EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Misuse of Drugs Regulations 1973.

The principal amendments are contained in Regulation 2(10), (11) and (12). Those paragraphs add certain drugs which are made subject to control under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 by virtue of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 (Modification) Order 1984 (S.I. 1984/859) to the Schedules to the 1973 Regulations, as follows:— Alfentanil and Mecloqualone are added to Schedule 2; certain barbiturates (that is to say, 5,5 disubstituted barbituric acids and Methylphenobarbitone), and also Diethylpropion, are added to Schedule 3; and Eticyclidine, Rolicyclidine and Tenocylidine are added to Schedule 4.

The other amendments are as follows:—

Regulation 2(2), (3), (5) and (7) amend Regulations 8(4), 9(1)(c), 9(4) and 10(4) of the 1973 Regulations so that registers kept by the Secretary of State, entry in which has the effect of rendering lawful certain cases of production, supply or possession of controlled drugs, are replaced by written authorities issued by him;

Regulation 2(4) amends Regulation 9(2) of the 1973 Regulations so as to make it lawful for a person in charge of a laboratory and acting in his capacity as such to supply, to someone who may lawfully possess it, any drug specified in Schedule 3 to the 1973 Regulations where that drug is required for use as a buffering agent in chemical analysis;

Regulation 10(1) of the 1973 Regulations makes it lawful for a person specified in Regulation 8(2)(a) to (k) or Regulation 9(2)(a) to (k) thereof to possess a drug specified in, respectively, Schedule 2 or 3 to those Regulations; Regulation 2(6) amends Regulation 10(1) of the 1973 Regulations so as to make it clear that where a person is specified in Regulation 8(2)(a) to (k) or 9(2)(a) to (k) as regards certain circumstances only, it is only as regards those circumstances that he is authorised to possess drugs;

Regulation 2(8) amends Regulation 14(4) of the 1973 Regulations so as to include a person in charge of any laboratory among the persons from whom the supplier of a controlled drug must obtain in certain cases a written requisition satisfying certain conditions;

Regulation 2(9) amends Regulation 15 of the 1973 Regulations so that a requirement that a prescription contain certain of the particulars stated in it in the handwriting of the person issuing it does not apply to prescriptions for phenobarbitone.
