collateral security for any loan made by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, with the approval of the Fishery Board, for the construction or improvement of harbours in Scotland, and may charge such grant with the repayment of any such loan or any part thereof with the interest thereon for such period and on such terms as may be agreed upon between the Fishery Board and the Public Works Loan Commissioners.

2. This Act may be cited as the Fishery Board (Scotland) Extension of Powers Act, 1894. Short title.

CHAPTER 15.

An Act to amend the Law as regards Music and Dancing Licences in Middlesex. [3rd July 1894.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Music and Dancing Licences (Middlesex) Act, 1894. Short title.

2. For the regulation of places ordinarily used for public dancing or music, or other public entertainment of the like kind, the following provisions shall have effect in the administrative county of Middlesex; namely, Music and dancing licences.

(1.) After the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, a house, room, garden, or other place, whether licensed or not for the sale of wines, spirits, beer, or other fermented or distilled liquors, shall not be kept or used for public dancing, singing, music, or other public entertainment of the like kind, without a licence for the purpose or purposes for which the same respectively is to be used first obtained from the County Council of Middlesex and for the registration thereof a fee of five shillings shall be paid by the person applying therefor; provided that such fee shall in no case be payable by any applicant in respect of any licence granted for the purpose of a charitable or other like entertainment:

(2.) The County Council may at any meeting convened with fourteen days' previous notice, or at any adjournment thereof, grant licences to such persons as they think fit to keep or use houses, rooms, gardens, or places for all or any of the purposes aforesaid upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such restrictions, as they by the respective licences determine, and every licence shall be in force for one year or for such shorter period as the County Council on the grant of the licence shall determine, unless the same shall have been previously revoked as herein-after provided:

(3.) The County Council may from time to time at any such meeting aforesaid transfer any such licence to such person as they think fit:

(4.) Each person shall in each case give fourteen days' notice to the clerk of the County Council and to the superintendent of police of the police division in which the house, room, garden, or place is situated, of his intention to apply for any such licence, or for the transfer of any such licence:

(5.) Any house, room, garden, or place kept or used for any of the purposes aforesaid without such licence first obtained shall be deemed a disorderly house, and the person occupying, or rated as occupier of, the same shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day on which the same is kept or used for any of the purposes aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any constable, being thereunto authorised by warrant under the hand of one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace for the county of Middlesex, to enter any such house, room, garden, or place so kept or used without such licence as aforesaid, and to apprehend every person who shall be found therein in order that they may be dealt with according to law:

(6.) There shall be affixed and kept up in some conspicuous place on the door or entrance of every house, room, garden, or place so kept or used and so licensed as aforesaid an inscription in large capital letters in the words following: "Licensed in "pursuance of Act of Parliament for ," with the addition of words showing the purpose or purposes for which the same is licensed:

(7.) Any house, room, garden, or place so kept or used, although so licensed as aforesaid, shall not be opened for any of the said purposes except on the days and between the hours stated in the licence: Provided that no such house, room, garden, or other place so kept or used shall be open for any of the purposes aforesaid after midnight and before the hour of noon; save that if on any special occasion an occasional licence of exemption shall have been granted under the twenty-ninth section of the Licensing Act, 1872, in respect of any house, room, garden, or other place licensed under this Act, no penalty shall be incurred on account of such house, room, garden, or other place being kept open for any of the purposes aforesaid on such special occasion from midnight until the hour specified in such occasional licence as the hour for closing:

35 & 36 Vict. c. 94.

(8.) The affixing and keeping up of such inscription as aforesaid, and the observance of the days and hours of opening and closing, shall be inserted in and made a condition of every such licence:

(9.) In case of any breach or disregard of any of the terms or conditions upon or subject to which the licence was granted, the holder thereof shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and in the case of a continuing offence to a daily penalty (i.e., a penalty for each day on which such offence is continued after conviction therefor) not exceeding five pounds, and such licence shall be liable to be revoked by the order of the County Council:

(10.) No notice need be given under sub-section (4) of this section when the application is for a renewal of any existing licence held by the applicant for the same premises:

(11.) The County Council may, if and as they think fit, grant to any person applying for the same a licence to keep or use any house, room, garden, or place for any purpose within the meaning of this section for any period not exceeding fourteen days, which they shall specify in such licence, notwithstanding that no notice shall have been given under sub-section (4) of this section:

(12.) From and after the passing of this Act sections two and three of the Disorderly Houses Act, 1751, and the whole of the Public Entertainments Act, 1875, shall be repealed so far as relates to the administrative county of Middlesex: 25 Geo. 2. c. 36. 38 & 39 Vict. c. 21.

(13.) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to interfere with any other enactment respecting the prosecution of persons keeping disorderly houses:

(14.) The powers by this Act conferred upon the County Council shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any of the powers of licensing now vested in the County Council.

CHAPTER 16.

An Act to amend the Supreme Court of Judicature Acts.

[3rd July 1894.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Appeals.

1.—(1.) No appeal shall lie— Regulations as to appeals.

(a) from an order allowing an extension of time for appealing from a judgment or order; nor

(b) without the leave of the Judge, or of the Court of Appeal, from any interlocutory order or interlocutory judgment made or given by a Judge, except in the following cases, namely:—

(i.) where the liberty of the subject or the custody of infants is concerned; and
