (Miscellanous Provisions) (Isle of Man) Order in Council, 1950(b), made in pursuance of the said section eighteen as amended by subsection (1) of the said section eight and the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1950:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said section eighteen as amended by subsection (1) of the said section eight and the said Order and all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. In sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (1) of Regulation sixteen of the Defence (General) Regulations (Isle of Man), 1939(c), the words " or adjoining any protected place " and in paragraph (2) of the said Regulation the words " or protected place " shall be omitted.

2. Paragraph (1A) of Regulation 52(d) of the said Regulations (which suspends various provisions of the National Defence Property Regulation Act, 1938, an Act of Tynwald) shall be omitted.

3. This Order may be cited as the Defence Regulations (Isle of Man) (No. 2) Order, 1950, and shall come into operation on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.
