EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Motor Vehicles (International Circulation) Regulations 1965 by:—

1. providing that persons resident outside the United Kingdom who bring vehicles temporarily into Great Britain need no longer furnish registration authorities with the particulars specified in the Schedule to the 1965 Regulations with respect to those vehicles or produce to those authorities insurance documents relating to those vehicles;

2. terminating the need for certain records to be made by registration authorities in respect of vehicles temporarily in Great Britain and for copies of those records to be preserved by the Greater London Council.
